Sheriff's Department helps Santa on Saturday

The REPORTER
Santa's helpers at the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office had a busy morning on Saturday as the Shop for Kids annual shopping extravaganza took place. More than 50 area youth were treated to a shopping trip to Target in an effort to make the holiday season a bit brighter for those who need some extra assistance to experience the joy of the season.
The morning started with donuts and juice as the kids, their families and employees of the Sheriff's Office got to know each other. Everyone then bundled into cars for a special trip from the Sheriff's Office to the Target store in Fishers. Dozens of cars with lights and sirens in full operation stretched down the road as motorists stopped, waved and took photos. What the onlookers couldn't see were the excited faces of children as, for some, the trip in a sheriff car

They are part of what is called the Greatest Generation. Most of those still living have arrived into their 90s.

JANET HART LEONARD
From the Heart

These thoughts ran through my mind on Monday as I watched, through a veil of tears, the arrival and procession as George H.W. Bush was carried into the U.S. Capitol Building. So many wanted to pay their respects and say goodbye to No. 41.
It wasn't just the man and his accomplishments but the memories that came from the interviews of those who knew 41.
And oh, the eulogies of his son, No. 43, his granddaughter, Jenna Bush Hager, and his friend, James Baker. Love was spoken time and time again. And the nation wiped tears.
41 loved his family and his friends well. He wasn't afraid to let them know he loved and appreciated them. He valued those who were part of his White House family. He knew how to treat people. The stories

Officers and civilians participated in the program and helped raise money for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS). Over 100 Carmel Police Department employees raised a total of $7,689 for LLS along with community sponsors.
Carmel Police Chief James Barlow said, "This is our third year to participate in 'No Shave November.' We relaxed our grooming standards for a little over a month allowing officers and other employees to participate in the event. This is an awesome way for our Carmel Police family and the community to come together and raise money for such a great cause."
Nearly 30 officers attended the "Shave Off" event on Sunday, Dec. 2 at Main Street Barber Shop. Main Street Barber Shop opened its doors on Sunday to the Carmel Police Department and officers were treated with a good, old-fashioned beard shaving.

Sheridan begins planning for next year's 4th of July

The REPORTER

It is not even Christmas, and yet a small group of Sheridan folks are already meeting to plan the annual events surrounding the July 4th Festival for 2019. The first of many meetings took place on Nov. 27 and began with a general discussion of what went right and what went wrong for the 2018 event.

Committee chair Katie Fisher began the meeting by saying, "The 4th of July in Sheridan is a time for our community to come together and enjoy the true patriotism, and meaning behind the 4th of July. The 4th of July festival and Lions Club parade have always been a cherished event within our community. Seeing the excitement of the children and families coming together to celebrate, is truly humbling. I am honored to make sure that this event is carried on for more years to come and I am confident that the committee in place, with the support of the Lions Club, will not disappoint our community!"

Fisher will be the first to point out that there is a lot of work ahead of the committee to ensure the success of this event. As Independence Day gets closer, the committee may begin to reach out to specific members of the Sheridan community for help. There will be a need for helpers with set up and tear down duties, activity supervision and other such jobs on the day of the event. The committee hopes you will be ready and say "Yes!" when its calls upon you.

If you would like more information about the July 4th Committee, please contact Katie Fisher at 317-460-3380. She will be glad to answer your questions.

Noblesville Gift Shop opens for holiday season with unique, exclusive offerings

The REPORTER

The Noblesville Gift Shop inside the Visitors Center on the courthouse square is now open for shoppers. During the holiday season, Nickel Plate Arts, Noblesville Main Street, Hamilton County Tourism and the City of Noblesville are collaborating to offer shoppers a unique, Noblesville-centric holiday gift shop at 839 Conner St.

"There are a lot of unique gift items available," said Nickel Plate Arts Executive Director Ailithir McGill. "We feature items that are either made in Noblesville, made by Noblesville artists or celebrate Noblesville. Not only are you getting something cool for the holidays but you are supporting a good organization or local artists."

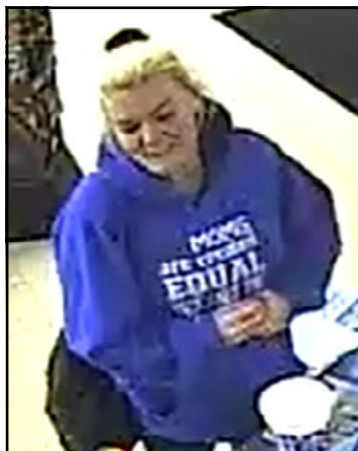

The shop includes local gift items including some exclusive offerings, like: Noblesville Schools' Miller Spirit Gear; pottery by Dan Howell and Darlene Patterson; Noblesville Main Street's Townie T-shirts featuring the starbrick pattern; Deb Wofford's Friendship

Spoons; Noble Coffee & Tea gift packages; and superhero comics signed by Stuart Sayger.

