Meetings will be held at the following times and locations:

- 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, July 11 at Noblesville City Hall, 16 S. 10th St.

- The White River Vision Plan is being

The plan will explore ways to connect the city to attractions, arts and entertainment venues, hiking and biking trails and neighborhoods. It will also propose educational and thematic recreational water experiences and take into account environmental value and ecological quality of the river corridor, including its water quality and natural habitats.

Community partners and stakeholders will update residents in and around Indianapolis and Hamilton County on the progress of the White River Vision Plan, including findings on hydrology and ecological impact studies, history, community character and existing assets along the river. The community will also hear about recruitment efforts for River Guides, an initiative to assemble ambassadors to engage the community during planning and research for the vision plan. Get ready to bid on decorative Cicero rain barrels

The REPORTER

The Cicero Friends of the Park is having a silent auction of 10 rain barrels. Each of these barrels is one-of-a-kind and uniquely decorated by a local artist.

This year's theme of "magical garden" has resulted in extraordinarily beautiful barrels. The starting bids on all barrels is $100. If you would like to bid on or view the barrels, they will be on display until Tuesday, July 3 at the Hamilton North (Cicero) Library, 209 W. Brinton St. The Library's hours are 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

The barrels will then be displayed during the Lights Over Morse Lake Festival from July 4 to July 7 in Community Park, by the Cicero Parks Building. The auction will close at 2 p.m. on Saturday, July 7 and the winners will be notified.

Rain barrels have many benefits:

- Reduces water and sanitary sewers bills when watering gardens and lawns.
- Rain water is better for plants and gardens.
- Stops down spout erosion of lawns and foundations.
- Not subject to watering restrictions.

Please come out and help the Friends of the Park and bid on one of these beautiful rain barrels.

HSE nurses could have "acceptable solution" to contract

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

When officials at Hamilton Southeastern Schools first discussed the idea of contracting out nursing services in the school buildings to Community Health, the nurses were very opposed to the idea, wanting to remain employees of the school corporation. However, based on a Facebook post Tuesday night by Marianne Lawson Vogt, it would appear an agreement has been reached acceptable to all parties involved.

Ms. Vogt, a nurse working in a school within the HSE Schools district, says in that Facebook post, "We have reached what seems like an acceptable solution to all sides regarding standard of care. Although it seems the school nursing services will be contracted to Community Hospital, it is expected that the contract will allow us (school nurses) to continue to give our students medications with only a few changes from our current status. This is a huge win and what we felt was necessary to maintain the HSE School's current standard of care."

The school nurse expressed special thanks to board members Michelle Fullhart and Sylvia Shepler, along with school board candidate Frank Whelan. She also thanked the many members of the local community supporting the nurses.

Noblesville school shooting suspect's trial delayed till fall

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

The 13-year-old boy who prosecutors allege last month shot his teacher and a fellow student at Noblesville West Middle School has had his trial in juvenile court pushed back to September at the request of his attorneys.

Two people were wounded in the shooting, teacher Jason Seaman and 13-year-old student Ella Whistler. Seaman sustained minor injuries and was hailed as a hero for his role in interrupting the suspect from hurting even more students. Seaman was released from the hospital in the days that followed the shooting. Whistler was critically injured and has remained hospitalized since the shooting.

The announcement on Wednesday came after a previously scheduled court date this week was postponed to allow the defense more time to prepare for the case.

River Vision Plan and its progress can sign up on the newly-launched website mywhiteriver.com. “Community involvement is central to the development of the White River Master Plan,” said Emily Mack, Director of the Department of Metropolitan Development for the City of Indianapolis. “As a nexus to connect Central Indiana like never before, the plan will incorporate community ideas, feedback, and concerns to ensure that the transformation of the White River becomes a genuine community-wide destination for all.”

In addition to public meetings, the project team will also hold focus groups, community surveys and engaging events in Indianapolis and Hamilton County with residents, institutional landowners, neighborhood and business organizations, tourism industry officials, elected officials, environmental advocacy organizations, neighbors and regulatory agencies.

“Hamilton County is proud to be part of the plan to re-think how residents and visitors can connect with the White River,” said Brenda Myers, President and CEO of Hamilton County Tourism Inc. “We hold the river in high regard as a part of our heritage and look forward to hearing community feedback about the White River Vision Plan’s progress.”

Following the 12-month planning period, the final plan will be shared with the public and a variety of stakeholder groups and organizations. For more information on the White River Vision Plan, or

Three local students graduate with honors from Indiana Academy

The REPORTER

The following students from Hamilton County recently graduated with honors from the Indiana Academy for Science, Mathematics, and Humanities."

• Michelle Chew, Noblesville, will attend Indiana State University. She is the daughter of Joseph and Catherine Chew.

• Trinity Croy, Arcadia, will attend Ball State University. She is the daughter of Laura DeWitt.

