Humane Society breaks ground on new state-of-the-art facility

The REPORTER

The Humane Society for Hamilton County (HSHC) launched its Building a Brighter Future for Hamilton County & Hoosier Animals Capital Campaign in November 2018.

On Wednesday, the organization, along with local dignitaries, broke ground on the state-of-the-art 40,000 square-foot facility in Fishers. The new facility will allow the organization to save more lives, expand community outreach programs and provide a happier and healthier life for the animals of Hamilton County.

In attendance were Hamilton County public officials, HSHC staff, board members, lead volunteers, corporate sponsors, and key supporters and donors who have contributed to the capital campaign.

Remarks were made by Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness, Hamilton County Commissioner Mark Heibrandt, a Meyer Najem representative, HSHC Board Chair Kim Ebert, HSHC President and CEO Rebecca Stevens, Hamilton County Council President Rick McKinney, Fishers Council President Cecilia Coble, and Steve Cage, the donor for whom the new facility will be named.

"Building this brighter future for the animals has been a decade-long, labor of love," said Stevens. "Watching it all unfold is surreal, and literally, a dream come true."

The Humane Society for

Hamilton County is on track to move into the world class facility designed by Curran Architecture and built by Meyer Najem in the Spring of 2021. HSHC is currently at $12.5 million in cash and pledges toward the $14 million campaign goal to cover the cost of construction and establish an operating endowment.

Janie Ulmer named new HSE High School principal

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

Janie Ulmer, currently Administrator at Hamilton Southeastern-Fishers Academy, has been named the new principal of Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) High School. The HSE school board approved the appointment Wednesday night.

The Hamilton Southeastern-Fishers Academy is a program Ulmer helped launch in 2017. The academy has since served more than 300 students and maintained a graduation rate of 90 percent. Before coming to HSE Schools, Ulmer was the Director of Virtual Learning for La Porte Community Schools for students in grades 6-12.

"We thank all the individuals who were candidates for this position; they came with a variety of strengths," said HSE Schools Superintendent Allen Bourff. "Ultimately, we selected Ms. Ulmer based on her ability to bring people around challenges and build programs to address student needs."

Ulmer will officially begin her duties as principal next month.

Hamilton County schools announce return plans

The REPORTER

Hamilton County schools thank local communities for their support as the work continues through the challenges of COVID-19. All schools will welcome students back for a new school year beginning later this summer, and the various districts have come together to share important information regarding the return to school.

Schools participating in this coordinated effort include Carmel Clay Schools, Hamilton Heights School Corporation, Hamilton Southeastern Schools, Noblesville Schools, Options Charter Schools, Sheridan Community Schools, St. Theodore Guerin High School and Westfield Washington Schools.

The safety of students, staff and families is top priority, and the districts say these decisions are based on guidance from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), Indiana State Department of Health (ISDH), Indiana Department of Education (IDOE), Fishers Health Department and the Hamilton County Health Department.

All Hamilton County schools are following previously scheduled calendars and will start on the regularly scheduled start dates.

Schools will also:

- Provide flexible options to meet individual student needs, including both online and face-to-face learning.
- Implement daily screening/self-screening procedures for COVID-19 symptoms.
- Ask students and staff to wear masks, at times.
- Maximize facility space with respect to social distancing, including lunch tables spaced out to the greatest extent possible.
- Close water fountains and maintain water bottle fill stations.
- Require students and staff to stay home when ill and create separate spaces in school health clinics to address COVID-19 symptoms.
- Transport students with precautionary safety measures in place.
- Enhance student hygiene practices and building cleaning procedures.
- Restrict visitors.
- Train staff and students on COVID-19 safety measures.

Each school district will share additional, specific details with families in the coming weeks.

Noblesville Mayor announces 'Frontline Heroes' grand marshals for July 4th parade

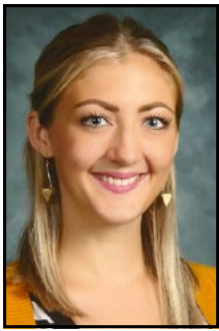

The REPORTER

Noblesville Mayor Chris Jensen announced Thursday the four grand marshals of this year's Fourth of July Stars & Stripes Forever Parade sponsored by Gaylor Electric. The theme "Frontline Heroes" includes a person representing Noblesville Schools, Riverview Health and the city's police and fire departments to honor and thank all of the frontline workers in the city.

