Bragg announces run for District 29

The REPORTER

Garen T. Bragg, Noblesville, a conservative Republican, an insurance producer and officer in the Army National Guard announced Friday he will run for Indiana State Representative in District 29.

Bragg has high praise for departing State Representative Kathy Richardson, saying “she has been a strong leader in the statehouse for years. She leaves big shoes to fill.”

“Hamilton County deserves a fresh, conservative voice in the state-house,” Bragg said. “I will fight for our shared values, for stronger schools and to make our economy more competitive. Through over six years of service in the Army National Guard I have learned what it means to serve. I am pro-life, a supporter of the second amendment and unashamed to stand for our religious liberties. I will speak truth to power, and say no to more taxes and no to tolling.”

In his announcement video uploaded to Facebook and YouTube, Bragg noted that “leaders behind closed doors” decided to rip out the Nickle Plate Railway in Noblesville. “We have to wonder, are they even listening?” Bragg continued, “I will fight to save the train.”

Bragg says that most voters want to see a fresh face and a conservative vision in the legislature instead of the backroom dealing offered by established politicians. “Listening to the voice of the people is what should guide our government. If elected, I will listen.”

The Republican Primary will be held on May 8, 2018. To learn more about Garen T. Bragg and his candidacy, visit garenbragg.com.

Sheridan’s CrossRoads reaches out

CrossRoads Student Center, located at 414 S. Main St., Sheridan, held a Christmas party on Dec. 23 at the Sheridan Community Center. The event featured a free roasted pork loin dinner and a baked potato bar. Santa made an appearance, along with live reindeer courtesy of Jingle John from Silly Safaris, Inc. According to Pastor Chris Brooks, the Crossroads Student Center is a Christian outreach geared toward teenagers. An elementary program is slated to begin in January.

When life gets messy

I've always said, "Mess with me, fine, mess with my kids, not so fine."

It does not matter that my kids are 40 and 36, they are still my kids and I am still their mama bear. I am now mama bear to their spouses as well.

JANET HART LEONARD

As they were growing up, I allowed them to face most of their battles on their own. I wanted them to learn to use their voices to present their arguments in defense of their thoughts and feelings.

Trust me, at times, I wanted to step into their world and give someone a piece of my mind or just flat out beat the tar out of those who harmed them in any way (as my mother would say).

Life is hard. Watching your kids deal with it is even harder.

It's not just lions, tigers and bears out there. It's Grinches, Grouches and people who are just downright not so nice. When my kids have to deal with them I find myself in my mama bear mode.

I sit back and try to reassure them that everything will work out . . . eventually.

One dead in county crash

The REPORTER

The Hamilton County Sheriff’s Office is investigating a fatal crash that occurred the evening of Friday, Dec 29. Deputies were dispatched to the area of US 31 and 256th Street on a report of a northbound vehicle driven by Luz Tavarez, 44, Walton, Ind., that crossed the median into southbound traffic. Tavarez’s vehicle collided with a southbound vehicle operated by Tracy Stewart, 30, Indianapolis.

Jackson Township Fire Department paramedics pronounced Tavarez deceased at the scene. Stewart was treated for minor injuries. Toxicology tests were performed with results pending at this time. Investigators continue to work to determine a cause for the collision but believe road conditions created by the weather may have contributed to the crash.

Anyone with further information on the incident is requested to contact the Hamilton County Crash Investigation Team at 317-773-1282.

Cicero police arrest residential burglary suspect

The REPORTER

Cicero police have arrested a Cicero man in connection with a burglary of a residence. Investigation by the department led them to a vacant residence where they found an open door and heard someone inside. The suspect closed, locked and barricaded the door and refused to come out. After efforts to have the suspect surrender failed, officers forced entry and eventually found the suspect in the crawl space.

The suspect, identified as Wesley Collier, 36, was transported to the Hamilton County Jail and charged with one count of burglary and two counts of theft. The investigation continues, and anyone believing they have information relevant to the investigation should contact the Cicero Police Department.

Cicero was assisted by deputies from the Hamilton County Sheriff’s Office, along with their K-9 and the Arcadia Police Department.

MESSY

I offer my advice knowing that they know what I'm going to say because I have said it time and time again. "In time, this will just be a bad memory and you will be stronger for having gone through this."

The Serenity Prayer covers so many things. I pray it over my kids. "Help them to change the things that they can change. Help them to accept what they cannot change. Please Lord, give them the wisdom to know the difference. And please, give them strength to endure."

