The return of the Topper

On Saturday, Noblesville enjoyed the return of the Topper at Grindstone Public House, 101 N. 10th St., during a soft opening event. Approximately 150 people attended and according to owner and director of operations Blake Fogelsong, even on day one, “The Topper is definitely the best seller. That’s been the main excitement.” When asked about returning to Noblesville, Clancy’s CEO and President Perry Fogelsong said, “It feels great. We’re only three blocks from the original location.” Grindstone Public House officially opened on Monday, July 2. ITM ordered to vacate Forest Park immediately

By JEFF JELLISON
ReadTheReporter.com

Hamilton County Judge Paul Felix has issued a decision on a court battle involving the Indiana Transportation Museum (ITM) and the City of Noblesville’s decision not to renew the museum’s lease at Forest Park.

As a part of the case, ITM had asked the court to issue a restraining order blocking a June 1, 2018 date established by Noblesville for the museum to vacate the property.

In late May, Felix conducted a hearing on the matter. Last Thursday, Felix issued a ruling requiring ITM to immediately vacate Forest Park.

Felix’s ruling stated:

- The ITM is to immediately vacate the property.
- That any structures, additions, equipment or property remaining on the premises will be deemed abandoned if not removed by July 12, 2018.
- After July 12, 2018, Noblesville will be granted possession of the premises and is authorized to change the locks on the property.

HSE School Board moves forward on Community Health contract

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

Community Health will become a much larger presence in the Hamilton Southeastern School District following the passage of a resolution empowering school administrators to finalize a contract with the health network. Community already provides mental health services, but will now staff the employee health center and eventually employ nurses working in the district’s school buildings.

IU Health canceled its pact with HSE Schools to provide an employee health center on 90 days’ notice, meaning their clinic will close as of Sept. 2. Community Health has committed to making every effort to open its health clinic by Sept. 2, but if that cannot be done, HSE School workers will be directed to other Community Health facilities in the area. Community had expected to open the health Center Jan. 1, 2019, but the IU cancellation created a need to speed up the process.

Marianne Lawson Vogt spoke on behalf of the nursing staff in HSE Schools. “While we can’t say we are not disappointed to be leaving as HSE employees,” Vogt told the board, “We would like to thank the board, especially Michelle Fullhart and Sylvia Shepler.”

Vogt says this has been a “very long and hard process, and we believe we’ve all made the best of the current vote before the board. There’s always compromise and balancing, saving funds in our students’ best interest.”

Part of the compromise will expand the types of medications nurses may dispense in their schools, greatly expanding the list from what Community Health had originally proposed. This changeover of nurses becoming Community Health employees will not happen until the 2019-2020 school year.

In a related action, Methodist Health will continue to provide sports training services to HSE Schools, in the 2018-2019 school year, but Community Health will take that program over in the 2019-2020 year.

Democrat files for Hamilton County Sheriff . . . Filing for school board seats begins July 25

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

Filing opens July 25 for school board candidates in November’s general election. Some board members in all six Hamilton County school districts will be selected in the non-partisan voting.

Hamilton Southeastern voters will choose a total of four members on its seven-member board. Noblesville will elect or re-elect two members to its five member board.

In what could become the most watched race, three of the five board members at Carmel are to be chosen. Controversy over proposed closing of two elementary schools along with the replacing of a girls’ basketball coach could bring competitive contests for any or all three seats at stake.

Little if any controversy accompanies the school elections in Hamilton Heights, Sheridan and Westfield where three seats in each district are to be filled in the election.

Any citizen who is a registered voter is eligible to run in the appropriate election district. (Each school system has election districts within its boundaries) The filing is made at the county elections office. The deadline to file is noon on Aug. 24.

Meanwhile, three candidates have filed on the Democratic ticket for ballot positions that were not filled in the May primary.

Jason Straw of Westfield has filed for county sheriff. He will be opposing Dennis Quakenbush, the Republican candidate, and Duane Brenton, the Libertarian.

Filing for county commissioner is Rosemary Dunkle, Carmel. She will oppose incumbent Christine Altman in the November election.

And, Dan Greenhalgh, Fishers, is the Democrat candidate for Delaware Township trustee opposing Republican incumbent Debbie Driskell.

Democrats may field a few more candidates during a caucus tonight in Fishers. The party still has numerous vacancies on its local ballot.