"Despite the hardships and health risks, essential frontline workers continued to do their jobs during the COVID-19 pandemic. I want to recognize these hardworking heroes that cared for those most vulnerable and kept our city safe," said Jensen. "Independence Day is a time we can celebrate the freedoms, history and perseverance of our nation. It also serves as a great time to thank those in our community who continue to make it strong."

The four 2020 parade grand marshals include:

Noblesville Schools
Jill Maynard
Maynard, a second to fifth grade special education resource teacher at Noble Crossing Elementary, was named the 2020 Noblesville Schools Teacher of the Year at the overall district level and the elementary level. Her primary role is supporting students' social and emotional development while helping them achieve academic success. She recently completed her seventh year of teaching at Noble Crossing. Prior to becoming a resource teacher Maynard taught third and fourth grade.

Riverview Health
Joyce Wood

Joyce Wood began her career as a staff nurse at Riverview Health in 1990, and currently serves as the chief nursing officer and vice president of Organizational Improvement. Wood is responsible for overseeing both strategic and operational initiatives that impact nursing practice to ensure patients receive safe, compassionate, high-quality care. She also provides leadership on risk management and regulatory compliance.

Wood

Fire Department
Division Chief
James Macky

Macky is a 20-year veteran of the Noblesville Fire Department, who supervises the 91 EMT's and 37 paramedics that work for the NFD. He is assisted by an EMS captain and three community resource paramedics. Macky also has provided invaluable leadership in helping design and launch NobleAct, a community paramedicine program focused on mental health and substance abuse response.

Police Department
Officer Trevor Schmidt
Schmidt began working for the NPD in June 2016 and was recently named the 2019 Officer of the Year for his positive attitude, willingness to go above and beyond the normal responsibilities of the job, and how well he works under pressure. In 2019, patrolman Schmidt became a drug recognition expert, field training officer and an evidence technician. He also was instrumental in tracking and apprehending the suspect who allegedly shot and killed Fishers K-9 Harlej last year.

Macky

Those interested in participating in the 2020 Noblesville July 4th Parade have until Monday, June 29 to submit entry forms, which are available online at noblesvillefireworksfestival.com. Registration is $25. The City of Noblesville is waiving the entry fee to all non-profits organizations that want to participate. For more information about the parade, contact Kevin Sears at ksears@noblesville.in.us or call (317) 776- 6324.

The Stars & Stripes Forever Parade kicks off the city's holiday festivities. The fireworks festival sponsored by IDI Composites follows from 6 to 10 p.m. at Forest Park. At approximately 10 p.m., the annual fireworks display will begin.

Round Room Holdings moving from Carmel to Fishers

The REPORTER
Round Room Holdings, Inc., the privately held company owning several businesses in the wireless retail space and ancillary markets, announced this week it is relocating its Carmel corporate headquarters to Fishers.

The company acquired the former Roche campus building at the corner of Interstate 69 and 106th Street, and will renovate the two-story, 190,000-square-foot property before moving in by the first quarter of 2021. Round Room will occupy 120,000 square feet of the owner-occupied property with plans to lease the remainder of the development to tenants. Advisors to the transaction included KSM Location Advisors, Cushman & Wakefield, Weybright Management, Inc. and more.

Round Room's flagship company TCC, the nation's largest Verizon Authorized Retailer operates nearly 900 Verizon locations in 39 states, including 79 in Indiana. The move enables Round Room to consolidate more than 200 employees from its portfolio of companies, including TCC, TCC Gives, Round Room Gives, Redux and Culture of Good, under one roof. The company's Connecticut-based office, and home of Wireless Zone, the nation's only Verizon Authorized Retailer operating as a franchise, will remain open.

"Moving our headquarters to Fishers enables us to attract and retain top talent from across the Hoosier state, accommodate future growth plans for Round Room and its subsidiaries, and enhance our corporate culture," said Round Room CEO Scott Moorehead. "As a family-owned business that has grown up in Indiana, we're excited to continue to invest in local resources to support our home state. The City of Fishers has been a great partner in our decision to relocate, and we're excited to be a part of such a vibrant and entrepreneurial-minded business environment."