• Benjamin Hiatt, Noblesville, will attend IU-PUI. He is the son of Jeffrey and Rachel Hiatt.

The Indiana Academy is a nationally ranked two-year public high school located on the picturesque campus of Ball State University. Graduation was held on Saturday, May 26 for the 146 students in the Academy's Class of 2018. All graduates earned the Indiana Core 40 diploma with Academic Honors.

While at the Academy, students complete at least 50 community service hours and take numerous college-level courses with most students graduating on average with about two years of college credits. Graduates of the Academy attend top colleges and universities across the country and around the world in addition to receiving offers for millions of dollars in financial aid and scholarships.

With enrollment of more than 300 gifted and high ability juniors and seniors coming from anywhere within the state, students from all around Indiana attend the Academy to study in the school's academically-rich and challenging environment. Most students live in the school's private residence hall. A commuter option is also available for a few students that live close enough to commute daily to campus.

As the state's only two-year public high school for high ability students, the Academy is highly selective in their admissions. Any current Indiana high school sophomore may apply. However, students applying to the Academy must complete a rigorous application process that includes evaluation of academic performance, standardized test scores, teacher recommendations and extracurricular activities.

The Indiana Academy consistently receives high rankings and recognitions.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Academy was ranked as having the No. 1 Best Public High School in Indiana, No. 1 Best Public High School Teachers in Indiana and the No. 4 Best Public High School Teachers in America according to Niche (k12.niche.com). The Academy is also recognized as a Gold Medal school by U.S. News & World Report.

Visit academy.bsu.edu for more information about the Indiana Academy.

'Purple Paint' law goes into effect Sunday

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Sunday marks the day the "Purple Paint" law goes into effect in Indiana. This means, from Sunday on, instead of marking your private property with a "no trespassing" sign, you can mark it with a line of purple paint on a tree or a post.

"Back when I lived at home sometimes we'd see people and we'd go out and put up all of our no trespassing signs, and you wouldn't make it through the first weekend here anything that's easily reachable had already been torn off the trees," said Justin Schneider, the Indiana Farm Bureau's director of state government relations.

Schneider said using the line of purple paint is a more efficient way of marking private property. It can't be torn down, and according to the author of this law, more people will see it.

"It's a simple way for people out in the country to show that certain property is off-limits instead of having no trespassing signs all over the place ... they get shot up, taken down or whatever ... purple paint's a lot cheaper," said State Representative

Dave Wolkins. "You can paint your fence post, paint your trees, but it just simply says no trespassing, and it helps get trespassers because a lot of people will say, 'Oh I didn't see the sign' or whatever. They'll see this and it'll last for years."

Wolkins said the lines can be painted on a tree or a post, but they must be at least three to five feet high and eight inches long.

No trespassing signs will still be valid under this new law, but Rep. Wolkins wants everyone to be on the lookout for the purple paint.

276th St. Phase 3 Closure - US 31 to just east of Webster Pit Rd.

Graphic provided

276th Street closing next week

The REPORTER

Effective on or after Monday, July 2, 276th Street between U.S. 31 and Webster Pit Road will be closed for road reconstruction. The current closure is between U.S. 31 and Devaney Road; this upcoming phase extends the closure approximately one-half mile going east to Webster Pit Road.

The road is scheduled to be closed to all thru traffic for 67 calendar days, tentatively opening back up to traffic on or before Friday, Sept. 7.

During the closure, local traffic should utilize the signed detour route of 266th Street and Gwinn Road. Property owners will continue to have access to their properties through the construction area. This closure is part of the improvements to 276th Street which will widen the lanes and shoulders from U.S. 31 to Gwinn Road.

Towne Road to close next month for improvement project

The City of Westfield announced Wednesday it will begin its Towne Road improvement project next month. On or around Monday, July 9, Towne Road will be closed to through traffic between 166th and 156th streets. Detours will be in effect for approximately 93 working days. The entire project is expected to take approximately four months to complete.

The project involves replacing three box culverts and cutting new ditches to facilitate better roadside drainage. A two-foot widening to each travel lane and grade adjustments along the roadway will also improve line of sight and enhance safety for motorists at each intersection through the mile-long stretch.

The City asks motorists to slow down and be cautious in construction zones and along detour routes. Towne Road is expected to be open to all traffic by late October 2018.

State Auditor announces ‘extreme makeover’ for Indiana Transparency Portal website

The REPORTER

Indiana Auditor of State Tera Klutz, CPA, made the “big-reveal” of the updated Indiana Transparency Portal (ITP) offering Hoosiers a more accessible and in-depth look at the state’s finances and assets.

Utilizing the latest in data delivery technology, Auditor Klutz worked closely with several state partners to update the site that has been traditionally known for receiving the highest awards for government transparency. The transformation includes interactive dashboards that provide overviews of some of the more popular and the most complex financial information about state revenue and expenditures.