Noblesville school shooting suspect’s trial delayed till fall

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

The 13-year-old boy who prosecutors allege last month shot his teacher and a fellow student at Noblesville West Middle School has had his trial in juvenile court pushed back to September at the request of his attorneys.

Two people were wounded in the shooting, teacher Jason Seaman and 13-year-old student Ella Whistler. Seaman sustained minor injuries and was hailed as a hero for his role in interrupting the suspect from hurting even more students. Seaman was released from the hospital in the days that followed the shooting. Whistler was critically injured and has remained hospitalized since the shooting.

The announcement on Wednesday came after a previously scheduled court date this week was postponed to allow the defense more time to prepare for the case.

Board approves changes to two Carmel schools

By BRITTANY LEWIS
WISH-TV | wistv.com

The board of Carmel Clay Schools in a meeting last Monday voted 4-1 in favor of rebuilding one elementary school and relocating a second one, per a recommendation from one of the district's interim superintendent, Roger McMichael.

At a meeting in June, McMichael called for demolishing and rebuilding Carmel Elementary at its current location. He also suggested closing the current Orchard Park Elementary and using it for adult education purposes or for use by the Parks and Recreation Department, while building a new Orchard Park campus off Clay Center Road.

McMichael said he hopes to have construction started on both sites by February 2020 and the schools ready to use by June 2021.

The school district released a statement following the vote:

"The CCS School Board made the difficult decision tonight to close Orchard Park Elementary and build a new elementary school at Clay Center Road which will open in July of 2021 along with a new Carmel Elementary facility built on its current site."

Felony charge filed in Fishers IKEA incident

The REPORTER

Last Monday, Fishers police responded to the Fishers IKEA store, located near 116th Street and Interstate 69, to investigate a report of an accidental discharge of a firearm. Upon their arrival officers located and identified the individuals involved in the incident. Officers obtained statements from the gun owner, the juvenile's guardian and bystanders.

According to their statements and evidence located at the scene, the owner of the gun, Francis T. Wright, 62, Camby, was sitting on a couch inside the store. When Wright stood up the gun fell into the couch. He walked away leaving the gun behind.

A short time later two boys, both 6 years of age, sat down on the couch. One of the boys handled the gun, causing it to accidentally discharge one time. No one was injured during this incident.

The police department submitted the case to the Hamilton County Prosecuting Attorney's Office. After conducting a full review, Hamilton County Prosecutor Lee Buckingham filed a felony criminal charge of Criminal Recklessness With A Deadly Weapon against Wright.

The Fishers Police Department would like to thank the Hamilton County Prosecuting Attorney's Office for their partnership as police reassure the community with a strong message: Possessing a gun requires a great deal of responsibility. When a person does not take their responsibility seriously, there will be consequences.

Sheriff deputy, Cicero officer charged in prank call case

WISH-TV | wistv.com

A Hamilton County sheriff's deputy and a Cicero police officer are due in court next week after admitting to investigators that the pair had been drinking during a party on May 1 and making two prank phone calls to the Hamilton County 911 dispatch center.

In an affidavit filed by a Hamilton County sheriff's investigator, Deputy David Needham is alleged to have made the first call when he attempted to disguise his voice to sound like a female, "Jessica," who called 911 to report that her boyfriend was stalking her at the time. Needham, sounding like "Jessica," reported that her boyfriend had left the location and fled on foot before ending the call without providing any other information.

Investigators say that Bradley Gorgas, an officer with the Cicero Police Department, made the second prank call at approximately 1:55 a.m., just minutes after Needham's prank call. Gorgas told the 911 dispatcher about a fight involving 10 people at the Speedway gas station in Cicero. Gorgas said that he was scared and that officers needed to arrive quickly before ending the call. Responding officers found no evidence of a fight at the gas station.

Investigators interviewed both men at different times in the weeks following the calls and each man admitted to having been drinking during a party at Gorgas' house on May 1 and confessed that they were aware that they were making prank phone calls.

Both are due in court for their initial hearings on July 11.

Noblesville High School's speech team "Miller Speech" recently competed in the 2018 National Speech and Debate Association National Tournament in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Jahne Manifold, a recent NHS graduate, was crowned National Champion in Poetry. Among 463 competitors from 45 states, Manifold brought home the school's first individual title and Indiana's first Poetry Champion since 2002. Her program, titled "Where We Live," spread awareness of gun violence disproportionately affecting black communities.