Round Room's new headquarters will include a state-of-the-art training center for up to 450 employees in its 40,000 square-foot common area as well as a full cafe, fitness center, social amenities and more to enhance the way companies are using office space now. Round Room says it will make continued investments to advance the property, working with local contractors and developers whenever possible.

"Scott and his team at Round Room have grown this company from the ground up in a true display of entrepreneurial spirit," said Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness. "Fishers is happy to be part of the next chapter for Round Room's future growth and we welcome them to the Fishers community as part of the vibrant I-69 business corridor."

Round Room is a Culture of Good Inc. company that makes ongoing investments in the local communities where it operates. TCC Gives, a private foundation of TCC operated under Round Room Gives, provides grants to 501(c)(3) organizations across the nation and recently surpassed $2 million in donations to non-profits.

Amid the COVID-19 pandemic, TCC Gives donated $160,000 to 80 non-profits serving those most affected by the pandemic. TCC Gives is continuing to focus on emergent situations, dedicating $150,000 to non-profits focusing on social justice across the nation this quarter.

Advocating for Victims of Crime and Abuse

www.prevailinc.com

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

– Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Art supplies (for children to journal and express their emotions)
- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

Drop off items at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, 14701 Tom Wood Way.

What's new for 2020?

The Atlas Cross Sport.

All Atlas Cross Sport models come with a touchscreen infotainment display with both Apple CarPlay and Android Auto integration. Navigation is optional, as is a reconfigurable digital gauge display and SiriusXM satellite radio. The Volkswagen Car-Net connectivity app allows for remote starting and analytics while a 4G LTE Wi-Fi hotspot allows occupants to remain connected to the internet with their smart devices while on the go.

- Standard autonomous emergency braking with forward-collision warning
- Standard blind-spot monitoring with rear cross-traffic alert
- Available adaptive cruise control with semi-autonomous driving mode

Fun to drive. Easy to cover.

Tools for dealing with hot flashes

If you're in the sandwich generation like me, there's a strong chance you're a woman either approaching menopause or in the midst of it. As I've mentioned in this column before, the average caregiver is a 49-year-old woman who works outside the home and provides up to 20 hours per week of unpaid care to her mother.

With the average age of menopause in the United States being 51, becoming knowledgeable about how to handle this challenging stage of life is crucial so you can feel your best to take care of both your family and your elderly relative(s). However, menopause is something that people just don't talk about. I'd like to help change that.

When the black cohosh I'd been taking since last summer stopped helping my hot flashes in February, I began to search for better solutions. My doctor recommended a low-dose antidepressant, which backfired big-time as I shared in a previous column. So, I've been on a quest to find relief through other, natural avenues ever since.

The first thing I learned is the importance of wearing layers. When a hot flash strikes, you need to be able to throw off that coat, jacket, cardigan, etc. and get down to a tank top pronto! I now probably own at least a dozen and can no longer sleep in regular pajamas. I kept wearing a tank top to bed even in the winter.

COLUMNIST
AMY SHANKLAND

The next thing I invested in is a portable fan. Years ago, I laughed at these little suckers thinking how silly they looked. Not any more. I found a cute one at Aldi for $5 a few weeks ago that runs on two AA batteries. It has been AWESOME!

When I'm sitting outside on a nice summer evening or in our recliner reading just before bedtime, I keep this fan nearby. Hot flashes typically like to strike in the evenings for most of us in menopause. As soon as the redness and warmth begin to creep up my chest and neck, I turn on my trusty fan to bring some relief.

Speaking of fans, always keep one running near your bed at night. This has saved me countless times and helped with the annoying night sweats.

You may also want to work on ways to handle anxiety if you haven't done so already. Many times hot flashes and anxiety go hand in hand. When I feel the anxiety starting, I rely on the "color" technique to quickly soothe myself. I simply look around the room and find items that are all the same color to take my mind off of the situation. It's a great distraction technique.

I'm still experimenting with natural remedies to help reduce hot flashes as well.