"We are the only place in the world to get the full set of Kiss comics signed by the artist, Stuart Sayger," said McGill. "We run the full gamut, we have seasonal items with snowmen and Santa, but we also have the iconic Noblesville objects with the courthouse. If you just need your Noblesville thing, you can find it here too. It's worth checking back too. As artists finish up the holiday markets in the next couple weeks, they will be putting more stock in here and you just don't know what you could find."

The Noblesville Gift Shop is open 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday.

"We're excited to share this new Noblesville holiday hotspot with the public," said McGill. "This is a test so if you have an interest of keeping a shop full of just Noblesville stuff in town, then you should come support it before the end of the year."

Indiana AG Curtis Hill announces new effort to combat robocalls

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill announced on Wednesday that he is helping lead a bipartisan group of 40 state attorneys general developing fresh strategies to stop or reduce annoying, harmful and illegal robocalls. The coalition is reviewing innovative technologies that major telecom companies hope to employ in this fight. Indiana is one of 15 states on the working group's executive committee.

“Hoosiers should be able to enjoy peace and privacy without the disturbance of unwanted calls interrupting their routines,” Hill said. “Further, some of these calls are coming from scammers intent on stealing people’s identities or taking their money. We need stronger measures and better technologies aimed at stopping illegal robocalling.”

Since it was formed, the multistate group has had in-depth meetings with several major telecom companies. These productive meetings have led to greater information sharing about the technological capabilities currently in existence or in development to fight these calls.

Hill and his colleagues are working to:

- Develop a detailed understanding of what is technologically feasible to minimize unwanted robocalls and illegal telemarketing
- Engage the major telecom companies to encourage them to expedite the best possible solutions for consumers

- Determine whether states should make further recommendations to the FCC
- Educate consumers about current call-blocking options, and
- Evaluate and coordinate future enforcement efforts against bad actors.

Anyone receiving unwanted robocalls or encountering suspected scams of any variety is encouraged to file a consumer complaint with the Office of the Attorney General at indianaconsumer.com or by calling 1-800-382-5516.

Seven things to do ahead of health insurance ‘open enrollment’ deadline

The REPORTER

Time is running out for the Open Enrollment period to secure health coverage through the Affordable Care Act Health Insurance Marketplace on Health-Care.gov. But many Americans in need of health coverage are unaware that the clock is ticking.

A recent poll by the Kaiser Family Foundation shows most Americans who could be eligible for such health coverage are unaware of the actual enrollment deadline. This poll shows that a majority (61 percent) of Americans most directly affected by Open Enrollment – adults under age 65 who are either uninsured or buy their own insurance – do not know when the enrollment period ends in their state.

“As a part of Ascension, St. Vincent believes everyone should have access to healthcare coverage, especially those who need it most,” said Nicole Kowalski, Health Access Manager for the St. Vincent Rural and Urban Access to Health (RUAH) program. “That’s why we want individuals to know the facts about the Open Enrollment deadline and application process so they can take the necessary steps to secure the health coverage they need before it’s too late.”

Here are seven things to know and do ahead of the open enrollment deadline:

- 1. Know the deadline. The deadline to enroll in a health plan on the Health Insurance Marketplace is Saturday, Dec. 15.

- 2. Gather your information. Before you start the application process, gather the key information you will need to include about yourself and your household. Click here to find the full application checklist.
- 3. Explore your options. Compare health plans and prices on Health-Care.gov so you can make a healthy choice for you and your family.
- 4. Get answers. Find answers to frequently asked questions about health insurance by visiting Health-Care.gov/get-answers.
- 5. Begin the application process. Visit [\[Care.gov\]\(http://Care.gov\) to begin the enrollment process. You can also contact the Marketplace Call Center: 1-800-318-2596 \(TTY: 1-855-889-4325\). Tell the operator your language you need.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem. And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor; which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus. And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre. And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

Playing calm and collected, Millers cool off Anderson

Noblesville’s Alex Hunt was a major part of two seconds-quarter runs for the Millers in their 73-66 win over Anderson Saturday. Hunt scored 11 points in the second period and 13 overall.