Abigail VanMeter, also a recent NHS graduate, qualified to the final round of Informative Speaking for the second consecutive year. Out of nearly 250 competitors, VanMeter placed among the Top 6 speakers. Her speech, "Make it Stick," highlighted the Post-It and its effect on spreading positive messages in times of tragedy.

Samantha Snyder was named an Octafinalist (Top 60 competitor) in Humorous Interpretation, and Cameron Hudspeth and Madeline Shelton were Octafinalists in Duo Interpretation. The competitors' breaks in Poetry, Humorous and Duo are all firsts for the team.

Zack Reising raised over $10,000 worth of goods, services and money to building the trail at his church.

Noblesville Eagle Scout receives Merle Miller Service Project Award

The REPORTER
Zack Reising is an 18-year-old recent graduate of Noblesville High School, and is an adult member of Troop 183, with St. Michaels Episcopal Church. He has been in Scouting since he joined as a Cub in first grade.

Reising is an aviation enthusiast and has been pouring much time and energy into attaining his pilot's license. Because of his cerebral palsy, there have been many curvy roads to get there, but he is determined to achieve his goals, no matter how long it takes. Eagle Scout Neil Armstrong has always been his idol and a driving force for his quest to fly.

From the beginning of the discussions about his Eagle Scout Project, Reising was focused on creating a walking trail on his church property, Bethel Lutheran Church in Noblesville. His youth group leader, Joe Rudy, was supportive of his idea from the start, and along with Kirk Pfeil, another church member, they collectively narrowed his plan down, slightly.

His Troop Committee didn't feel as strongly about his project because the scope was so large, but after some discussion and a promise by Reising to phase the project, the Bethel Peace Trail was born.

Reising was able to raise over $10,000 worth of goods, services and money to commit to the entire 0.4-mile stone trail. It took moving 400 tons of dirt, 400 tons of crushed limestone and nearly 500 volunteer hours to complete the project. He also used proceeds from his popcorn sales over the years to buy and install the Peace Trail Sign. He has always said "go big or go home" and this project certainly qualified for "BIG."

James Gerald Riggs
March 16, 1931 – June 29, 2018

James Gerald Riggs, 87, peacefully completed the work of this life at 12:45 a.m. on June 29, 2018 at his residence in Noblesville. Service will be held at 6:30 p.m. following visitation from 2 to 6:30 p.m. on Monday, July 2, 2018 at The Pentecostals of Westfield, 16162 Carey Road, Westfield. Graveside service is 10 a.m. on Tuesday, July 3, at Riverside Cemetery in Noblesville. Arrangements are handled by Fisher Family Funeral Services of Sheridan.

James was born on March 16, 1931 in Kokomo to Gerald and Myrtle (Little) Grinstead. He married Stella M. Lawman on November 17, 1950, and together they raised two loving, devoted daughters. James is a United States Veteran with honorable discharge and served in the Navy during the Korean War.

He is survived by his daughters, Linda (Jerry) Jenkins of Sheridan and Kathy (Randy) Adams of Noblesville; his grandchildren, Annette (Joseph) Donovan, Brent (Jennifer) Jenkins, Stacy Jenkins, Katicia (David) Sanchez, Tony (Rhonda) Adams and Shelly (Troy) Bibbs; his eight great-grandchildren; his brother Larry Riggs; and several nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his wife of nearly 66 years, Stella; his siblings, Nancy Denman, Fred Riggs and Bev Doyon.

For more than 50 years, James was a licensed minister in the United Pentecostal Church International. His years of faithful, committed service to the Lord (who he often called his Precious Master) include ministry as youth leader, assistant pastor, pastor of Huntington United Pentecostal Church for 23 years, various positions in sectional leadership and caretaker for the Indiana UPCI district campgrounds. Having a deep love for the Bible, he was a living example of II Timothy 2:15 “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” But he didn’t stop there. Rev. Riggs was propelled to tell everyone he met about his Master and the truth of His Word. If you ever met him, you most likely became engaged in an enriching conversation involving a small, colorful stick and trivia questions on the Word of God. His passion for spreading the Gospel most recently resulted in the publication of tract literature which is already being shared in places around the world.

Jim enjoyed other hobbies and pastimes and always seemed to be expanding his interests and skills. He was an enthusiastic fisherman, an able craftsman and woodworker, and knew his way around the kitchen (most often frying up his latest catch). He was a bargain hunter and garage sale aficionado, on both sides of the table.

If you would like to give in lieu of flowers, you may make contributions to The Pentecostals of Westfield, 10590 Magenda Drive, Noblesville, IN 46060.