One program I've started has helped with my energy and mental clarity but not so much with hot flashes. I'll continue to experiment (safely!) and keep you posted. Getting crazy menopause symptoms under control is a key to success for many of us in the sandwich generation.

Surviving COVID could lead to post-intensive care syndrome

The REPORTER

When a patient recovers from COVID-19, they and their families may feel like celebrating, but what many people don't realize is that the longer a patient is in ICU, the greater the chance they have of suffering from what is known as post-intensive care syndrome.

It's not just patients who could have cognitive and mental health issues, it also can affect their caregivers.

Dr. Sophia Wang, assistant professor of clinical psychiatry at Indiana University School of Medicine, will discuss the cognitive, psychological and physical impairments that those in the intensive care begin treated for COVID-19 could experience. Her talk is part of the Envision Lecture Series hosted by CICOA Aging & In-Home Solutions.

The webinar is open to the public and will be from 9 to 10 a.m. on Tuesday, June 30. Click here to register.

CICOA is hosting the webinar to help caregivers, health leaders and the community better understand the long-term cognitive and mental health effects COVID-19 can have on patients and their caregivers.

Dr. Wang, who also is Outreach and Recruitment Core Leader at the Indiana Alzheimer's Disease Research Center, will also discuss the impact caregivers can face both when the patient is in the hospital and after they return home and how younger people are impacted differently than older patients.

CICOA launched the Envision Lecture Series to bring to the forefront issues affecting seniors and people with disabilities.

About CICOA

CICOA Aging & In-Home Solutions is a non-profit organization and the designated Aging and Disability Resource Center serving Central Indiana. CICOA provides a wide range of services for older adults, people with disabilities and family caregivers, including care management, home health care, home-delivered and neighborhood meals, transportation, home accessibility modifications, respite care and caregiver assistance. Rosalyn Ann Stuckey April 21, 1936 – June 24, 2020

Rosalyn Ann Stuckey, 84, Sheridan, passed away Wednesday morning, June 24, 2020 at Riverview Health in Noblesville. Born April 21, 1936 in Boone County, she was the daughter of the late Frederick G. and Edna Lois (Bannon) Shoemaker. She was a graduate of both Carmel High School and Ball State University. Growing up, Rosalyn was involved 4-H. Her dedication to the activity earned her the privilege of being recognized as a 10-year member, an accomplishment that she was very proud of.

On January 8, 1961, Rosalyn married the love of her life, Francis "Gene" Stuckey, and set off on a lifelong journey side by side with her best friend. For many decades, Rosalyn and Gene carefully tended to the orchards, lovingly cared for the vegetable plots and watched over the store at Stuckey's Farm Market, located near Sheridan on the Hamilton-Boone County line. It was hard work, but also a labor of love. Together they offered a much-needed and appreciated service to the community by providing fresh produce year after year. They also helped multiple generations create wonderful memories of visiting the farm and sharing adventures with their families.

Rosalyn's strength of faith and compassion for other people led her into mission work. She, along with Gene, loved to travel and to help where they were needed, completing many mission trips throughout the 80s and 90s. She also served on the Board of Directors for Christian Service International (CSI) for many years.

Rosalyn attended Heartland Church.

Family was a very important part of Rosalyn's life; nearly every activity was a family affair. Whether it was working at the farm, going on mission trips, or just traveling to see the kids and grandkids, family was always the driving force.

Rosalyn is survived by her two sons, Steven E. Stuckey (Diana), Sheridan, and Kent A. Stuckey (Laura), Bucyrus, Ohio; six grandchildren, Ben Stuckey (Meredith), Zach Stuckey (Kelsey) and Ethan Stuckey (Hannah), all of Bucyrus, Ohio, Alicia Stuckey, Westfield, Kristie Stuckey, Fairfax, Iowa, and Heather Correll (Travis), Kokomo; one great-grandson, Hayden Correll; three great-granddaughters, Waylynn Stuckey, Mayla Stuckey and Ruby Stuckey; her sister-in-law, Eleanor Moffitt, Carmel; four nieces and one nephew.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, Dwight M. Shoemaker; sister-in-law, Sandra Shoemaker; and by her loving husband and partner through life, Gene Stuckey, on March 27, 2018.

