Fishers City Services Building opening today

By LARRY LANNAN | LarryInFishers.com

As the City of Fishers has grown to a municipality containing an estimated 91,000-plus residents, the city staff has grown, and that has caused a space crunch at City Hall. With the police department exiting its longtime home in a building just north of City Hall and moving across the street to the new George Kehl Station, a number of city departments have been in the process of moving into the previous police station.

The City Services Building (CSB) is the name given to the former police headquarters, and the public will have access to the CSB as of Friday, March 1.

The Fishers City Court, which has been holding sessions in the City Council Chambers, will now be located inside the City Services Building, providing a secure and permanent location for court officials. Those visiting the CSB will be able to deal with permit and inspection processing, sewer and storm water bill payment, court payments, and traffic tickets. Parks and Recreation payments will be accessible at the City Services Building. This includes payments and registration for building and pavilion rentals, activities and programs and Special Event Permit Applications (SEPA). This new location can service residents in addition to Parks & Recreation's office at 11565 Brooks School Road.

Plenty of parking is available in the area of the CSB, with surface lots and a number

Local leaders serve supper for Carmel Clay GOP Club

The REPORTER

Abdul Shabazz, Indianapolis radio personality, was the guest speaker Wednesday evening at the annual Carmel Clay Republican chili supper. He presented his observations on the current political scene in the state.

Candidates for Carmel city office in the May 7 primary election attended to meet club members and guests at the John Hensel Government Center.

The candidates – including Mayor Jim Brainard and his opponent, Fred Glynn – served chili to the attendees. Offices at stake this year include nine city council seats, city judge and city clerk in addition to mayor.

The GOP organization also elected officers for the year. Paul Ayers was named president succeeding Matt Snyder. Snyder will now be vice president. Dixie Packard and Barry Simich were re-elected as secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Family Promise of Hamilton County hires first executive director

The REPORTER

Nancy Ramsey has been hired as the first Executive Director for Family Promise of Hamilton County. She begins her duties today.

Nancy is a life-long Hamilton County resident with extensive experience in coaching individuals and families to achieve their goals for financial independence and home security. She has honed these skills in her work with WorkOne, JobWorks and Destination: College, a nonprofit she began.

She is an active volunteer, currently serving as a board member of the Sheridan Youth Assistance Program and has volunteered locally with Girl Scouts, 4-H, Noblesville Schools PTO and Tri Kappa. She is finishing her master's degree in Management and Leadership from Western Governors University and has a BS in Organizational Leadership from Anderson University. She is a 2014 graduate of the Hamilton County Leadership Academy.

"We are so excited to have Nancy help us open our doors to serve homeless children and their families by this spring," said Board of Trustees President Roger Crim. "In 2018, Hamilton County had 1,431

Husband is an important part of the caregiving team

When I introduced you to my mother's caregiving team a few months ago, I'm embarrassed to admit that I neglected to mention someone – my husband John. While he's never said anything to me, I still feel terrible that he wasn't included.

Perhaps it slipped my mind because John also serves as a long-distance caregiver for his father Ron. Ron lives in Manteno, Ill., just an hour south of Chicago. In fact, John was with him for a few days last week when his dad was admitted to the hospital. Thankfully, all is turning out fine, although there may be a future column about a certain father-in-law not being the best of patients!

You know how people say your love grows for your spouse once you see them become a parent? I think the same goes for when you witness how they care for their in-laws.

I've shared in a past column that we moved Mom down to Noblesville from the South Bend area a little over two years ago in a bit of a hurry. Okay, it was more like a big fat hurry – less than 10 days. My siblings and I did our best but we forgot little things along the way. Like, a shower curtain, pillowcases, hand soap, Mom's snow boots, and probably 10 other items.

After a 13-hour day of driving back and forth to Northern Indiana and then moving Mom into her assisted living facility, discovering these missing items made my heart sink. But John volunteered to run to Meijer to buy everything Mom

Sheriff releases Home Place to Carmel Police Department

The REPORTER

Effective today the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office relinquished primary law enforcement responsibility of the Home Place area to the Carmel Police Department.