Funeral services were held on Monday July 2, 2018 at Radiant Life Christian Church in c/o Pentecostals of Westfield, 16162 Carey Road, Westfield. Family and friends gathered prior to the services. The Rev. Terry Long and Pastor Randy Adams officiated. Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, July 3, 2018 at Riverside Cemetery in Noblesville.

Cynthia Ann Campbell
February 18, 1958 – June 29, 2018

Cynthia Ann Campbell, 60, Sheridan, passed away surrounded by her family on Friday afternoon, June 29, 2018 at Riverview Health in Noblesville. Born February 18, 1958 in Detroit, Mich., she was the daughter of the late Otis H. and Ruby Mae (Roberts) Sutton.

After graduating from John Hinds Vocational School, Cindy entered the workforce. For many of those years, she was a custodian for the Carmel School System. She would also work for Kroger and Wilson Farm Market in their deli departments. Cindy loved to cook, and in the deli, fried chicken was her specialty. If you went in and saw “The Chicken Fryer” at her post, you were in for some good eatin’.

Cindy was a very special lady to a lot of people. She was kind of the “Granny” for most of her neighborhood, as well as quite a few others around town. Helping people and looking out after them was just part of her DNA. Most of the time, her infectious smile was just what the doctor ordered. No matter how badly things seemed to be going in her own life, she never let it show. She always had a smile on her face, and that smile seemed to carry over to just about everyone she came in contact with. Cindy never met a stranger, and that gift of getting to know people came in handy when she, along with her family, started raising money for the Relay for Life. She was very active in the Westfield and Noblesville events. Cindy was a Team Captain, a volunteer, and a champion for the cause. For the residents of Sheridan, you could almost set your calendar by her yard sales and her other fundraisers around town benefitting the American Cancer Society. Her efforts were recognized during one of the American Cancer Society’s annual awards presentations. Cindy also loved volunteering around Sheridan as well. For many years, she was the scorekeeper and bookkeeper for Sheridan Rec. Board Softball League. She also enjoyed the years she spent as a Girl Scout troop leader. There are countless organizations in and around the Sheridan community that will truly miss seeing Cindy’s smiling face come through their doors, brightening the day for the people on the other side like only she could.

No matter what Cindy was involved in, her family always took top billing in her life. She was full of sass and her family took the brunt of it, but nobody loved them more than she did.

Cindy is survived by her daughter, Nicole Renee Godby (Seth), Orlando, Fla.; six grandchildren, Autumn Campbell, Sheridan, and Malachi Campbell, Zane Godby, Brett Godby, Justice Godby and Hendrix Godby, all of Orlando, Fla.; her father in law, Boyd Campbell; one brother, Otis Sutton (Cynthia), Noblesville; two sisters, Margaret Harber, Anderson, and Carolyn Townsend (Bill), Arcadia; and by the love of her life, her dog Bella.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her daughter, Pamela Kay Campbell; one brother, Charles Sutton; mother in law, Sylvia Campbell; nephew, Tommy Sutton; niece, Tara Tebow; brother in law, Freddie Harber; and by her loving husband, Gary Wayne Campbell on January 18, 2011. She and Gary were married on August 4, 1978.

Services will be held at 1 p.m. on Friday, July 6, 2018 at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan. Burial will follow at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan. Pastor George Cooper will be officiating. Visitation will held from 4 to 8 p.m. on Thursday, July 5, 2018 at Kercheval Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be presented to the American Cancer Society.

HAND hires consulting firm, schedules public meetings on housing

The REPORTER

HAND Inc. has engaged Novogradac & Co. LLP, a national accounting and consulting firm, to complete the 2018 Hamilton County Housing Needs Assessment. This data-based analysis, which is conducted twice a decade, is used to determine local housing needs and to identify a strategy for meeting them.

In addition to collecting and evaluating demographic data at the county level, the consultant will solicit input from key stakeholders during a series of public open houses scheduled for the week of July 9. Representatives of local businesses, nonprofit agencies and government entities are invited to attend the meetings to share their thoughts on the state of housing in the community – and how it impacts their organizations.