I will never understand why people cannot treat others the way they want to be treated. I will never understand why people have to make life so difficult for others. I will never understand a selfish heart.

I know I have been called a Pollyanna. I do believe that difficult problems can be overcome with a positive attitude and persevering grit. Sometimes, more grit than attitude.

My prayers have not always been answered in the way that I wanted. My kids have seen that. I like answers wrapped up neat and sweet and just the way I want them to be. Often they are answered late and messy, worn and ragged. I often feel the same, definitely worn out, both physically and emotionally.

The truth is that I feel worn out and battered after watching my kids go through difficult circumstances.

I cannot control circumstances. I cannot control people. Lord knows I have tried.

I can give my kids a soft place to fall. I can give my kids the soft voice of reason. I can give my kids the reassurance that someday it will get better.

So for now this mama bear will muzzle her mouth, hand over her big girl panties to her daughter and hope that the new year brings fewer Grinches and Grouches with which to deal.

By the way, I did make it home on Christmas to be with my sweet mother. The 45-minute layover in Atlanta rocked!

HAMILTON COUNTY REPORTER

Wind Chill Advisory issued for Hamilton County

The REPORTER

The National Weather Service has issued a Wind Chill Advisory for Hamilton County through Tuesday, Jan. 2. Actual temperatures will be in the single digits or below zero and wind chills are expected to bottom out at 15 to 25 degrees below zero. This may result in frostbite or hypothermia if precautions are not taken when venturing outdoors. Both these conditions can occur within minutes of exposure. Please take extra precautions when outside or traveling and also check on neighbors, the elderly and those who may be ill.

To reduce chances of frostbite and hypothermia:

- Limit time outdoors, especially in cold, wet, or windy weather.

- Dress in several layers of loose, warm clothing. Wear windproof and waterproof outer garments and undergarments that wick moisture away from the body.

- Wear a hat or headband that covers the ears.

- Wear mittens rather than gloves.

- Don't skimp on socks and boots. Feet are very vulnerable to frostbite.

- Keep hydrated. Becoming dehydrated increases the risk of developing frostbite.

- Limit alcohol consumption. Alcoholic beverages cause the body to lose heat faster than normal.

- Don't venture outdoors unless it is necessary. When traveling, carry emergency supplies and warm clothing in case of becoming stranded.

- Watch for signs of frostbite and hypothermia and take action immediately.

Frostbite

At the first signs of redness or pain in any skin area, get out of the cold or protect any exposed skin as frostbite may be beginning. Other signs of frostbite include white or grayish-yellow skin, skin that feels unusually firm or waxy, or numbness. Since skin tissue becomes numb, a person may have difficulty realizing frostbite has set in.

Seek help immediately if frostbite occurs. Get into a warm room and restrict using any body part affected by frostbite as this may cause additional damage. Immerse the damaged tissue in warm, not hot, water or warm using body heat. Do not rub the affected area and do not warm using a heater, lamp, stove or heating pad as numb tissue may burn. Medical help should be sought for frostbite.

Hypothermia

This occurs when body heat is lost faster than it is created and is a real possibility during extreme temperatures. Once body temperature falls below 95 degrees, the situation is an emergency and medical attention must be sought immediately. Prolonged exposure to cold will expend the body's stored energy. Signs of hypothermia in adults include shivering, exhaustion, confusion, fumbling hands, memory loss, drowsiness and slurred speech. Infants may show hypothermia by bright red, cold skin and very low energy.

At the first sign of hypothermia, get the victim into a warm place. Remove any wet clothing and warm the center of the body with an electric blanket or layers of warm blankets. Warm beverages can help raise the body temperature but do not give alcoholic beverages. Keep the person wrapped in warm, dry clothes and seek medical help.

Don't forget that pets can suffer frostbite and hypothermia as well. Check tips of ears, nose, tail and paws especially. Most house pets are not acclimated to extreme low temperatures and should not be outside for more than 15 to 20 minutes.

For non-emergency weather situations that require a first responder, contact Hamilton County Public Safety Communications at 317-773-1282 or dial 9-1-1 for an emergency.

First Day hikes still a go on Jan. 1

The REPORTER

It's "game on" for the First Day events being held on Jan. 1 at each of 32 Indiana State Park properties, despite the frigid weather.

But there will be a few adjustments.

"We encourage people to wear layers, cover hands, heads and cheeks and join us for a 'brisk' walk," said Ginger Murphy, deputy director for the Division of State Parks. "Some properties are changing the lengths of their hikes to shorten the time exposed to the cold, but people can certainly continue to hike longer on their own if they choose."