This includes the areas in the southern portion of the county: old Home Place, College Meadows and Lexington Farms generally bounded by 96th Street to the south, Westfield Boulevard on the east, 111th Street to the north, and Pennsylvania Avenue on the west.

The City of Carmel officially annexed the Home Place area in 2018 but the Sheriff's Office retained primary responsibility during the transition. Friday, March 1 marks the end of the transition so those residents affected by the annexation will see Carmel Police responding as the primary law enforcement agency for both emergency and non-emergency incidents.

"The Carmel Police Department is excited about Home Place and their residents becoming part of the City of Carmel community," said Carmel Police Chief Jim Barlow. "As we transition police services from the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department, we are prepared to provide dedicated and quality police response and protection. We look forward to building a great relationship with Home Place residents for years to come."

Requests for information and general assistance in the area should be addressed to the Carmel Police Department. As with all incorporated areas, the Sheriff's Office will maintain a presence.

needed, except the snow boots, which my sister-in-law would pick up from Mishawaka on the following weekend.

Once he returned from the store, he put up the shower curtain, stuck various hooks on the walls, and performed other tasks. We were both wiped out when we left Mom's facility at around 10:30 that night, but I was grateful for his additional help at the last minute.

I had to return to work the next week, but Mom still had some miscellaneous needs. Fortunately, John's work slows down in the winter, so he once again came to the rescue. He hooked up Mom's little TV so she could have cable in her bedroom, bought and assembled a stand for it, and served as a general handyman that week for anything else that popped up. John also picked her up so they could both meet me for lunch that Wednesday – at Ginger's, of course.

He even purchased one of those "car canes" that fit into the doorway so Mom could easily get in and out of his vehicle.

John continues to be my "back up" for various caregiving tasks for Mom, and I can't express my appreciation enough.

I never thought I could love my husband more, but in late 2016, I discovered that it truly was possible. Thank you, John, for all you do for Mom. And thank you to all spouses who do so much for their in-laws. You are appreciated more than you know.

PREVAIL

Advocating for Victims of Crime and Abuse

www.prevailinc.com

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about.

But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.)

Prevail is strictly confidential, and since their core values include integrity and respect, they provide their services at no charge. Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

- Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Art supplies (for children to journal and express their emotions)
- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

You can drop off items at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, located at 14701 Tom Wood Way. You can also donate directly to Prevail of Central Indiana by visiting Prevailinc.org.

Encourage respect for flag and nation

FRED SWIFT
The County Line

At the risk of sparking a controversy, I want to make a suggestion on a subject you could call 'respect.' The type of respect I'm talking about is respect for the American flag by practicing the time honored tradition of placing the right hand over the heart during the playing of the national anthem.

At a recent high school basketball game I could not help but notice that members of the home team did not place their hands over the heart. Hundreds of fans likely observe team members during some part of the national anthem.

The U.S. Flag Code calls upon Americans to stand, face the flag and place their right hand over their heart during the playing of the anthem. There is no enforcement provision in the code. It's just a good recommended practice to follow. Of course there are many folks who don't follow the tradition.

But, members of sports teams are representatives of their schools and role models for fellow students and younger people who will often do what they see team members do.

Most of our sports team members follow rules of good behavior, get good grades and are on the road to becoming successful, model citizens. So, it should not be difficult to incorporate this simple sign of respect into routine behavior.

Either in school or at home, you'd hope that youngsters would be taught this sign of respect for their flag and nation. If no one else encourages this simple but symbolic gesture, perhaps coaches should remind their team members of this practice.

No injuries in Fishers fire

The REPORTER
On Thursday, Fishers firefighters responded to 9032 Technology Drive at DeVeau's School of Gymnastic for a business fire. A sprinkler was set off from the heat of the fire and contained the fire to a pit of foam until firefighters were able to extinguish the fire. Early indications appear the fire began from work being done on equipment, but investigators are working to establish a cause. The pit had foam blocks which were on fire creating thick smoke throughout the building. Smoke and water damage will leave the facility closed until owners are able to make repairs and clean up. No civilians or fire personnel sustained injuries. No dollar estimate is available on damage. Thirty-eight firefighters were on scene, assisted by Carmel Fire Department, Fishers Police Department and Fishers Fire Corps.

