Through embryo transfer...

Rare English Longhorn calf born at Conner Prairie

An embryo transfer English Longhorn calf was born at Conner Prairie Wednesday – the first birth of its kind in decades.

The calf is now one of 11 English Longhorns at Conner Prairie, which has the second-largest herd of the breed in the U.S. There are only about 40 English Longhorns in the country.

The 7-day-old embryo was shipped from England in liquid nitrogen to keep it cold and implanted into one of the museum's Shorthorn cows at an offsite facility nine months ago. The embryo came from Blackbrook Longhorns, a facility located in the United Kingdom operated by John and Pat Stanley.

"This is the only time it's been done (with English Longhorns) in the United States since 1993," said Conner Prairie Livestock Manager Kevyn Miller. "Blackbrook Longhorns have been instrumental in helping promote and preserve the breed."

The calf born at Conner Prairie is a bull. Miller said plans are to breed the bull to English Longhorn cows at the museum to diversify the genetics of the herd.

"We've got two different genetic lines now," Miller said. "We can keep breeding for several generations without inbreeding."

English Longhorn cattle are historically accurate to the 19th century. The breed also has several traits that would be lost forever should the breed go extinct. Those traits include lean and tender meat, a gentle disposition, exceptional mothering by cows and intelligence that's superior to other breeds.

This is the first time Conner Prairie has used embryo transfer technology. Miller said it could prove instrumental in preserving English Longhorns in the U.S.

"This is a new technology to save a really, really old breed," he said.

Spanning nearly 1,000 wooded acres in central Indiana, Conner Prairie welcomes nearly 400,000 visitors of all ages annually. As Indiana's first Smithsonian Institute

Westfield City Council approves funding for façade improvement program

The Westfield City Council approved additional funding for the community's façade improvement program at Monday's council meeting.

"We've seen a lot of success with our local business community through this program," Council President Jim Ake said. "Providing this additional available funding will allow us to continue to assist businesses that want to invest in Westfield."

The council approved funding an additional $6,627 to bring the total available amount to $10,000. The program offers grants to local downtown businesses for up to 50 percent of the eligible expenses (up to $5,000).

The improvement program was started in 2011 with a budget of $50,000. Since that time, money from the program has funded 14 projects for local businesses such as My Father's Garden and Rail Epicurean Market.

Westfield's economic development staff calculate that the total investment from these projects is $167,388 with an additional $6,757 expected in the next six months.

More information about the façade program can be found at www.westfield.in.gov or by contacting the Economic and Community Development Department at (317) 804-3170.

Plane Pull event honors legacy of Carmel boy, Tyler Frenzel

Are you strong enough to take on the metal giant? Have you ever wanted to test your strength to pull an airplane? On Saturday, April 22, 2017, you can have a chance when Republic Airline sponsors the 7th annual “Pulling for Wishes” Plane Pull in memory of Tyler Frenzel of Carmel, Indiana.

Sick children often inspire others. Tyler Frenzel was no different. On December 20, 2002, when Tyler was 7 ½ years old, he was diagnosed with Leukemia. From the day of his diagnosis, Tyler handled his challenge with courage, grace and strength. To Tyler, cancer was not a devastating death sentence, just a stumbling block along the road of his life.

Tyler initially responded well to treatment, achieving remission within the first month, and he even returned to his favorite sports of soccer and baseball. Following his “wish trip” to Disney World in January 2004, however, the cancer returned, forcing more grueling chemotherapy and an unsuccessful bone marrow transplant. On December 11, 2004, at just 9 ½ years old, Tyler lost his battle with Leukemia.

Throughout his illness, Tyler kept his faith and hope alive. When people would donate money to Tyler, he would turn around and give it back to help others, like Scott Rolen’s E5 Foundation, the Indiana Children’s Wish Fund, the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, and St. Elizabeth Seton Church. Since his death, the Frenzel family has continued Tyler’s legacy of giving back through events honoring Tyler, and now through the “Pulling for Wishes” Plane Pull event.

Teams of 10 people (at least three women per team) will compete to be the fastest team to pull a twin-engine jet 15 feet. Raise a minimum of $500 and register a team for this fun event today.

In the evening on April 22, Prime 47 Carmel will host the “Pulling for Wishes” Plane Pull Gala, an exclusive tent experience event featuring comedian/impressionist Frank Caliendo.