Some changes:

- The hike at Falls of the Ohio State Park will be either on the Woodland Trail or at another location because the ice on the fossil beds may be treacherous.

- The Versailles State Park hike will be about a mile instead of the originally planned four miles.

- Indiana Dunes State Park is still doing the 3-Dune Challenge hike, but will also offer a shorter hike at the same time.

- Spring Mill State Park's hike will be a mile instead of 2.5 miles, but will still be rugged.

- Brookville Lake's hike will remain the same, but the trivia hike at nearby Whitewater Memorial State Park will be a half-mile instead of the originally planned 2.5 miles.

"Join the fun and keep your 'streak' going if you've been doing this every year," Murphy said. "Don't let the weather stop you from a memorable experience enjoying the outdoors and starting the new year off right."

More information on First Day events in Indiana, including other last-minute changes, see the DNR calendar at calendar.dnr.IN.gov or check the Facebook page of the property you plan to visit.

The guided hikes are organized by Indiana State Parks in cooperation with America's State Parks. Hikes will take place in all 50 states.

First Day Hikes originated more than 20 years ago at the Blue Hills Reservation, a state park in Milton, Mass. The program was launched to foster healthy lifestyles and promote year-round recreation at state parks.

Thousands of hikers will take to the trails in both North America and Canada this year. For more information, visit America's State Parks website or Facebook page.

When did Indianapolis become the state capital?

The REPORTER

1825 – Indiana's seat of government was officially moved from Corydon to the new city of Indianapolis. Development was spurred by the National Road which came through the city a few years later.

1827 – Presbyterian minister John Finley Crowe established Hanover College in a 16-foot by 18-foot room. Six students attended the first session. Hanover is the oldest private college in Indiana.

1883 – Samuel Woodfill was born in Jefferson County. An Army major, he is considered to be the most decorated soldier in World War I. General John J. Pershing called him "the greatest American soldier of the War." Woodfill is buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

1890 – President Benjamin Harrison welcomed Alice Sanger as the first female ever to be on the White House staff. She had earlier served as a stenographer at Harrison's law firm in Indianapolis. Historians consider this appointment an early step toward the day when women would work in government.

1925 – Indiana Secretary of State Frederick E. Schortemeier gave a talk on the new medium of radio. His topic on station WFBM was "The Blue Sky Law and how it protects." The talk was part of the first regular programming on the new station which was operated by the Merchants Heat and Light Company.

1967 – Purdue University capped a 9-2 season with a trip to the Rose Bowl. The team, coached by John Pont, won a hard-fought 14-13 victory over the University of Southern California. Senior defensive back John Charles was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

131st Street

There will be periodic lane restrictions at the intersection of 131st Street and Cumberland Road while utility relocation work is completed.

106th Street

Crews will be landscaping the center of the roundabout at 106th Street and Geist Road throughout the week, weather permitting. Temporary lane restrictions may be in place as work is completed.

Interstate 69

Milestone Contractors has opened additional travel lanes on Interstate 69 between State Road 37 Exit 205 and State Road 38 Exit 219. I-69 is open to three lanes in each direction on the heavily traveled stretch of interstate.

As part of a $92 million design-build contract, Milestone has added a third lane in each direction to the median, repaired and resurfaced existing pavement, and rehabilitated bridges and drainage structures on 15 miles of I-69 in Hamilton and Madison counties. Construction of an additional auxiliary lane between the 116th Street entrance ramp to I-69 South and the I-69 South Exit 204 ramp to 106th Street will continue through next spring.

I-69 South will be temporarily reduced to two lanes to allow space for the State Road 37 and 116th Street entrance ramps to safely merge while construction continues on the southbound auxiliary lane between the 116th Street and 106th Street ramps.

Crews closed lanes on I-69 South and State Road 37 South on Dec. 8 to modify pavement markings in the area to establish this winter traffic pattern. Questions about this project should be directed to INDOT at east-centralin@indot.in.gov or 1-855-463-6848.

State Road 37

The Meeting Presentation from the Dec. 11 State

Road 37 Project Public Meeting, along with additional information about the project, is available here.

The State Road 37 improvement project is a $124 million joint project between Fishers, Hamilton County, Noblesville and INDOT. Questions or concerns may be directed to drivefishers@fishers.in.us.