Noblesville Chamber of Commerce is your best resource for growing

Dear Editor:
We have all heard the clich   "time flies when you are having fun," so apparently I have been having a great deal of fun since I retired five years ago in February 2014 after 14 years as the President/CEO of the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce, as the time has flown by.
But enough about me! I am writing this to remind Noblesville residents and particularly Noblesville area businesses that the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce is your best resource for growing and retaining your customer base. Oh, I know that technology and social media have enabled businesses of every size to expand their customer base and connect with potential customers, of course. However, I am old-fashioned enough (and, sigh, old enough...) to believe that personal, in-your-face contact also has its rewards. Fortunately the Noblesville Chamber provides its members with the best of both worlds through its events, outreach and ongoing business education opportunities and services.
Upon retiring from the Chamber, I felt like the proverbial "mother hen" worrying about her chicks! I hoped (and prayed, actually) that a person would be found who had experience, energy, knowledge and foresight to lead the Chamber through upgrades, changes and new programs.
And guess what -- it happened!
Bob DuBois, the current President/CEO of the Chamber arrived from the East Coast with all of those attributes and more! Bob and staff member Mary Noble, Director of Member Engagement, work tirelessly to serve Chamber members and foster economic prosperity in our community. Find out more about the Chamber at noblesvillechamber.com.
The Noblesville Chamber of Commerce was first established in 1935, the first such Chamber in Hamilton County, building on a legacy of historical importance. The oldest commercial organization in the United States was the Chamber of Commerce established in 1768 in New York City -- eight years before the Declaration of Independence was signed. That legacy was built upon the first merchants association formed in Marseilles, France in the 16th century. (Sometimes a history major just can't let go!)
Business owners and managers: I encourage you to not only join the Noblesville Chamber, but get involved through Chamber events which will enable you to get to know your fellow business professionals in the Noblesville area and beyond. We learn and grow from our relationships with others and I know that you will see great advantage to your membership and make friends along the way.
From the largest facility to the small, home-based business, the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce is there for you. Congratulations to Bob, Mary, board of directors and volunteers of the Chamber who make it all happen.
And remember, fellow "Boomers" -- don't just reTIRE ... reWire!

U.S. House passes bipartisan poison control bill to help combat opioid epidemic

The REPORTER

The U.S. House of Representatives on Monday passed H.R. 501, the Poison Center Network Enhancement Act of 2019, legislation authored by Congressmembers Susan W. Brooks (R-Ind.-05), Eliot Engel (D-N.Y.), Diana DeGette (D-Colo.) and Jaime Herrera Beutler (R-Wash.) that will assist with potential poison exposures and help combat the national opioid epidemic.

Poison control centers are vital to preventing toxic exposure and poisoning injury and deaths, including opioid and other drug overdoses. This bill reauthorizes funding for the Poison Center Network, including their national toll-free number: (800) 222-1222. It also clarifies that poison control centers can be called upon to assist with public health emergencies, responses and preparedness; and requests that enhanced communications capabilities like texting be established.

"There is no one-size-fits-all solution to put a stop to the deadly opioid crisis that is devastating Hoosiers and Americans across the country," said Brooks.

Brooks

"However, this bill is a critical piece of the puzzle because it allows the national network of poison control centers to help people who are struggling with addiction by offering free, confidential and expert medical advice at all hours, every day of the year.

Their data is used to identify hot spots for opioid abuse and misuse, and with this reauthorization, will be able to continue combating the opioid epidemic and save lives."

Last Congress, Brooks discussed the role of poison control centers in combating the opioid crisis as part of the committee's video series. You can view that video at this link.