By RICHIE HALL

Saturday night’s boys basketball game at The Mill began with a blast of heat. Noblesville was stunned by an early hot-shooting performance by Anderson during the first couple minutes of the first quarter. But the Millers didn’t panic - instead they played it cool, and used hot shooting of their own to come back and eventually beat the Indians 73-66.

Anderson blasted off to a 9-0 lead after junior Joseph Jones drained three consecutive 3-pointers. Noblesville got on the board when senior Eagan Keever-Hill connected on a short jumper, and that seemed to break the ice for the Millers - it was the start of an 11-0 run. Senior Zack Johnson nailed a 3, then senior Xavier Hines made back to back triples, putting Noblesville up 11-9.

"I was really proud of our guys for not panicking," said Millers coach Brian McCauley. "Obviously we didn't have the intensity or the awareness that we needed to start the game with their shooters, particularly No. 10 (Jones)."

Emmanuel Stowes hit a free throw to make the score 11-10, which is where the first quarter ended. Anderson briefly took a 12-11 lead in the second quarter when Arriyone Hall hit a hook shot.

Noblesville answered with the first of two 8-0 runs in the period. Hines threw in another 3, then junior Alex Hunt scored five straight points, the final three on a three-point play to put the Millers up 19-12.

"I thought Hunt was really good in the second quarter," said McCauley. "A great spark for us."

Another Jones 3 got the Indians within 21-18, then Noblesville began its next 8-0 run. Hunt continued his sensational second quarter with another three-point play, then a 3-point basket. Johnson finished the run with two free throws.

"Really pleased with our composure throughout that stretch, and then offensively, I thought we did a good job of, throughout that stretch, finding the open man, making the right pass and taking good shots," said McCauley.

The Millers led 33-20 at halftime. Noblesville would keep its lead between seven and 13 points throughout the third quarter, making timely baskets, getting contributions from everyone on the floor and also using its defense to keep Anderson in check whenever it threatened to heat up again. McCauley said his team "did a good job of spreading them out" in the third quarter.

The Millers made some gutsy plays as well: When Daveyon Turner made a 3 (another one!) to bring the Indians within 38-30, Keever-Hill launched a football pass to Hines on the other side of the court, then Hines made the easy basket to get the lead back up to 10.

Jones heated up again with back-to-back 3s to bring Anderson within 43-36 late in the third quarter, but the Millers cooled that off with two free throws from Keever-Hill, then Hines scored to push Noblesville ahead 47-36.

"Eagan did a good job of knocking down free throws," said McCauley.

The Indians cut the Millers' lead to 47-40 by the end of three, but Johnson hit a quick 3 to start the fourth quarter. A short time later, Brendon Fisher hit a 3-pointer.

"They went to the trap in the fourth quarter," said McCauley. "We did a good job with our formation and passing, and Fisher hit a big 3 to put us up 13."

Anderson kept fighting, and were still within 58-49 with 5:08 left. The Millers then used good passing to take time off the clock, and ended that sequence with Johnson making a layin. Another Johnson basket put the Millers ahead 62-49; he scored 11 points in the fourth quarter and hit Noblesville's last basket of the game, a layin to put them ahead 70-57.

Four Noblesville players finished the game in double figures: Johnson scored 24, Hines had 19, Hunt scored 13 (on 5-of-5 field-goal shooting and 2-of-2 free-throw shooting) and Keever-Hill added 11. Hines had four rebounds, while Fisher handed out four assists. As a team, Noblesville shot 25-for-34, or 73.5 percent.

"Great team performance and great individual performances as well," said McCauley.

The Millers are now 2-2 and will travel to Westfield on Friday for a Hoosier Crossroads Conference game.

"They've been working hard and they earned this win," said McCauley. "So now we'll try to get ready for a really tough game against a conference opponent in Westfield."

University's win is one for the history books

The University boys basketball team shot their way in to the record book, making 24 3-point baskets in a 108-48 PAAC win over Liberty Christian.

The 24 made 3-pointers is the second most in state history according to the Hickory Husker Book of Indiana High Basketball Records. Owen Valley made 26 3-pointers in a game against Monrovia during the 1991-92 season.

Eight different Trailblazers made at least one three pointer as University made 24 of 36 long range shots. "That was the most contagious display of shooting I've seen" said University coach Brandon Lafferman. "We displayed our depth off the bench tonight."