The two-hour meetings will be held at the following times and locations:

- 9 to 11 a.m. July 10, Grand Park Events Center, 19000 Grand Park Blvd., Westfield
- 1 to 3 p.m. July 10, Sheridan Public Library, 103 W. First St., Sheridan
- 2 to 4 p.m. July 11, Carmel City Hall, 1 Civic Square, Carmel
- 1 to 3 p.m. July 12, Arcadia Town Hall, 208 W. Main St., Arcadia
- 9 to 11 a.m. July 13,

Fishers City Hall, 1 Municipal Drive, Fishers

- 2 to 4 p.m. July 13, Noblesville City Hall, 16 S. 10th St., Noblesville

“The Housing Needs Assessment is a valuable tool, because it allows communities to get a clearer picture of the types and magnitude of their housing challenges and opportunities,” said Rachel Denton, a partner in Novogradac’s Kansas City, Mo., office. “This report will allow leaders and residents of Hamilton County to make better-informed decisions on how to best allocate their resources.”

Results from the study are expected to be unveiled at HAND’s annual sustainable housing conference on Sept. 21. Registration for that event is expected to open July 30.

“HAND has been working to provide quality housing options in Hamilton County for 15 years, and we know that the need is growing along with the population,” said Executive Director Jennifer M. Miller.

The 2018 Housing Needs Assessment is funded by grants from The Legacy Fund, Duke Energy Foundation and the Noblesville Housing Authority. The report is required of communities that receive federal Community Development Block Grant funding in order to determine local needs.

dan Community School. This year's winners were Emma Hawn and Wyatt Reed. The Sheridan Fun Loving Kiwanis Club meets at 6:30 p.m. on the first Wednesday of each month at the Sheridan Public Library. Over the years the local club has been involved in a wide variety of local and international projects that serve humanity in a variety of ways. One of their local service projects is the awarding each year of two $500 scholarships to deserving students in the graduating class of Sheridan Community School. For further information about the Sheridan club please contact any Kiwanis member or come to a meeting to find out just how "fun loving" and hardworking they really are in the community.

Democrats rename annual dinner event

Hamilton County Democrats have discarded the names of Jefferson and Jackson for their annual county dinner and rally. This year the event will be called the Triple J Dinner. The name comes from the first name initials of the party's state ticket: Jim Harper, candidate for Secretary of State; John Aguilera, running for state treasurer and Joselyn Whittaker, for auditor. The three will all be speaking at the dinner July 21 at the Carmel American Legion Post 155. They will oppose Republican incumbents who currently hold the three Statehouse offices. The name of the dinner party is being changed because party leaders believe political correctness dictates the names of former presidents Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson should no longer be used because both men were slave owners. Next year another more permanent name will be chosen for the event. Meanwhile, as the deadline arrived for filing Democratic candidates, County Chairman Joe Weingarten reported the names of four township candidates added to the party ticket. The political party has the right to appoint candidates when none filed for an office in the primary election. David Russ will be running against incumbent Republican Douglas Callahan for Clay Township Trustee. Marie DeMore was named a candidate for Noblesville Township Board, Rachna Greulach will run for the Fall Creek Township Board and Janet Scarce is a candidate for the Jackson Township Board. In countywide races, most Republican candidates will be elected without opposition in November. Democrats are running Jason Straw for sheriff against Republican nominee Dennis Quakenbush, and Rosemary Dunkle for county commissioner against incumbent Christine Altman. Weingarten candidly noted his party has a very tough time getting candidates to run for major office in Hamilton County due to the well-known Republican political tradition.

Welcome Home, Grindstone!

I live just four blocks from the corner of 10th and Logan streets. For the past few months I have watched, with great anticipation, the building on the northwest corner being transformed into the Grindstone Public House.

where everyone seemed to know each other. It was like having Sunday dinner with about 20-30 of our forever friends. Every menu choice was a winner. It was hard to pick a favorite.

A few years ago Clancy's came back to Noblesville for the Street Dance. Those not familiar with Clancy's were asking why there was a line wrapping around the sidewalks at 9th and Conner. An hour-long wait just to bite into a Topper. So worth it! Then the announcement came a few months ago, that the Fogelsong Family was opening up the Grindstone Public House at 10th and Logan, where Eddie's Corner Café had been. The taste buds of old Noblesville people began salivating. Could this really be happening?

So many mouthwatering items on the menu, besides the famous Topper, you can choose Tenderloins, Fried Green Tomatoes, Fried Bologna Sandwiches, Sugar Cream Pie and their ever so famous steaks. Other choices include, well let's just say, you won't be hungry when you leave. Perhaps it's not just the food that will bring the old Noblesville people into Grindstone Public House but the memories. Nostalgia at its most glorious along with the delicious taste of yesteryears. Many a "remember when" will be heard. I've said for many years now, "If they build it, people will come." Welcome Home Grindstone and the Fogelsong Family. We are glad you are back! Now let's line up and enjoy!