Congressmen from Oregon, Texas commend Brooks' leadership

"The nation's network of poison control centers help keep families safe by offering lifesaving assistance and helping prevent unnecessary poisoning deaths and injuries, including opioid overdoses. Not only are these centers often the first resource people seek after an opioid overdose occurs, but they also collect real time data to alert impacted communities about opioid abuse and misuse. We commend Rep. Brooks for her leadership on this bipartisan legislation, which will provide these vital centers with the tools they need in order to continue saving lives."

— Reps. Greg Walden (R-Ore.) and Michael C. Burgess, M.D. (R-Texas)

AG Hill announces start of Wells Fargo consumer redress review program

The REPORTER

On Dec. 28, 2018, Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill announced that Wells Fargo Bank N.A. will pay $57.5 million to resolve claims that the bank violated state consumer protection laws. As part of a settlement involving all 50 states and the District of Columbia, Indiana will receive $5.2 million. (Click here to view the earlier release.)

On Thursday, Hill announced that Wells Fargo has begun a consumer redress review program through which consumers who have not yet been made whole through other remediation programs already in place can seek to have their inquiry or complaint reviewed by a Wells Fargo escalation team for possible relief.

"We must continue working tirelessly to hold companies accountable for engaging in blatant misconduct that harms consumers," Hill said. "This consumer redress review program announced today is another step toward restoring people who have suffered from such misconduct."

The consumer redress review program was a key component of the December 2018 settlement to resolve claims that the bank violated state consumer protection laws by (1) opening millions of unauthorized accounts and enrolling customers into online banking services without their knowledge or consent, (2) improperly referring customers for enrollment in third-party renters and life insurance policies, (3) improperly charging auto loan customers for force-placed and unnecessary collateral protection insurance, (4) failing to ensure that customers received refunds of unearned premiums on certain optional auto finance guaranteed asset/auto protection ("GAP") products, and (5) incorrectly charging customers for mortgage rate lock extension fees.

As part of the program, Wells Fargo will maintain a website that contains information regarding consumers' eligibility for redress. Wells Fargo's website describes the issues covered by the settlement agreement and provides escalation phone numbers consumers may use to request review. In addition, Wells Fargo will provide periodic reports to the states about ongoing remediation efforts.

Wells Fargo's consumer redress review website may be accessed at: wells-fargo.com/commitment/redress.

Consumers with questions or concerns may call the following Wells Fargo escalation phone numbers:

- Unauthorized Accounts / Improper Retail Sales Practices: 1-844-931-2273
- Improper Renters and Life Insurance Referrals: 1-855-853-9638
- Force-Placed Collateral Protection Auto Insurance ("CPI"): 1-888-228-9735

Public Notices

CITY OF FISHERS, HAMILTON COUNTY, INDIANA NOTICE OF REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS ("RFP") FOR INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES

The City of Fishers, Hamilton County, Indiana ("City") hereby provides NOTICE that on April 8, 2019, following applicable procedure required by law, it plans to award a contract for investment management services pursuant to Ind. Code § 5-32 et. seq. The City's objective is to receive proposals from qualified Offerors for investment management services for the City's reserve funds. The City currently has an investment portfolio totaling $27.3 million dollars that is comprised of $19.7 million of general fund reserves and $7.6 million of utility reserves. The City's primary objectives are to achieve a superior rate of return on public funds, plan and schedule cash flow needs and minimize potential losses arising from market changes. Although generating interest revenue from investments is a goal, the City's primary concern is preserving the overall portfolio and maintaining sufficient liquidity to meet any reserve operating or capital needs. As such, the City's yield objective is to achieve a reasonable rate of return on investments rather than maximizing income generation. All investment services must be performed in accordance with the City's investment policy.

Selection Schedule

TODAY’S BIBLE READING

Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece. And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart. And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

Charles Eugene Cathcart

December 14, 1937 – February 27, 2019

Charles Eugene Cathcart, 81, Noblesville, passed away on February 27, 2019. He was born on December 14, 1937 to the late Everett and Estella (Archer) Cathcart in Indianapolis.