Outside of Fishers

Cyntheanne Road between 146th and 156th streets will be closed through the end of December to replace the bridge over Keiser Drain. Please contact Hamilton County Highway Department at 317-773-7770 with any questions.

January calendar of astronomical events

The REPORTER

Jan. 2 – Full Moon, Supermoon. The Moon will be located on the opposite side of the Earth as the Sun and its face will be fully illuminated. This is also the first of two supermoons for 2018. The Moon will be at its closest approach to the Earth and may look slightly larger and brighter than usual.

Jan. 3-4 – Quadrantids Meteor Shower. The Quadrantids is an above average shower, with up to 40 meteors per hour at its peak. It is thought to be produced by dust grains left behind by an extinct comet known as 2003 EH1, which was discovered in 2003. The shower runs annually Jan. 1-5. It peaks this year on the night of Jan. 4 and morning of Jan. 4. Unfortunately, the nearly-full moon will block out all but the brightest meteors this year. If you are patient, you should still be able to catch some of the brightest ones. Best viewing will be from a dark location after midnight. Meteors will radiate from the constellation Bootes, but can appear anywhere in the sky.

Jan. 17 – New Moon. The Moon will be located on the same side of the Earth as the Sun and will not be visible in the night sky. This is the best time of the month to observe faint objects such as galaxies and star clusters because there is no moonlight to interfere.

Jan. 31 – Full Moon, Supermoon, Blue Moon. The Moon will be located on the opposite side of the Earth as the Sun and its face will be fully illuminated. Since this is the second full moon in the same month, it is sometimes referred to as a blue moon. This is also the last of two supermoons for 2018. The Moon will be at its closest approach to the Earth and may look slightly larger and brighter than usual.

Jan. 31 – Total Lunar Eclipse. A total lunar eclipse occurs when the Moon passes completely through the Earth's dark shadow, or umbra. During this type of eclipse, the Moon will gradually get darker and then take on a rusty or blood red color. The eclipse will be visible throughout most of western North America, eastern Asia, Australia and the Pacific Ocean.

McDonald's Holiday Hoops: University wins showdown with GC in semis...

'Blazers fall in final; Golden Eagles take third

For the second year in a row, the Guerin Catholic and University boys basketball teams played each other at the McDonald's Holiday Hoops Tournament at Vincennes Lincoln.

This year, the Golden Eagles and the Trailblazers met in the Saturday morning semi-finals. Behind 20 points from Josh Watson, the 'Blazers led after a 2-2 tie for the entire contest in defeating the Golden Eagles 44-40 in Alice Arena. With the win, University broke a seven-game losing streak to Guerin Catholic.

The victory also sent the Trailblazers into the championship game of the tournament, where they would lose their first game of the season to the host Alices, 54-50. Meanwhile, the Golden Eagles defeated Indianapolis Howe 84-66 to take third place.

Watson, a 6-4 senior, made five of six foul shots in the final 28 seconds to close out the win. Jack Hansen led Guerin with 20 points, including 17 in the second half.

"I thought Josh Watson played his best game as a Trailblazer," said University coach Brandon Lafferman. "Guerin did a good job controlling the pace of the game. We fought through some adversity and were able to grind out the win."

in the first quarter after Hansen went to the bench with two early fouls. Foster Flamion hit a three pointer from the top of the key to give University the lead for good. Kian Sills scored for the Golden Eagles to cut the lead to 5-4 before Watson made a steal near half court and finished with a dunk for a 7-4 lead. Zack Hodgins drove the baseline for a lay-in and a 9-4 University lead at the quarter.

Guerin rallied early in the second quarter, cutting the lead to 13-10 before Hansen re-entered. Watson's two three-pointers were offset by triples by Hansen and Sills. Another Hodgins layin gave University a 21-16 halftime lead.

Baskets by Hansen and Zach Munson let Guerin cut the lead to 21-20 before David Howard answered with a three pointer for the Blazers. Two Hansen baskets sandwiched around a Hodgins layin had the University lead at 26-24 before Watson scored on a put back and a Hodgins layin. Hansen's basket with 14 seconds left in the third left University with a 30-26 lead after three.

A Howard three pointer and a Howard lay-in gave University their largest lead of the game at 35-26 with 4:07 remaining. Bernie McGuinness made a free throw before a basket from Hansen and two free throws from Luke Godfrey pulled the Golden Eagles within 35-31 with three minutes remaining.

