Heights names Athletic Hall of Fame Class of 2021

Emotional stingers

The REPORTER

The Hamilton Heights Athletic Hall of Fame Committee has announced its Class of 2021, which includes one team and four athletes. This year's inductees include Ron Ackles ('62), Alicia Bundy ('96), Dennis Lockhart ('95), Rick McCoskey ('71), and the Hamilton Heights 2012 football team.

"On behalf of the Hamilton Heights Athletic Hall of Fame Selection Committee, I want to offer our congratulations to the 2021 Hall of Fame Class," said Mitch Street, Hamilton Heights High School Hall of Fame Committee Chairman and Dean of Students. "This was a tough process as we felt there were many deserving nominees. Ultimately, we are happy with this class and feel this is very balanced highlighting a wealth of accomplishments both during their high school career and after their graduation. We are excited to recognize these four individual athletes and outstanding football in September."

The Athletic Hall of Fame is designed to recognize and honor Hamilton Heights High School athletes, coaches, teams, and athletic program contributors for their achievements and/or contributions to the Hamilton Heights High School athletic program.

"The Athletic Hall of Fame program captures and shares the history and unique experiences of our former athletes, coaches, teams, and athletic contributors to create a legacy for all who have been and will be touched by the Hamilton Heights athletics program," Street added.

This year's Hall of Fame Selection Committee includes Dr. Derek Arrowood, Chad Balenger, Tony Cook, Arnett Cooper, Guy Griffey, Greg Knapp, Jarrod Mason, Ruth McKinney, Maria Mitchell, Kurt Ogden, Michael Thomas, Bill Trachtman, and Mitch Street.

Ron Ackles

Ron Ackles is a 1962 graduate from Jackson Central High School. He played three sports (football, basketball, and baseball) throughout his high school career.

Ackles was best known for his basketball accomplishments, but many who watched Ron described him as one of the best all-around athletes they ever saw.

Ackles was an All-Hamilton County basketball player in 1960, 1961, and 1962. He scored 1,052 career points and held all of Jackson Central's scoring records upon his graduation. He was inducted into the Hamilton County Basketball Hall of Fame in 2015.

Ackles joined the United States Marine Corps upon graduation.

Oh, those words stung. Now Buttercup, watcha gonna do?

What do we do when someone says something to us that hurts our feelings?

Chances are the hurt was not intentional. But ... it still hurts.

Emotional stingers hit the heart. They consume our thoughts for a bit, sometimes a much longer bit. I've been known to bury them and then feel them rise up from their burial place.

They can be prefaced or followed by a quick, "I'm sorry."

Chances are the person who hurt us feels some guilt and may tell us they do. We often respond "it's okay" when it really isn't.

We struggle with making it out to be not a big deal. We question why they said it. We even question our value to the person who said it. And of course, there is the "how would they feel if it were said to them?"

We don't want to drive an emotional wedge between us. Lord help us not to carry a grudge either.

Emotional muck and yuck is the worst. We wrestle with our thoughts and feelings.

Words cannot be unspoken. They can be forgiven.

Aspire receives $4M mental health grant

The REPORTER

Aspire Indiana Health has been awarded a $4 million federal grant to support expanded mental health and substance use treatment services.

The grant from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) will enable Aspire to adopt the innovative Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinic (CCBHC) model for care delivery. With this new funding, Aspire now has the chance to expand services to serve as a "one-stop shop" for mental health, substance use treatment and other health care services in the communities it serves.

Aspire is credentialed by the state of Indiana as a designated Community Mental Health Center (CMHC) in Boone, Hamilton, Madison and Marion counties.

The CCBHC model ensures access to 24/7/365 crisis care, care coordination with hospitals, law enforcement and schools and access to high-quality services, including medication-assisted treatment (MAT) to help stop the overdose crisis, among other capabilities. The grant

Carmel establishes Sidewalk Repair Grant program for residential property owners needing sidewalk repair

The REPORTER

The City of Carmel has established a new Sidewalk Repair Grant program to help keep residential sidewalks across the city in good shape and safe for walkers, bicyclists and anyone using sidewalks on a regular basis. This program is supported and funded by a $50,000 non-reverting fund established by the Carmel City Council in 2020.

The Sidewalk Grant program will be administered by the Department of Community Services in a partnership with the Carmel Street Department and Carmel City Engineer, who administer the city's annual sidewalk maintenance program. The fund's primary purpose is to help facilitate the upkeep and repair of sidewalks in residential neighborhoods by assisting homeowners with their responsibility of maintaining the public sidewalks adjacent to their property.