“I know how frustrating it can be when you can’t find the information you are looking for,” Klutz said. “We have created a site that is interactive and offers more detailed information at a glance about our state finances without having to sort through thousands of lines of data on a spreadsheet. If you still can’t find what you are looking for, I have a designated team who can help you find it.”

The previous site offered static graphics and searchable fields, but it was left to the user to aggregate the information and manually combine spreadsheets to compare certain data. Enhancements to the site are designed to assist the user by offering summaries of information in dashboards that give agency snapshots of vendor payments, funding sources and travel and purchase card transactions and many other categories.

New information to the site:

- Non-General Fund Revenue with various views including by Funding Source and by Function of Government
- Monthly General Fund Revenue. This data previously had been aggregated annually
- Trending views available across the site by year, quarter and month
- New and expanded data within State Expenditures
 - Personal services
 - Top paid vendors statewide and by agency
 - Agency to agency transfers
 - Purchase card and travel card expenses summarized by agency and by

expense category

Klutz added, “I can always talk about the importance of financial transparency, and I am excited to provide the data in a meaningful and relevant way.”

Improving the portal began in 2017 by holding several focus groups of interested parties including state agency commissioners and chief financial officers, legislative branch representatives, open government advocacy groups, and members of the media to seek feedback and to prioritize information for the portal. Though the site was launched this week, upgrades will continue to be implemented over the next year. The Auditor is working with the Management Performance Hub (MPH), the Indiana Office of Technology (IOT) and the State Budget Agency (SBA) in developing and implementing new features to the site.

The ITP was established

by IC 5-14-3.5-2. It was launched in 2010 to provide the public with access to state revenue and spending data. The site also offers information on state assets with an acquisition value at or above $500, as well as, the annualized or hourly salary of state employees. The AOS is required under the statute to post the data. In April 2012, ITP was awarded an A- by the Center for Fiscal Accountability[1], the best grade given to any state in the Midwest. In 2016, the Portal was awarded an A+ grade earning a perfect score from the US Public Interest Research Group[2].

The site can be accessed by visiting in.gov/itp.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

Bobby Allen hired as new Guerin Catholic head boys basketball coach

Allen

The Guerin Catholic Athletic Department is excited to announce the hiring of Bobby Allen as Varsity Boys Basketball Coach. Allen also joins the staff at Guerin Catholic as an English teacher.

Allen most recently served as an assistant coach at Cathedral High School in Indianapolis, and was head coach at Knightstown for six seasons. During his tenure at Knightstown, Coach Allen was twice recognized as Henry County Coach of the Year, Mid-Hoosier Conference Coach of the Year and also served as head coach of the Hoosier Reunion All-Star Classic. Allen has also coached at Lawrence Central and Chatard High School.

"We are very blessed to have an educator and coach who comes to us with a wealth of basketball knowledge and experience, but more importantly understands the purpose of education based athletics deeply rooted in the Catholic Faith," said Matt Lane, Director of Athletics.

"I am truly blessed and excited for the opportunity to be the head boys basketball coach at Guerin Catholic High School," said Allen. "Coaching and teaching have been my true passions for fifteen years. Becoming a head basketball coach at a school where I can create lifelong relationships and develop student athletes based on Catholic values is my professional goal, and I look forward to having a positive impact on the players, school, and entire community."

Bobby and Mollie, along with their sons Benson (7) and Everett (4), reside in Fishers. In his spare time, he enjoys coaching both of his boys in basketball, baseball and golf, as well as taking his family to sporting events at Indiana University to cheer on the Hoosiers. After being raised through St. Pius X and Cathedral High School, they understand the importance of instilling the values of Christ and raising their children in a positive church setting.

"Mollie, Benson, and Everett are as excited as I am to be a part of the Guerin Catholic family and to continue our faith journey with this community," said Allen.

Huskies 2018 summer boys basketball camp is July 9-12

The Hamilton Heights boys basketball program will host its 2018 Summer Individual and Team Camp in for boys going into Grades 5-8 in July.

The camp takes place from 8 to 10 a.m. July 9, 10, 11 and 12 at Hamilton Heights High School. The cost is $35, with a family discount of $5 off for each additional child.

The camp will be conducted by Huskies varsity head coach Chad Ballenger. The areas of instruction include dribbling, layups, ball handling, pivoting, passing techniques, block out/rebounding, defense, offensive play, free throw technique, body balance and shooting, offensive moves and competition.

"The basic requirement in developing a strong basketball program is to instill in all our boys a desire to improve themselves so that some day they can become part of the Husky Basketball team," said Ballenger. "This can be best accomplished by developing the proper fundamentals and pride in themselves and their school at an early age."

If any boy cannot afford to pay the camp fee, please call Ballenger at 765-438-2016. Email Ballenger at cballenger@hhschuskies.org for registration forms, or you can register on the first day of camp. Walk-ups will be welcomed, no one will be turned away.