All proceeds from both events will benefit the Indiana Children’s Wish Fund, an organization that grants wishes to Indiana children with life-threatening illnesses, Peyton Manning Children’s Hospital at St. Vincent and Riley Children’s Foundation. ## Letter to the Editor

Son appreciates Janet’s column about Dr. Haldon Kraft

It was with great interest and appreciation that I read Janet Hart Leonard's article about my dad, Dr. Haldon Kraft. I shared the article with my brothers, children, nieces, nephews and cousins. Everyone agreed: she really captured how dedicated my father was as an Obstetrician/Pediatrician back in the decades from the mid '30's until the early '70's. And, she expertly described the office waiting room, the patient rooms and the overwhelming scent of "antiseptics and medicine" which greeted every patient and their parent upon entering the office.

I have many memories of being the Dr. Kraft's son. We answered the phone at home: "Dr. Kraft's residence," and there was a scratch pad by the phone to take messages and phone numbers to pass along to dad. Sometimes, this meant looking for him in the garden or in the barn at "Onabend Farm," or somewhere in the house we occupied on Allisonville Road for over 50 years. And, yes, he did answer the phone in the middle of the night. Often, getting dressed and driving to the hospital to deliver a baby. He once told me that in the 40 plus years he practiced medicine in Noblesville, he delivered over 3,000 babies. Four of them were his sons: Mike, Jake, Tim and John.

Again, I want to thank Janet for taking the time to reminisce about my dad: Dr. Haldon Kraft. Your article meant so much to our extended 21st Century family!

VETERANS

stop paying respect to those who fought with honor and distinction in the name of freedom and democracy," said Mayor Jim Brainard. "Carmel takes great pride in honoring our military veterans. We hope you join us for this very special occasion."

Special unit Company D (Ranger), 151st Infantry, Indiana Army National Guard was the only ground maneuver sent to Vietnam, with almost every member both parachute and jungle qualified. Four members of Company D died in Vietnam, with two additional deaths resulting from a helicopter crash. The Indiana Rangers were decorated 538 times in Vietnam; no other single Army Infantry company was as decorated during a one-year period of time. Sgt. Davis served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War and was awarded the Nation's highest military medal for valor, the Medal of Honor. Nicknamed "The Real Forrest Gump," footage of Davis's Medal of Honor award ceremony was used in the 1994 film Forrest Gump, with actor Tom Hanks' head superimposed over that of Davis.

Bob Beck, U.S. Navy (Retired) and Carmel American Legion Commander, will lead the program designed to recognize, thank and honor all U.S. military veterans who served during the Vietnam War period. Each Vietnam Veteran in attendance will be presented with a special Vietnam Veteran lapel pin as well as a 50th commemorative Challenge Coin from Mayor Brainard. The event will also include The Mobile Vet Center, a mobile vehicle which provides confidential counseling space for veterans, service members and their families in need of services.

As United States Vietnam War Commemorative Partners, this is the third of several commemoration events scheduled to take place through 2018 as Carmel and the nation celebrates this milestone 50th anniversary of the end of the Vietnam War.

DAILY BIBLE VERSE

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

- Matthew 12:17

James “Jim” Milton Childers

May 4, 1941 - March 24, 2017

James "Jim" Milton Childers, 75, died March 24, 2017 in Sheridan, IN following a brief illness.

Jim's life will forever be cherished in the lives of his children: Son Jason Lee Childers (wife Julie Snethen Childers), grandchildren Josie and Justin Childers; son Guy Scott Childers (wife Anita Wallace Childers), grandchildren Jacob and Audia Childers, step-grandchildren Jared and Michael McVey, step-great grandchildren Liam and Gunner McVey and a myriad of wonderful brothers and sisters-in-law.

Jim was born May 4, 1941 to Chester Paul and Mary Florence Timmons Childers. He graduated from Sheridan High School in 1959 and went on to marry the love of his life, Monna Rose Olds in June of 1963. Early in their marriage Jim and Monna enjoyed going to horse shows and were inspired to become owners of several standard bread race horses. In the 80s, they owned and operated a horse supply business. Jim owned a roofing and water proofing company throughout the 70's and in 1970 went to work for Public Service Indiana (now Duke Energy) where he worked for 40 years before retiring in 2010. Jim's son Jason followed in his father's footsteps by becoming a line-man at Duke for which Jim was proud. Outside of work, Jim traveled the country for over 12 years with his good friend David Steele, racing sprint cars, silver crown cars and midget race cars. When he wasn't racing (whether it be on four legs or four tires), you could find Jim at his son Scott's body shop on Main Street or out running tow trucks. Anyone who knew Jim could see how compassionate of a person he was. This was evident by the way he cared for his wife, his family and his animals. Jim lived a full life and will be remembered as a loving father, husband and overall good person.