"The City Council and I have prioritized transportation investments, including development of our active transportation network, to improve our city and benefit residents and businesses," said Mayor Jim Brainard. "This grant program is another way for us to partner with Carmel homeowners to assist with keeping our residential infrastructure in top shape. We work hard to support many different forms of transportation, including bicycling, walking, running or simply pushing a stroller. It is important to maintain our sidewalks so they are safe for all. Actions cannot be undone. They can be forgiven.

Offenses cannot be unoffended. They can be forgiven.

Hurt cannot be forgotten. It can be forgiven.

Yes, there is a lot of forgiveness there.

It's a decision we need to make for our mental health as well as the health of the relationship.

While we think we may have thickened our skin over the years, the words can still break through the wrinkled skin of even a veteran survivor of hurtful words.

A discussion may eventually be needed. I hate confrontation. I'd rather just suck it up.

Most likely we just have to move on and convince ourselves that the person feels bad about what they said, even if they never apologize. We hope they feel really bad. Just telling the truth.

Grace and mercy are a big deal in relationships. Sometimes they are sprinkled. Sometimes they are slathered.

Life is too short to live in a state of constant hurt.

So, here's the other thing. If a person is constantly throwing out emotional stingers our way there may have to be boundaries set. Sometimes those boundaries involve a communication distancing.

Just FYI – no one has thrown emotional stingers towards this buttercup in quite a while. But let's just say, I do know how to suck it up and slather on the grace and mercy.

period is for two years.

“This grant award is a huge win for the communities served by Aspire Indiana Health,” said Aspire President and CEO Barbara Scott. “We will use these federal dollars to upgrade our capacity to respond to the booming need for mental health, addiction treatment and support services, particularly in our underserved communities.”

In total, SAMHSA awarded more than $250 million to CCHBCs to increase access to community mental health and substance use disorder treatments. Last year Congress expanded the original eight-state Medicaid demonstration program to include additional states, including Indiana.

According to the National Council for Mental Wellbeing, “CCBHCs have dramatically increased access to mental health and substance use disorder treatment, expanded states’ capacity to address the overdose crisis and established innovative partnerships with law enforcement, schools and hospitals to improve care, reduce recidivism and prevent hospital readmissions.”

sidewalks and driveways, some of which are 30 or 40 years old.

Carmel City Code makes it the responsibility of homeowners to handle the maintenance of sidewalks and driveway portions in the public right-of-way, including repair of cracking or settling that makes them difficult and in some places unsafe to use. The city has taken on the responsibility of managing multi-purpose paths and sidewalks along arterial streets, and the city also takes care of sidewalk repairs when city-planted street trees or manholes are the cause of any needed repairs.

However, when it is simply age-related deterioration, normal wear-and-tear, or damage from private contractor activity, that sidewalk maintenance is the homeowners’ responsibility to make repairs that meet city standards.

The new Sidewalk Repair Grant fund will assist residents who own and occupy their homes with the expense of repair/replacement of sidewalks and for removal of trees located on their private property that are affecting sidewalks by reimbursing up to 50 percent of the project cost, up to $3,000. The cost of sidewalk grinding, where heaving or slumping of sidewalks can be eliminated through mechanical grinding, is also a cost that can be reimbursed through the grant.

The city has established a website with an online application for the Sidewalk Repair Grant, which includes an explanation for how to apply and the overall grant process. Property owners may also choose to contact David Littlejohn (dlittlejohn@carmel.in.gov) who is the point person to administer the applications and process.

Key requirements

Property owners must own and occupy their homes and if they seek a grant, they must solicit three competitive quotes for the project and those quotes must be included with the grant application package. It should also be pointed out that applicants should not start work on their project before they have their reimbursement approved by the Department of Community Services.

Applications will be evaluated on a first-come first-serve basis. Applications will be reviewed and inspections will be done as part of the approval process.

Actors Theatre of Indiana's education offerings are back

The REPORTER

Actors Theatre of Indiana (ATI) is expanding its education offerings.

The returning Theatre Workshop and a new Master Class Series are aimed at helping those interested in the performing arts to learn about what goes into effective presentations, how to give great performances, how to develop skills to audition, and much more.

Theatre Workshop

ATI will first host a three-week Theatre Workshop with Don Farrell and Terry Woods. This workshop of three classes over three weeks is designed to hone theatrical skills and performance in all the major aspects of auditioning for the theatre, thus creating an effective presentation: Monologues, cold readings, and "in the room" demeanor – whether for the in-person auditions that are starting back up, or for Zoom or video auditions.