I know that I tend to exaggerate but I am not, this time, when I say that if you have never had the opportunity to taste a Clancy's Topper, you have missed out on a culinary delight. It was in May of 1965 when Clancy's opened the doors at 10th and Maple streets. I was just finishing up the fourth grade at First Ward School. Back then we would walk home for lunch and then walk back to school. I would venture to say that a few students veered of their usual path and headed to Clancy's. I remember in fifth grade at North Elementary we had a cafeteria. It was a special treat for me to have my mother pick me up and take me to lunch at the place I always chose to go ... Clancy's. A Clancy's Topper and the best French fries in town were served by the friendliest of workers. It was like having my mom fix my lunch. A few years down the road, they served made to order breakfast. Seriously, you could order an egg, over easy, as well as biscuits and gravy. I'm talking ordering and picking up in the drive thru. In 1982 the Fogelsong Family, which owned Clancy's, opened up Grindstone Charley's at the top of the hill by Riverview Hospital. My kids were 5 and 1. Many a Sunday after church we would head to Grindstone's

Noblesville to host 2019 gymnastics state finals

By RICHIE HALL

The best gymnasts in Indiana will be flipping their way to The Mill in March.

Noblesville High School will host the IHSAA gymnastics state finals next school year, which is scheduled for March 9, 2019. The organization approved Noblesville as the state host at its Executive Committee meeting this past April 30.

Ball State University has been hosting the meet for the past several years, but is unable to do so this coming year due to a scheduling conflict. The IHSAA contacted Noblesville High School about hosting early in the spring for a one-year deal, and Noblesville accepted.

"It's definitely great to know that the IHSAA has the confidence in us that we can assist them in putting a tournament the magnitude of a State Championship," said NHS athletic director Leah Wooldridge.

The Millers are looking forward to being the host - especially gymnastics head coach Jody Ramey.

"I'm stoked," said Ramey. "I think it's going to be an awesome thing. I'm sure some of the teams might be a little bit disappointed because its going back into a high school versus Ball State University. Ball State does such a great job of hosting."

The IHSAA has been conducting gymnastics state tournaments since 1973; it's one of the first girls sports that saw competition under the auspices of the organization. The state finals were hosted by North Central for the first five years (1973-77), then had a long run at Perry Meridian, from 1978 to 2010. In fact, Noblesville competed at state as a team for the first time at Perry Meridian, back in 2008.

In 2011, the state finals were moved to Ball State. The Millers have competed there as well: Katherine and Constance Chininis were all-around qualifiers in 2013, while Katherine Chininis made it back in the vault event in 2014.

Ramey said she feels honored that the IHSAA saw Noblesville as a site that could host such a big event. She said it makes sense because it is a centralized location from the three regional sites (Valparaiso, Huntington North and Connersville).

"I think it's great for our program," said Ramey. The coach said she would be contacting former gymnasts, asking them for help supporting the team and helping out if needed.

"It's going to give us some press, which is great," said Ramey.

While gymnastics teams have been declining across Indiana over the past several years, many programs are thriving, including Noblesville. Several new schools have also come on board with individual competitors; in fact, Assistant Commissioner Sandra Walter indicated at the IHSAA's April 30 meeting that there will be

The Noblesville gymnastics team will have extra incentive in the 2019 post-season: Noblesville High School is hosting the IHSAA gymnastics state finals next school year. The state meet will take place at The Mill on March 9, 2019; NHS agreed to host the meet when regular host Ball State University was unable to do so due to a scheduling conflict.

one new gymnastics team next school year.

The Millers are coming off a great season of their own in 2018. Noblesville finished fourth at the difficult Lafayette Jefferson sectional, topping the 100-point mark for the first time in four years. Makayla Kauzlick, then a freshman, placed sixth in the balance beam and vault events, qualifying for the Valparaiso regional as an individual in both events.

Ramey believes that the state meet taking place at Noblesville will be extra incentive for her gymnasts to do well this upcoming season.

"I do think there is hope for individuals to get out and go to state," said Ramey.

Frey finishes as Boys State Junior runner-up

Carmel's Nick Frey finished as the runner-up at the Indiana Golf Foundation's Boys Junior State Championship Friday at Purdue University's Kampen Course.