A calling is scheduled for March 30 from 4 to 6 pm with a funeral to follow. The service will be held at The Bible Church and will be officiated by Rev. Harrell Wilson. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Jim's life. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the National Sisterhood United for Journeyman Lineman in honor of James Childers at: nsujl.org/donations

Dental health is important for children's 'baby teeth'

(StatePoint) Parents and caregivers may be underestimating the importance of dental care for children’s “baby teeth.” According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, only 63 percent of children ages two to four see the dentist at least annually.

Most dental benefits cover preventive care visits twice a year with no out-of-pocket costs, and these visits are important for small children.

Baby teeth, (also known as primary teeth), play an important role in a child’s overall healthy development. If cavities begin and are left untreated, they can become painful and possibly infected. Loss of these teeth prematurely may impact eating, speaking, learning and self-esteem. Baby teeth help guide the way for permanent teeth to erupt into proper position.

“Tooth decay is preventable. The investment of only a few minutes each day on the part of parents and caregivers, coupled with regular dental checkups, goes a long way in creating healthy smiles to last a lifetime,” says Dr. Diane Monti-Markowski, clinical program director for Cigna Dental.

She offers these oral hygiene tips for those caring for small children:

- Plan to have your child visit the dentist by his or her first birthday or within six months after the first teeth appear.
- As a child’s teeth start to come in, brush them gently twice a day with a child-sized toothbrush and water.
- Begin flossing a child’s teeth daily when there are two teeth that touch.
- Do not put your baby to sleep with a bottle of formula, milk, juice or any other liquid other than water.

• Consider introducing toothpaste for children who are two and older and are able to follow directions to spit after brushing. The American Dental Association recommends using fluoride toothpaste about the size of a grain of rice for children younger than three years old and a pea-size amount for children three to six years old. By age three or four, your child should be able to brush with your supervision.

• Make brushing fun. Let your child pick out the color of his or her toothbrush. Play a favorite song or set a timer to help children understand that good brushing takes about two minutes twice a day.

Find more tips at Cigna.com/dental-resources. For detailed questions or concerns about a child’s oral health, it is important to consult a dentist.

“Adults can also reinforce the importance of oral health by their attitudes,” adds Dr. Monti-Markowski. “Encouraging good habits and showing a positive manner when visiting the dentist can lay the foundation for children to maintain healthy teeth throughout their lives.”

Millers start season with no-hitter

The Noblesville baseball team got off to a solid start on Monday, beating Guerin Catholic 4-0 at Don Dunker Field in the season opener for both teams.

Two pitchers combined to give the Class 4A No. 9 Millers a no-hitter. Reese Sharp threw five innings, then Tyler Owens finished the game by pitching the last two innings. Sharp struck out six, with Owens getting one strikeout. Sharp also collected one of Noblesville's two hits, with Alex Cleverly also getting hit.

The Millers scored their first run in the first inning, then added three more in the second inning.

Noblesville is heading to Tennessee for its annual Spring Break trip, and will begin play on Thursday by taking on Wilson Central. The Golden Eagles are off until April 5, when they play at Pendleton Heights.

Carmel girls to play at Hall of Fame Classic

The Carmel girls basketball team will make its third appearance in the Raymond James Hall of Fame Classic.

The fields for the annual holiday tournament, which now has a new name and sponsor, were announced on Monday for both the girls and boys. The girls tournament takes place on Friday, Dec. 29 with the boys on Saturday, Dec. 30.

Carmel will take on Martinsville in the first semi-final at 11 a.m., followed by Zionsville and East Chicago Central in the other semi-final. The consolation game is set for 6 p.m., followed by the championship game.

Graduating just one senior from one of the state's top teams in 2016-17, the Greyhounds seem poised for further success on the heels of their 23-4 sectional championship season.

Five-foot-ten junior guard Amy Dilk averaged 14.8 points, 6.6 rebounds, 6.4 assists and 3.2 steals, 5-9 junior Tomi Taiwo averaged 14.0 points and 3.7 rebounds, 6-3 junior Blake Smith averaged 8.4 points and 5.8 rebounds and 5-11 freshman Jasmine McWilliams averaged 6.0 points and 6.8 rebounds. Dilk and Smith have each been named 2017 Indiana Junior All-Stars.

Carmel has a 46-9 record over the last two seasons and has averaged 21 wins per season over the past three campaigns under head coach Tod Windlan.

Windlan's mark at Carmel is 63-17 in three seasons, and his teams are 197-112 over a 13-season career with Frankton, Anderson Highland, Delta, Hamilton Heights, Warren Central and Carmel, including leading Hamilton Heights to a 23-3 record and 2013 3A runner-up finish.