Charles graduated from Harry E. Wood High School in Indianapolis with the Class of 1956. Charles enjoyed hard work and that led him to a career in construction as an operating engineer. He was a crane operator and a proud member of the International Union of Operating Engineers Local 103.

On January 23, 1959, Charles married the love of his life, Yvonne (Barrick) Cathcart, and the two of them have been at each other’s sides for 60 years. When Charles retired, it didn’t take him long to find a second career. He started a mowing and snow removal business and had done that for several years. When he wasn’t mowing or moving snow, he loved to mushroom hunt, hang out with his neighbor and spend time with his family, especially his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He also loved spending time with his cats, but especially his dog Lexi.

Charles never met a stranger. After meeting Charles, he would make you feel like you’ve known each other for years. He loved kids and many of the kids knew him simply as papa. He was a member of Legacy Bible Church in Noblesville. Charles and Yvonne instilled so many valuable lessons to their two daughters and family whom will greatly miss him: His loving wife of 60 years Yvonne, their two daughters, Denise (Aaron) Olvey, Sheridan; and Lisa Cathcart, Carmel.

Charles was a proud grandfather to Mindi (Eric) Hardcorn, Edgewood, Ky.; Kaeli (William) Kimrey, Noblesville; Corey Standifer (Brooke Rice), Indianapolis; and Jacob Olvey, Westfield. Charles was also a great-grandfather to Cheyenne Haley and Elijah Hardcorn, Edgewood, Ky. He was a devoted brother to Bert (Barbara) Cathcart, Carmel; Richard (Brenda) Cathcart, Greenfield; and Harry (Lois) Cathcart of Florida. Charles was an uncle to several nieces and nephews.

Preceding him in death were his siblings, Everett Jr., Thomas, Joseph, James, Jeanette and Steven.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, March 2, 2019 at Legacy Bible Church, 2140 Greenfield Ave., Noblesville. Calling will be held 4 to 8 p.m. on Friday, March 1, 2019 at Legacy Bible Church. Dr. Keith Kunda will be officiating. Burial will follow at Carmel Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Legacy Bible Church, 2140 Greenfield Ave., Noblesville, IN 46060.

All are invited to share thoughts with the family at fisherfunerals.com. Fisher Family Funeral Services is honored to serve the Cathcart Family.

Harold Gene Morgan

February 25, 1935 – February 25, 2019

Harold Gene Morgan, 84, Arcadia, passed away February 25, 2019 at I.U. Health Tipton Hospital in Tipton.

He was born February 25, 1935 in Barber, Ark., to Lesley and Dove (Hall) Morgan and attended schools in that area.

His family said he had always been a hard worker even as a young child when he had to go to work to help support the family. His first job as an adult was working on the railroad. He later became an owner in Elastaseal, a concrete company located in Arcadia. His specialty was concrete finishing.

He greatly enjoyed interacting with his family.

He was a member of the Cicero Seventh Day Adventist Church.

He is survived by a daughter, Carla Renee’ (Harley Morgan) Blackledge, Arcadia; two sons, Harold Kent (Andrea) Morgan, Noblesville; and Kevin (Denise) Morgan, Arcadia; brothers, M.C. Morgan, Clairmore, Okla.; Austin Morgan, Noblesville; and Joepat Morgan, Little Rock, Ark.; and grandchildren, Jessica Peachey, Jeremy Jack Morgan, Olivia Morgan and Austin Morgan.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a grandson, Alexander Kennedy Morgan.

Graveside rites will be held at Cicero Cemetery at a later date.

Arrangements are entrusted to Hartley Funeral Homes Cicero Chapel, 209 W. Jackson St., Cicero, where you may send condolences at hartleyfuneralhomes.com.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hartley Funeral Homes to assist the family.

County girls basketball players earn post-season awards

With the high school girls basketball season finished, the post-season awards are coming in.