Junior Max Greenamoyer led the Blazers with 21 points, making 7 of 11 3-pointers. Senior Quinn Steiner made 6 of 8 3-pointers, finishing with 18 points. Korey Ash-Simpson (13 points) and Nate Shatkowski (nine points) made three triples each. Sophomore Matt Jones had a pair and Joe Martin, Sam Mervis and Camden Brown each had one.

University raced to a 15-0 lead in the first four minutes of the contest behind nine points from Greenamoyer. "We came out with a lot of energy tonight" continued Lafferman. "We played well on both sides of the ball. We have talked about converting to points and we accomplished that tonight."

Greenamoyer had six 3-pointers in the first half, tying the school record set by Eric Wott in 2013 against Fall Creek Academy. The 108 points scored ties the school record set in 2006-07 against International.

University's 66.7 percent 3-point shooting is the sixth highest percentage in state history per the Hickory Husker record book. The 27 combined 3-pointers made by both teams is the third best.

University outrebounded the Lions 30-19. Brown had eight boards and Jacob Sager seven.

The Trailblazers took great care of the basketball, handing out 27 assists against only eight turnovers. Mervis had 11 assists and six steals.

The Class 1A sixth ranked Trailblazers improved to 5-1 overall, 2-0 in the PAAC North. Liberty Christian falls to 2-3 in their first PAAC game of the season.

University has a pair of road games next weekend, at Muncie Burris on Friday night and at Indianapolis Shortridge Saturday night.

Royals compete in Homestead Invitational, Fishers hosts Tiger Claw diving meet

The Hamilton Southeastern swim teams competed in the Homestead Invitational on Saturday.

The Royals boys placed third, scoring 421.5 points. Southeastern had three runner-up finishes: DJ Rogers placed second in the 50 freestyle, then swam on the two Royals runner-up relays, the medley with Blake Ratliff, Connor Harrison and Andrew Christopher and the 200 free relay with Christopher, Zack Bostock and Marcus Eden.

"For the swimmers, this was a really tough meet – bringing home third place equals last year, but there are still a lot of questions about how the championship lineup will shake out for our team," said HSE coach Andy Pedersen. "This meet is an absolute slugfest with many of the best swimmers in the state competing for their schools. Most of the older and more experienced swimmers handled this very well while some of the younger guys got caught looking around and letting the meet pass them by. What a great opportunity for our team – there is no better way to prepare for the championships than by facing state level competition."

In the girls meet, the Royals took fourth with 388 points. Southeastern placed second in four events. Individual second places were earned by Hannah Pugh in the butterfly, Molly Pedersen in the 100 free and Abby Harter in the backstroke. The three HSE swimmers teamed with Molly Robinson to take second in the medley relay.

"From a team perspective, this was a rough day for the Lady Royals swimmers - finishing fourth in this meet does not meet the historical standard for our program," said Andy Pedersen. "All three teams finishing ahead of us are top 10 teams in the state, but we still wanted to be stronger today."

"That does not mean there weren't some outstanding performances and the enthusiasm was strong for the Lady Royals – fortunately this outcome makes our challenge moving forward very evident.

"There is no red flag here – the behavior of this team is solid and the character of these young ladies is incredible. We just got a real wake-up call from a perspective of what will be required to finish the season according to the team goals that they have set. The good news is that this group has some experienced leaders who have been down this road before – we will follow their lead and be back on track before the holiday break."

Leading by six with 5:18 remaining, Thaddeus Young collected a pass in the paint and went head first into the teeth of the defense, picking up the bucket and the foul. The crowd erupted in approval as Young pounded his chest and screamed.

On the Kings' ensuing possession, a steal led to Young on the fastbreak, where he again picked up a huge and-1, putting the Pacers ahead by 12 and essentially closing the door on the game as Indiana went on to collect a 107-97 over the Kings at Bankers Life Fieldhouse on Saturday night.

"It was perfect timing for the situation that we were in," explained Young after the game. "They were charging and trying to come back and those two (and-1's) were backbreakers for them."

Young — who finished with 20 points and nine rebounds — was instrumental during Indiana's 19-5 landslide of a run that brought them from leading by one to safely putting the game away when Bojan Bogdanovic sent home a one-handed slam on the fastbreak.

The victory was the third straight from the Pacers (16-10), who opened up a three-game homestand with a rollicking fourth quarter that led to the 10-point win.

"We just knew we had to stick together and fight," said Domantas Sabonis, who fought off food poisoning and scored 14 points off the bench.