The emphasis is on practical skill-building, resume formatting, audition book building, making the most of your rehearsal time, and overcoming psychological and emotional barriers to give your best performance. To give each student quality attention, the teachers will limit this class to only 10 students.

These classes will take place on July 19, July 26 and Aug. 2 at The Center for the Performing Arts, room 141/142, 4 Carter Green, Carmel. Classes will be held from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. each day. Tuition is $300 for three sessions for students in grades 9 and up (price will go up to $350 after July 18).

Don Farrell is a co-founder of Actors Theatre of Indiana and serves as Artistic Director of the professional theatre company. For ATI, he has directed and produced productions of its more than 16-year history, including the Palladium debuts of two-time Tony Award-winning Sutton Foster (An Evening with Sutton Foster) and two-time Tony Award-winning Broadway legend Chita Rivera (CHITA: A Legendary Celebration) both to critical acclaim. A member of the Actors' Equity Association since 1992, he is a veteran of the concert/theatrical stage, and has worked steadily in practically every capacity of the business, having spent over 33 years working as a professional singer, dancer, actor, director, choreographer, and producer with a career that includes Off-Broadway, International Tour, National Tour, Las Vegas, Regional, Symphony concerts and Educational productions.

Farrell received his Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Music Theatre from the University of Cincinnati, College-Conservatory of Music, has served as a member of the drama faculty for NYC's premier musical theatre training conservatory Collaborative Arts Project 21, has taught drama workshops and master classes for theatre companies and universities and has been a scholarship adjudicator for the National Society of Arts and Letters (NSAL) Music Theatre Competition.

Terry Woods' musical career has been diverse, including working at Walt Disney World as a musician and puppeteer; living in New York City while working at theaters around the country and performing in the French Quarter Folies in New Orleans. As a Musical Director, he has worked throughout the Indianapolis area. He has been a Musical Director, arranger, and pianist for ATI since its first production in 2005 and continues to this day.

Woods was rehearsal pianist for the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra's "Yuletide Celebration" for 11 years and Musical Director for Indiana Repertory Theatre's "Christmas Carol" for seven years. As a pianist he has toured the U.S. with several musical revues. He also toured Europe with the musical West Side Story. He is currently a Musical Director at Beef & Boards Dinner Theatre, having enjoyed performing there for over 25 years.

To sign up for the Theatre Workshop, visit atistage.org/music-theatre.

Masterclass Series

ATI will also host a Masterclass Series, presenting a variety of national professional talent on its stage at the Studio Theater, as well as monthly engagements at Feinstein's at Hotel Carmichael. These Masterclasses are one-day events with the master artists. You can sign up at atistage.org/masterclasses.

The first of these will be a Master Class with Billy Stritch and ATI Co-founder Don Farrell on from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 27. Stritch is one of the premier singer-pianists on the New York and national jazz and cabaret scenes. He began his career in Houston, Texas, where he formed the vocal trio Montgomery, Plant and Stritch. The trio performed all over New York and Europe from 1983 until 1990. A chance meeting with Liza Minnelli in March of 1991 resulted in her asking him to create vocal arrangements for the record-breaking extravaganza Liza Stepping Out at Radio City Music Hall. In addition to his 25-year collaboration with as accompanist and opening act for Liza, he recently toured with the legendary Tony Bennett as Tony's pianist and musical director.

Stritch

Currently during COVID-19, he is hosting a weekly Facebook livestream show "Billy's Place," celebrating the Great American Songbook with songs and stories from his varied career, Thursdays at 8 p.m. He has recorded five solo CDs and his latest release Billy's Place is a collection of his favorite songs from these online concerts.

To give each student quality attention, the teachers will limit this class to 10 participants. Tuition is $100 to participate, $50 to audit (observe). The location for the classes will be announced closer to the time of the sessions.

The second of these Masterclass sessions will be with The Blue Eyed Bettys from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 1. With Daniel Emond on banjo, Sarah Hund on fiddle, and Ben Mackel on guitar, The Blue Eyed Bettys delight with their powerful vocals in three-part harmony to create an indie-folk pop grass sound. All actors, The Blue Eyed Bettys met while doing a new play together at the Florida Studio Theatre in Sarasota. The Bettys have cultivated followings in Florida, New York, North Carolina, and the Midwest for five song-soaked years of touring throughout the Eastern U.S.