Hamilton County is well-represented on these various lists, especially the teams from Class 4A state champion Hamilton Southeastern. Three Royals players were recognized on the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association's All-State lists, which were released earlier this week.

Amaya Hamilton was named to the IBCA/Subway Senior All-State "Supreme 15" list, which recognized the best seniors across the state. Hamilton, who is headed to Duquesne University, averaged 11.7 points and 6.6 rebounds per game for the Royals.

Four county seniors were named to the Honorable Mention list: Reagan Hune (Carmel), Malea Jackson (Hamilton Southeastern), Mallory Johnson (Noblesville) and Maddie Knight (Noblesville).

Meanwhile, the IBCA/Subway Underclass All-State team features two county players on its "Supreme 15," Southeastern junior Sydney Parrish and University junior Lindsey Syrek.

Parrish led the Royals in all statistical categories this season: 21.0 points, 6.9 rebounds, 2.5 assists, 1.9 steals and 1.0 blocks per game. Parrish is coming off a sensational performance in the 4A state championship game, where she scored 30 points.

Syrek helped the Trailblazers to their first regional championship since 2009, in addition to a second straight sectional and Pioneer Conference title. Syrek averaged a double-double of 17.5 points and 11.2 rebounds per game, as well as 5.0 blocks per contest.

JUNIOR ALL-STARS NAMED

Parrish and Syrek will get a chance to play on the same team, as both were selected for the IndyStar Indiana girls Junior All-Stars for 2019.

Parrish was voted to the six-player Core Group. She will be part of an impressive Hamilton Southeastern senior Amaya Hamilton was named to the IBCA/Subway Senior All-State "Supreme 15" team earlier this week. Hamilton was a four-year varsity player for the Royals and a major part of their run to the Class 4A state championship this past weekend.

Carmel's Reagan Hune was named as Honorable Mention on the IBCA/Subway All-State list. Both she and Hamilton will also participate in the Hoosier Basketball Magazine Top 60 Girls Workout this Sunday at Marian University.

Bogdanovic takes over in fourth, leads Pacers past Minnesota

By GREG RAPPAPORT
Courtesy nba.com/pacers
With the game on the line, Indiana turned to a familiar source of offense: the hot hand of Bojan Bogdanovic.
In a tense fourth quarter against the visiting Timberwolves, Bogdanovic provided a steady hand, scoring seven straight Pacers points in crunch time to power Indiana to a 122-115 victory on Thursday night at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.
Bogdanovic, who finished with a team-high 37 points, played the role of hero for the Pacers (41-22), using his fourth-quarter showcase to overshadow a monster game from Timberwolves center Karl-Anthony Towns, who racked up 42 points and 17 rebounds.
"Karl-Anthony Towns hurt us in the first quarter," Bogdanovic explained. "We started to double him and started to play very aggressive defensively and we had a lot of easy points in the fast break."
The win snapped a brief two-game losing streak for the Pacers and opened up their three-game homestand with a gut-check win against a Timberwolves (29-33) team that is fighting to make the playoffs. Both teams were battling fatigue on the second night of a back-to-back, but it was the Pacers who had enough in the tank to make a final push, outscoring Minnesota 30-25 in the fourth quarter.
"I challenged the guys before the game," said Pacers head coach Nate McMillan. "All we need is what we have in this room, to win games. We've got to bring that energy. We've got to bring that attitude, that focus, out there."

The Pacers showed that focus when the game was knotted at 107-107 and Thaddeus Young bulleted a pass to Bogdanovic, whose backdoor cut put the Pacers ahead by two with 3:31 remaining and started his game-winning streak of offense.
On their next offensive possession, it was Bogdanovic again, knocking down a 3-pointer to extend Indiana's lead to 112-107.
The Timberwolves quickly went to work on the other end, as Jeff Teague drew a foul and knocked down one of two at the line, getting the T-Wolves within four.
But on offense, Indiana's leading scorer Bogdanovic provided the answer again, with a deft up-and-under layup to push the advantage to 114-108.
Free throws from Taj Gibson following a loose ball foul on Indiana led to the Timberwolves once again narrowing the deficit, but the Pacers were able to close out the game with ease from there, ending the night with a seven-point win.
In the game's early moments, the Pacers struggled to contain the offense of Towns, as the All-Star center racked up 23 points and seven rebounds over the first 12 minutes of action. By the end of the quarter, the visiting Timberwolves led the Pacers 35-26 as Indiana searched for an answer to slow down Towns.