Frey, a recent graduate of Brebeuf Jesuit, reached the final by beating Peyton Snoeberger of Williamsport 1 Up in the semi-finals. Frey played the top seed, Lafayette's Nicholas Hoffman in the final, with Hoffman winning 3 & 2.

Hoffman advanced to the final by defeating Ty Gingerich, a senior-to-be at Guerin Catholic, 2 & 1 in the semi-finals. Gingerich and Frey both advanced to the semi-finals by beating two other Hamilton County golfers on Thursday.

Gingerich defeated Carmel's Stephen Kochera in the Round of 16 3 & 2, then beat Westfield's Benjamin Borgan in the quarter-finals 3 & 1. Borgan made it to the quarter-finals with a win over Carmel's Jack Crawford, 1 Up, in the Round of 16.

Frey beat Westfield's Drew Pickering 2 & 1 in the Round of 16, then defeated Carmel's Nick Dentino in the quarter-finals 4 & 3. Dentino beat Greenwood's Noah Gillard in the Round of 16, in 19 holes.

Noblesville's Jacob Deakyne made it to the quarter-finals. He beat Plainfield's Kasey Lilly 1 Up in the Round of 16 before falling to Williamsport's Peyton Snoeberger 3 & 2 in his quarter-final match.

Henderson places sixth at IWGA State Amateur

Westfield graduate Cailyn Henderson tied for sixth at the Indiana Women's Golf Association State Amateur Championship, which finished up Friday at Hillview Country Club in Franklin.

Henderson finished with a three-day score of 225, nine-over par. Henderson carded a two-over 74 in her final round, which helped lift her into the top 10.

Results of county golfers that participated now follows.

Noblesville and Butler standout...

Garrett Christman signs with the Giants

Noblesville and Butler University baseball player Garrett Christman is going pro.

Christman, a 2014 NHS and 2018 Butler graduate, announced on Thursday night that he has signed with the San Francisco Giants organization as a pitcher. Miller fans remember Christman for his pitching skills, which helped Noblesville to a state championship in 2014.

When making the announcement on Twitter, Christman said that he was "extremely blessed and proud to join such a great organization!" and thanked his "parents, family, coaches, teammates and friends" that helped and supported him.

In his senior season at Butler, Christman made 13 appearances and picked up four wins. He notched 48 strikeouts and finished the season with an earned-run average of 3.47. Christman also had solid offensive numbers as well, batting .310 and leading the Bulldogs in runs batted in with 48.

Christman was the Reporter's Player of the Year in 2014, and was drafted in the 37th round by the Giants in the 2014 Major League Baseball Draft.

Five county football players to participate in North/South All-Star game

Five Hamilton County football players have been selected to participate in the Indiana North/South All-Star game next month.

All of the county's players will be on the South team roster. They are: Westfield offensive linemen Joe Marra and Matt Robinson, Fishers kicker Ben Norton, Hamilton Southeastern strong safety/offensive linebacker Johnny May, Guerin Catholic defensive end Sam Ashton. Fishers' Courtney Fella will be a manager for the South team.

This year's North/South All-Star football game will take place at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, July 13 at North Central.

Nearly 300 coaches in attendance...

Noblesville High School hosts NHSSCA National Conference

By BRETT KUEHN
For the Reporter

Every day across the world coaches wake up with a mission of helping student athletes in sports and in life. Nearly 300 coaches attended the National High School Strength and Conditioning Association (NHSSCA) National Conference this year in Noblesville.

The event, which was hosted at Noblesville High School, is special and a reflection of the spirit and dedication of the men and women who are helping our youth not only become great athletes but the leaders of tomorrow.

Over 35,000 high schools in the United States serve 17.5 million students with millions of these young people participating in sports. So, it is unquestionable how much of an impact sports and coaches have on our youth. The NHSSCA provides education, experience, resources, and the chance to build relationships with and among high school coaches who want to make a difference in the lives of their student-athletes.

This national event, led by top strength professionals, included more than just strength and conditioning topics, it provided coaches with the tools and wisdom to develop their programs and athletes. NHSSCA did a great job inviting outstanding speakers to share their experiences and knowledge.

Noblesville strength and conditioning coach Brian Clarke was happy to host the event, and was quick to credit the Hamilton County Sports Authority with assisting him. The HCSA helped Clarke in matters such as scheduling venues and calling hosts.

"They're really a hidden gem for our county," said Clarke.