The Carmel girls make their third Classic appearance, following their 2005 runner-up finish and 2010 appearance.

No. 1 'Hounds off to 2-0 start

The Carmel baseball team entered the season as the No. 1 ranked team Class 4A.

So far, the Greyhounds are living up to that ranking. Carmel won its first two games of the season, beating 3A No. 3 Brebeuf Jesuit on the road Monday, then county rival Westfield 9-3 at Hartman Field on Tuesday. It was the opener for a young Shamrocks team.

Against the Westfield, the Greyhounds got on top early, leading 7-0 after two innings. The 'Rocks made a move in the top of the sixth, scoring all three of their runs, but Carmel's early advantage saw it through.

Jack Van Remortel and Aaron Ernst both had two hits for the 'Hounds, including a double for both. Rhett Wintner blasted a three-run home run. Parker Massman hit a double as well. Tommy Sommer, an Indiana University recruit, pitched three innings for the win, tossing six strikeouts.

"Pitching-wise is what we kind of expected," said first-year Carmel coach Matthew Bucakowski. "A little erratic. We need to get in the zone a little bit more. Hitting-wise, I've been happy with our approaches. I think our guys are taking pretty good swings."

Westfield had two hits each from Matthew Meyer, Sam Eaton and Zach Collins.

"We got to be realistic," said Shamrocks coach Ryan Bunnell. "We started three sophomores and a freshman. So we're young. But there were things to build on, and if we take care of the baseball, which honestly, we're capable of doing, I think that should be a strength of ours, it's a different ball game. We're in this ball game."

Westfield hosts 4A No. 8 Zionsville at 6 p.m. tonight for its first Hoosier Crossroads Conference game of the season. Carmel is off until April 10, when it travels to Hamilton Southeastern for a date with the 4A No. 4 Royals.

Fishers pitches well at Lebanon

Fishers, ranked No. 2 in Class 4A, opened up its season by winning a 2-0 Tuesday game at Lebanon. Four Tigers pitchers - Ryan Metz, Luke Duermit, Luke Albright and Taylor Soper - combined for a one-hit shutout. Metz, Duermit, and Albright each pitched two innings with Duermit (1-0) picking up the win, while Soper worked the seventh inning for a save. Albright led the way with five strikeouts, followed by Duermit with four, Metz with two, and Soper with one. The Fishers pitchers only faced 22 batters to record the 21 outs needed for the win. The Tigers quickly opened up the scoring in the first inning. Duermit led off the game with a walk and immediately stole second base. Craig Yoho followed with an RBI single to make the score 1-0. Fishers did not cross the plate again until the fifth inning when Andy Bennett plated Duermit. Bennett led the Tigers with a two-hit night finishing 2-for-4 with an RBI and three stolen bases. Duermit reached base all four times he batted with a single and three walks. Duermit had two stolen bases and scored both of Fishers' runs. Caleb Brenczewski also contributed a hit and a stolen base on the night.

The Tigers travel to Tennessee on Thursday for their annual Spring Break Trip. Fishers will play AA No. 4 Briarcrest Christian and AAA No. 17 Riverdale on Friday and AAA No. 3 Lebanon (Tenn.) and Oakland on Saturday.

With 3.4 seconds left in the game, Timberwolves guard Ricky Rubio was fouled on a 3-point shot, sending him to the line with a chance to give Minnesota a lead. Rubio calmly connected on all three, putting the T-Wolves up 115-114 and handing the Pacers one of their most frustrating home losses of the season.

The Pacers led for much of the fourth quarter, but with the game on the line, the Timberwolves scored five straight points, all in the form of free throws en route to the one-point victory.

Indiana had one last chance to win, as the Pacers put the game in the hands of Paul George with 3.4 seconds to play. George received the inbounds pass at the top of the key and took stock of the defense. With a double-team closing in, George rifled a pass to Monta Ellis, whose last-second desperation 3-pointer didn't go down, ending the Pacers' evening.

"As a team, we've got to have the grit, we've got to man up, got to own up," said Paul George after the game. "At this point in the season, you don't have a game like this, being up four with under a minute (left) and let your opponent beat you, especially a young team. You don't give that up. It's a very frustrating loss."

For Indiana, George's offense was a constant on the night, scoring 37 points, 25 of which came in the first half. As a team, Indiana made just five 3-pointers and four of them came for George.

But for the Timberwolves, second-year center Karl-Anthony Towns was close to unstoppable, adding 37 points of his own and snaring 12 boards. Towns was also able to bully his way to the free throw line, hitting on all 10 of his attempts.