TJ Leaf, who finished with a career-high 18 points, set the pace for Indiana to begin the second, scoring the first seven points of the quarter for the Pacers.
"I'm a pretty confident guy," Leaf said after the game. "I don't really try and take what a lot of people say, good bad or ugly. I know what I can do out there, so I try to play my game, whatever that looks like on each given night."
Just as Indiana cut its deficit down to six on a Doug McDermott 3-pointer, the Timberwolves started a run, breaking off an 8-2 sprint that put them ahead 49-38.
It didn't take long, however, for the Pacers to answer right back, as Indiana opened up a barrage of long range shooting, knocking down six threes in a five-minute span to regain a 61-57 lead.
A late tip-in by Bogdanovic marked the final points of the half for the Pacers as Indiana entered the locker room leading 64-60 after outscoring the T-Wolves by 13 points in the second quarter.
The Pacers continued their impressive streak of scoring to open the second half, getting 3-pointers from Bogdanovic and Wesley Matthews to pull ahead 72-62.
It was then the offense hit a snag, as Towns and the Timberwolves embarked on a 14-2 run to wrest the lead back from the Pacers. During the run, Towns continued to be a force, at one point knocking down Thad Young on his way to the basket. While protesting the no-call, Pacers head coach

Nate McMillan was called for a technical foul, putting Towns at the line to add another point to his total.
Following a Pacers timeout, Indiana began to break out of its offensive funk, getting scores from Kyle O'Quinn and back-to-back buckets from Leaf to jump back ahead.
Despite a jumper from Timberwolves guard Tyus Jones to close the third quarter, Indiana remained in front, leading 92-90 entering the fourth.
Leaf continued his strong play to start the final quarter, converting on three shots to add to his career high in points. But the Timberwolves refused to fold up shop, cutting down their deficit to just two points when Jeff Teague dropped home a floater with 9:26 left in the game.
Over the next five minutes, the teams continued to trade baskets, with Thad Young tying things up at 107 and the Timberwolves calling for timeout with 4:22 remaining, setting up the exciting finish at the Fieldhouse.
"Win by any means necessary," said Darren Collison. "Right now, our backs are against the wall. We haven't been playing well, but tonight was an opportunity for us to get back on track. (We) understand that every game from here on out is important to us and, regardless of what the score was in the fourth, we were going to come out on top."

The Junior All-Stars will play two games against the Kentucky Junior All-Stars, tentatively set for June 1 at a Kentucky site and June 3 at an Indiana site. The Junior All-Stars also will play one game against the Indiana All-Star senior girls on June 5, also at a site to be announced. All three games will be doubleheaders with the 2019 Indiana boys Junior All-Stars, who will be chosen during March.

The players listed as core group players will play in all three games. The players listed in the Red, White and Blue groups each will play in one game, the assignment for specific games to be announced.
The Indiana senior All-Stars will play the Kentucky senior All-Stars on June 7 at a site in Kentucky that has not yet been announced. The Indiana senior All-Stars will play Kentucky's seniors again on June 8 in Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis. The Junior All-Star team is determined by the 20-member Indiana Basketball Coaches Association all-state panel in conjunction with its selection of the IBCA/Subway Underclass All-State Team. The selection process allows all IBCA-member head coaches to nominate players through the IBCA all-state process. Representatives from 16 regional areas from across the state, three district representatives from the three IHSAA districts (one each from District 1, District 2 and District 3) and the committee chair then meet to review the nominations, vote and finalize the selections.
The IBCA/Subway girls basketball Senior All-State and Underclass All-State teams for 2019 will be released later this week.