In addition, Clarke also hoped that more people would become aware of the NHSSCA, which he said has been in existence for about a year and a half. The association has a website, nhssca.us, and notes on its history page that while "there are a few organizations and associations serving the field of strength and conditioning, none were solely dedicated solely to the high school strength coach." Thus, the NHSSCA was created.

The conference pre-con included Strength and Conditioning coach Micah Kurtz who is the Director of Sports Performance at Windermere Preparatory School and consultant coach to Oak Hill Academy basketball program. His three talks included "5 Reasons Why Every High School Should Have a Full-Time Strength & Conditioning Coach," "5 Core Values and Philosophy," and "Using Your Position to Not Only Maximize the Athletic Potential of Your Student-Athletes but Also Your Entire School Community." Coach Kurtz's demeanor was positive and inspiring. He made sure to thank and shake every vendor's hand for supporting the event. Coach Kurtz wasn't there to just provide information, he was there to unify the strength coaches and reinforce the community of the NHSSCA.

Mike Boyle, the co-founder of Mike Boyle Strength and Conditioning, led the event with the keynote address. With an extensive background in strength and conditioning and a track record serving the Boston Bruins, Boston Red Sox, and the US Women's Olympic Ice Hockey Team, Coach Boyle has been a featured speaker at numerous events and the NHSSCA attendees were in for a treat. His keynote was titled "Success Secrets and Lessons from the Last 35 Years." These secrets weren't about physical training they were about life and character building. One of his very first lessons was advising everyone to read. Coach Boyle said, "Just read 10 pages a day, everyone has time to read 10 pages a day". He even recommended a few books that should be a requirement for everyone. Now, this advice isn't groundbreaking, but when coaches heard it from a such a successful trainer in their field, it had an impact. Great life advice like that shared by Coach Boyle is how the NHSSCA National Conference does more than just provide coaches with training information.

The NHSSCA National Conference had some other great presenters and speakers. John Garrish, Jr. spoke about "The Coach & Social Media." Richard Burnett had a mini-session on "Developing an Internship Program." Fred Eaves covered "Fundraising Ideas & Opportunities." These coaches, as well as Mike Boyle and Micah Kurtz, are more than just strength and conditioning coaches providing information. They are leaders that are making a difference in people's lives. They want to help high school coaches develop their programs and character. The NHSSCA did a fantastic job making sure the speakers shared their life experiences and lessons. That is what great coaches do and I highly recommend anyone who can attend the NHSSCA do so in the future. The next time you see a high school coach, shake their hand because these professionals are dedicated to making a difference in the lives of young people every day.

Bobby Allen hired as Guerin Catholic head boys basketball coach

Allen

The Guerin Catholic Athletic Department announced the hiring of Bobby Allen as Varsity Boys Basketball Coach. Allen also joins the staff at Guerin Catholic as an English teacher.

Allen most recently served as an assistant coach at Cathedral High School in Indianapolis, and was head coach at Knightstown for six seasons. During his tenure at Knightstown, Coach Allen was twice recognized as Henry County Coach of the Year, Mid-Hoosier Conference Coach of the Year and also served as head coach of the Hoosier Reunion All-Star Classic. Allen has also coached at Lawrence Central and Chatard High School.

"We are very blessed to have an educator and coach who comes to us with a wealth of basketball knowledge and experience, but more importantly understands the purpose of education based athletics deeply rooted in the Catholic Faith," said Matt Lane, Director of Athletics.

"I am truly blessed and excited for the opportunity to be the head boys basketball coach at Guerin Catholic High School," said Allen. "Coaching and teaching have been my true passions for fifteen years. Becoming a head basketball coach at a school where I can create lifelong relationships and develop student athletes based on Catholic values is my professional goal, and I look forward to having a positive impact on the players, school, and entire community."

Bobby and Mollie, along with their sons Benson, 7, and Everett, 4, reside in Fishers. In his spare time, he enjoys coaching both of his boys in basketball, baseball and golf, as well as taking his family to sporting events at Indiana University to cheer on the Hoosiers. After being raised through St. Pius X and Cathedral High School, they understand the importance of instilling the values of Christ and raising their children in a positive church setting.

"Mollie, Benson, and Everett are as excited as I am to be a part of the Guerin Catholic family and to continue our faith journey with this community," said Allen.

The camp takes place from 8 to 10 a.m. July 9, 10, 11 and 12 at Hamilton Heights High School. The cost is $35, with a family discount of $5 off for each additional child.