Flamion answered with a reverse lay-up before Hansen nailed a 3-pointer with a hand in his face with 2:27 remaining. Watson drove the lane for layin and a 39-34 lead with 1:19 remaining. After University missed the front end of two one and ones, Hansen's layin with 31.7 seconds left pulled Guerin within three. Two Watson free throws were answered by a Godfrey basket with 22.5 seconds remaining. Watson split a pair of foul shots and a Hansen basket with 12 seconds left got Guerin within 42-40. Watson made two more free throws with 10 seconds. Guerin missed a 3-pointer before University corralled the rebound and ran out the clock.

For the game University shot 16-35 from the field (45.7 percent) while Guerin Catholic made only 16-42 (38.1 percent). University make one more 3-point shot than GC, and made three more free throws. University also held a 23-22 edge in rebounding, which marked the first game all season the Golden Eagles have been out-rebounded.

"We had some opportunities but just couldn't get over the hump," said GC mentor Pete Smith. "They have many weapons, and Watson was a tough match-up for us this morning."

It was the first time the 'Blazers had beaten GC since Feb. 23, 2007, and the series between the two schools now is 7-2 in favor of Guerin Catholic.

"This is the best 'Blazer team we've played, and Laff's done a great job with them," Smith said.

CAREER HIGH FOR GODFREY

A career-high 21 points from Godfrey powered Guerin Catholic to its win over Howe. The win earned GC third place in the eight-team tournament.

The Golden Eagles (6-5) trailed six times in the first 10 minutes of the contest, but a 16-2 run to end the first half gave them a 42-31 lead heading into the locker room.

Howe (7-4) picked up the defensive pressure in the third quarter, but eight different Golden Eagles scored to counter the Hornets' attack. And in the final period the GC lead ballooned to 84-56 but Howe closed the game out on a 10-2 run.

"Their athleticism bothered us early" said GC's Pete Smith. "But our guys adjusted and played much better after the break. It was a good win after a tough loss earlier in the morning."

Three other Golden Eagles scored in double figures to support Godfrey's effort. Munson scored 20 points while Hansen had 14 pts. and a game-high seven rebounds. Junior Sills added 10 points. Drew Thieme was the game's leading assist man with a career-high of six.

Guerin Catholic returns to Circle City Conference action next Friday night at Bishop Chatard.

ALICES HAND 'BLAZERS FIRST LOSS

In the championship game, the Class 1A No. 4 Trailblazers (10-1) trailed most of the way Saturday — after an early 3-0 University lead, the host Alices (7-4) pulled ahead, leading 13-10 at the quarter break. The Lincoln advantage was 26-24 at half-time, and 39-37 after three quarters. University fell behind by as many as seven, at 39-32, before embarking on an 8-0 run to take the lead on a Foster Flamion and-1 on the first possession of the fourth quarter.

University and Lincoln traded the lead most of the rest of the way, with the Alices inching ahead late to take a 51-47 advantage. Ethan Sickels hit a second-chance 3-pointer with 14 seconds remaining to pull the Trailblazers within one, before Lincoln split a pair of free throws to leave the lead at 52-50. With Zack Hodgins driving for a potential game-tying layup in the final seconds, Lincoln was whistled for an off-the-ball foul. Flamion missed the front end of the ensuing 1-and-1, and the Alices salted away the win at the free-throw line, hitting both free throws with 1.5 seconds left to reach the final 54-50 scoreline.

Hodgins scored 14 points, while Flamion added 13.

The Trailblazers return to action Friday, hosting 1A No. 2 and defending state champion Tindley. Varsity tip is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Tryouts for Noblesville Swim Club Ignition Group take place Wednesday

The Noblesville Swim Club will be conducting tryouts for its Ignition Group this week.

The tryouts will take place at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 3. They are for swimmers between the ages of 8 and 14. Swimmers must be able to demonstrate strength in the freestyle and backstroke, and either a legal breaststroke or butterfly.

The group will be limited to the first 20 people who register; after that there will be a waiting list for those who register after the first 20.

Registration opens at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 3. The Club will conduct practices from 6 to 7 p.m. Mondays and Wednesday from Jan. 8 to Feb. 28. The cost will be provided on the night of tryouts.

This group is a great way for swimmers who have never been a part of a competitive team, to get exposure to the format, rhythm, and experience of the Noblesville Swim Club. A Noblesville coach will create practices that focus on the technical development of the four strokes (butterfly, backstroke, breaststroke, and freestyle), teach swimmers how to read and manage work-outs and the clock, and create sets that begin to introduce swimmers to aerobic conditioning.