Private family services will be held at the funeral home on Monday afternoon, June 29, 2020.

Following the funeral, Rosalyn will be laid to rest at Mts. Runn Cemetery in rural Boone County. Friends and family are invited to gather at the graveside for the committal service.

Pastor Bill Salsbery will be officiating.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial contributions be presented to either Heartland Ministries Church, 3611 State Road 19, Sharpsville, IN 46068, or to Christian Services International (CSI), 840 Daniel Drive, Kokomo, IN 46901.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan.

Kedrick E. Fisher

March 14, 1927 – June 25, 2020

Kedrick E. Fisher, 93, Noblesville, passed away on Thursday, June 25, 2020 at his home in Noblesville. He was born on March 14, 1927 to Rev. G. Lavon and Mary (Myers) Fisher in Eaton, Ind.

Kedrick graduated from Noblesville High School in 1945. While attending high school he lettered three years in football, basketball and track. He was also a member of the 1943 undefeated football team at Noblesville High School and in 2012, he was chosen as a Noblesville High School Alumni of the year. Kedrick was a World War II Veteran. He received his bachelor's degree from Butler University where he played two years of football for the Bulldogs and then received a master's degree from Indiana University.

Kedrick began his teaching career at the Boys School in Plainfield. From there he taught at Castleton Grade School, was an elementary principal at Westfield, Moral Township, and Triton Central. Kedrick was the first Superintendent in Franklin Township in Marion County. He finished his career as Superintendent of South Newton School Corporation in Kentland and retired after 21 years of service in 1987. After retiring, Kedrick entered the insurance business for many years.

Kedrick was very active in whatever church he belonged to, including starting three new churches and was an elder in five different churches. He was a member of the First Christian Church in Noblesville. Kedrick also was a member of the Noblesville Masonic Lodge, the Indianapolis Scottish Rite, and the Shrine Club. He served as President of the Kentland Rotary Club and was elected President of the Noblesville Golden K Kiwanis Club for three terms.

Kedrick married Joann McCord in 1951 in Indianapolis, and they were happily married for 69 years.

He is survived by his daughters, Janis (Bob) Wyatt and Holly Fisher; son, Kent Fisher; grandchildren, Kyle (Lindsey), Konnor (Emily), Kolby and Kolin Fisher, and Breanne (Brandon Galic) Collins.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Joann Fisher, in 2019; and sister, Dana Moore.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, June 30, 2020 at Randall & Roberts Funeral Center, 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville, with Rev. Cheryl Russell and Rev. Dee Wells officiating. Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. on Monday June 29, 2020 at the funeral home with Masonic Rites at 7:30 p.m. Entombment with Military Rites will be at Hamilton Memorial Park Cemetery in Westfield.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to First Christian Church of Noblesville, 16377 Herriman Blvd., Noblesville, IN 46060.

January 22, 1950 – June 24, 2020

John Joseph DiPiro Jr., 70, Noblesville, formerly of Elkhart, died peacefully on June 24, 2020 at home after a long battle with cancer. He was born on January 22, 1950 to John and Jannette (Lefevre) DiPiro in New Bedford, Mass.

John was a well-loved husband, dad, papa, friend and coach. He proudly served in the United States Marines. He was always ready to talk movies with his customers at Video Visions, the video store he owned and operated for 30 years. John was a Notre Dame Hockey season ticket holder and he made countless road trips to watch them play around the country with his family and friends. He loved watching and talking sports especially the Philadelphia Flyers, Atlanta Braves, or New England Patriots. John was a 1968 graduate of Marian High School and was a parishioner at Sacred Heart in Cicero after being a member of St. Thomas the Apostle in Elkhart for many years. He was a kind and loving man that will be greatly missed by those who were lucky enough to know him.

John leaves behind his bride of 42 years, Colleen Louise (Santerre) DiPiro; five wonderful children, Geoff (Kellie) DiPiro, Laura (Marty) Reverman, Chris (Courtney) DiPiro, Brian DiPiro and Rebecca DiPiro; 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Barbara DiPiro.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday, June 27, 2020 at Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church, 410 S. Pearl St., Cicero. Visitation will be held from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 27, 2020 at Randall & Roberts Funeral Center, 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville. A private family burial will be held at a later date at Hamilton Memorial Park.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.
Acts 15:7 (KJV)

H. Alan Karrfalt

October 10, 1942 – April 26, 2020

H. Alan Karrfalt, 77, Noblesville, passed away on Sunday, April 26, 2020 at Community Hospital North in Indianapolis. He was born on October 10, 1942 to the late Henry and Lilly (Lundstorm) Karrfalt in Erie, Pa.

Alan graduated from Tri-State College in 1968 with a degree in mechanical engineering. He retired from Firestone Building Products as Director of Engineering. Alan was a member of the Noblesville Elks and was an avid gearhead. He loved to fish and enjoyed going to Canada fishing with his three sons. A great family man, Alan loved spending time with his grandchildren and attending their sporting events.

He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Carolyn J. Karrfalt, the love of his life; sons, Eric Alan (Joyce) Karrfalt, John Alan (Alison) Karrfalt and David Alan Karrfalt; and three grandchildren, Madison Karrfalt, Alan Karrfalt and Brian Karrfalt.

Services will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday, June 27, 2020 at Randall & Roberts Funeral Home, 1150 Logan St., Noblesville, with visitation from 11 a.m. to the time of service at the funeral home. Pastor Joe Freeman will officiate. Burial will be at Crownland Cemetery in Noblesville.

Memorial contributions may be made to Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville, 1700 Conner St., Noblesville, IN 46060; or Noblesville Elks Lodge 576 Scholarship Fund, P.O. Box 306, Noblesville, IN 46061-0306.

Veteran coach returns to Hamilton County . . .

Tod Windlan hired as Sheridan boys basketball head coach

By RICHIE HALL

A familiar coach is back in Hamilton County, one with a remarkable record of success.

And he's ready to bring some of that success to Larry Hobbs Hall.

Tod Windlan was hired as the new boys basketball head coach at Sheridan High School on Thursday. After the afternoon school board meeting, Windlan was introduced at a presentation at the SHS cafeteria, where he addressed the crowd, then met the returning basketball players and their families, one by one.

"I just think it's a great opportunity for me," said Windlan. "I've spent 16 years in girls basketball, coaching the biggest games you could coach, the Hall of Fame, the state final games, sectional, regional, semi-states. I think this is a time in my career where it's time for the move to go to boys. I had a son that played, successful player, won a state championship at Carmel."

Windlan's son Karsten was part of the Greyhounds' 2019 Class 4A state championship team.

"I'm just blessed to be here and have the opportunity to do it and I look forward to working with the feeder program and getting it done," said Tod Windlan.

Six of Windlan's 16 years in girls basketball were spent in Hamilton County. First, Windlan coached the Hamilton Heights girls team for two seasons. In 2011-12, he guided the Huskies to a sectional championship and a 21-5 record. Then in 2012-13, Heights was the Class 3A state runner-up, finishing with a 23-3 record.

After one season at Warren Central, Windlan returned to coach the Carmel girls for four seasons, 2014-18. During that time, the Greyhounds were 87-20, won three sectional championships, the 2017 Hall of Fame Classic, and had the 2018 Miss Basketball in Amy Dilk, who is now a star for the University of Michigan.

"We wanted somebody that was local," said Sheridan athletic director Beth DeVinney. "We wanted somebody that was committed to building a program, building a feeder program. Obviously, Tod's had great success everywhere he's been. We want to win now. We want somebody to come in and infuse passion and some life into our boys basketball program, and that's exactly what he's going to do."

Windlan noted that the whole hiring process happened rather quickly.

"Once the process started, it was really swift," said Windlan. "It was a late-night call, got in here the next morning. By that afternoon I was chosen. It was a very quick, swift process, but one that I am really looking forward to. Sheridan's a sleeping giant in all sports, because I think Hamilton County's growing this way. I think the school's going to grow by enrollment. I think you're going to see kids coming in here."

The players that come out for Windlan's team will need to be prepared to run. Windlan likes to play a fast tempo

Veteran coach Tod Windlan has been hired as the boys basketball head coach for Sheridan High School. Windlan was previously the girls basketball coach at Hamilton Heights and Carmel, where he led both teams to successful seasons and multiple championships.

with everyone running up and down the floor. Look for the scoreboard operator to be busy as well: In Windlan's 2017-18 season at Carmel, the Greyhounds averaged 69.2 points per game.

"That's just how I'm programmed," said Windlan. "We may have to tweak some things based on what the kids can and can't do. They're going to be in shape, they're going to play hard and we're going to be a fun team to watch."

"They're not used to playing that way based on some of the game film I've watched," said Windlan. "It's just all about changing the culture here and getting back to trying to create a program like the football team. It's successful and the kids want to come and play and be a part of it. That's what we want here in basketball as well."

Being a smaller school, Sheridan will have several multi-sport student-athletes on their teams, something that Windlan will encourage his players to continue.

"I think that's wonderful, because anytime you get multi-sport kids playing, when they're out of season, they're still competing," said Windlan. "And I don't think there's any substitute for competing. Too many kids play one sport. They don't play the other sports, so they're really not competing when they're doing workouts and stuff like that. Competition breeds success. I want my kids playing."

With activities at Indiana schools shutdown for a couple more weeks, the Sheridan players and their new coach won't be able to get into the gym until July 6. Windlan said the first order of business is to get the middle school players (grades 6-8) in the gym first, then the high school athletes will bring their open gym. During that time, Windlan plans to "work on skill breakdown, fundamentals of the game, and then start teaching them our offensive and defensive scheme."

"When the fall rolls around and we're ready to start practicing for real, then they'll have a good knowledge of what we're going to be about," said Windlan.

INDYCAR to welcome fans for July 9-12 race weekend at Road America

The NTT INDYCAR SERIES will welcome fans back to the track for the first time in 2020 on July 9-12 at Road America in Plymouth, Wis. for the REV Group Grand Prix presented by American Medical Response doubleheader race weekend.

Under the guidance of public health officials, medical experts and local, state and federal authorities, INDYCAR and Road America will observe safe social distancing practices and provide enhanced hygiene and safety precautions for all fans attending the event.

All guests will be screened in their vehicles with contactless temperature checks before entering the parking areas, and only essential racing personnel will have access to the INDYCAR paddock. A PPE kit that includes a face mask as well as hand sanitizer will be provided to each guest upon arrival to the track.

Fans are encouraged to practice safe social distancing and wear a cloth face-covering where social distancing is difficult to maintain. Enhanced cleaning and sanitizing procedures will also be implemented throughout the facility during the weekend. Guests are encouraged to print their tickets at home to have a contactless experience at the gates and easier entry. Additional protocols and guidelines for spectators can be found at www.roadamerica.com/safety.

The race weekend will feature two full points races for the NTT INDYCAR SERIES on back-to-back days - July 11 and 12 - as part of the REV Group Grand Prix presented by AMR. The weekend schedule will also be bolstered by two junior development series of the Road to Indy Presented by Cooper Tires, the Indy Pro 2000, and USF2000, of which many drivers of the NTT INDYCAR SERIES are graduates.

Fans have three quick, convenient methods to buy tickets:

Online: Visit www.roadamerica.com. Tickets are available 24 hours a day, seven days per week. Print your tickets to save time and enjoy a contactless experience at the gates.

Phone: Call 800-365-RACE or 920-892-4576 between 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Central Time (9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Eastern Time) Monday through Friday.

In-Person: Visit the Road America Ticket Office at the Road America Administration Building off of State Highway 67 (Gate 6) between 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Central Time (9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Eastern Time) Monday through Friday.

Gates open at 7 a.m. Central Time and races run rain or shine. For more information, call 800-365-RACE (7223) or visit www.roadamerica.com

Anyone 16 years old and under is always FREE with a paying adult at the gate.

All active-duty first responders will receive FREE entry to the REV Group Grand Prix presented by American Medical Response weekend. First responders, including law enforcement, fire, paramedics, and emergency medical technicians, will be admitted free of charge by showing valid identification indicating active service in the form of a department-issued ID, badge, copies of certifications or an active roster copy from their department on department letterhead. FREE admission must be redeemed at the gate and is only valid during the event weekend.