The third Masterclass will be with Michele McConnell from noon to 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 30. McConnell has been on Broadway since 2010 doing The Phantom of the Opera. She has also been in Camelot (tour with Robert Goulet), Beauty and the Beast (Montreal/Las Vegas), and has performed with DiCapo Opera, Mobile Opera, Missouri Symphony, Skyline Theatre Company, San Diego Repertory, San Diego Chamber Orchestra, Totem Pole Playhouse, and many more. McConnell has traveled to over 115 countries performing on luxury cruise ships with her husband, baritone Duane McDevitt, and serves on the musical theatre faculty at NJCU.

For any questions on these educational opportunities through ATI, please feel free to email d Farrell@atistage.org or call (317) 490-7793. To sign up for the Theatre Workshop or the Masterclasses, visit atistage.org.

Partnership for Healthy Hamilton County will soon join forces with Hamilton County Systems of Care

The REPORTER

Partnership for Healthy Hamilton County and Hamilton County Systems of Care are merging as the two organizations join efforts to address community gaps in health and well-being for local youth and families.

The new organization will be known as A Healthier Hamilton County: Systems of Care.

It will collaborate with all systems in the county that influence the health of residents, including health-care providers, government agencies at every level, nonprofits, health advocacy associations and more. It will address not just physical wellbeing but also mental health, substance use disorder and social factors that impact overall wellness such as employment, housing, domestic violence, etc.

The merged organization has a new Facebook page and will use the PHHC website, hamilton-countyphhc.org, for now until an updated version is completed. It will operate out of the PHHC headquarters at 12175 Visionary Way, Fishers.

The mission of A Healthier Hamilton County: Systems of Care is to be a community partnership ensuring strength-based resources to support and empower families and children. The organization's vision is that all Hamilton County youth and families are provided an equal opportunity to live in a safe, healthy and supportive community.

The organization will remain part of Indiana's Systems of Care through the state Division of Mental Health and Addiction (DMHA), which had funded the Hamilton County System of Care beginning in October 2017 until June 30, 2021.

It will also continue to operate the Hamilton County Youth and Family Alliance as part of its mission, seeking input and feedback from residents from all walks of life. This initiative uses people's lived experiences and voices to learn the best route to address community health gaps.

The new group's board of directors consists of representatives from the Hamilton County Health Department, Aspire Indiana Health, Hamilton East Public Library, Indiana Department of Child Services, Juvenile Probation, Choices Coordinated Care Solutions, Children's Bureau, Noblesville Schools, Child Care Answers, Good Samaritan Network, IU Health and community/parent representatives.

Rain Corporation launches digital marketing agency to help small businesses succeed post-pandemic

The REPORTER

Rain Corporation, the engineering-based firm in Noblesville that helps manufacturers with efficiency and quality control, has announced the launch of Rain Digital, an all-new digital marketing agency. The agency has been created in response to the impact the pandemic has had on small businesses, and the lack of accountability many marketing agencies display.

Rain Corporation CEO Don Rahrig said, "Many of the small businesses in my community were hit hard by the pandemic and had to close their doors. Those that survived are now scrambling to get back on their feet and get customers in the door. Now more than ever, our community needs a marketing agency that prioritizes efficiency and focuses on what works."

The new agency will offer competitor analysis, step-by-step customized marketing strategies, web design, marketing automation, SEO, pay-per-click advertisements, content marketing services, and packages that can substitute an entire marketing department for less than half the cost of hiring one employee. The agency also aims to help small businesses become more self-sufficient by providing education and detailed standard operating procedures, so they can continue their marketing efforts effectively on their own should they choose.

"We've suffered a lot of frustration in the past with marketing agencies lacking transparency with costs, not focusing on ROI, and just down right not showing up for scheduled meetings. It's time for that to change," said Rahrig.

Rain Digital President Jon Clayton added, "It's really exciting to be a part of this innovative approach to marketing services with a corporation that knows how to cut through the noise and get to the point. Plus, knowing that we are genuinely helping the community is its own reward."

To celebrate the new launch, Rain Digital is currently offering a free assessment and customized marketing strategy for small businesses in the Indianapolis area (limited time offer). For more information, visit RainDigital.com.

Noblesville Parks releases 2021 Movies in the Park schedule

The REPORTER

The Noblesville Parks Department invites residents to enjoy outdoor movies together as a family at four city parks this summer. The 14th annual Movies in the Park Series, presented by T-Mobile, has something for all ages to enjoy – from pirate adventures to comical cavemen to fantastical journeys and enduring heroes.

“The Movies in the Park Series is a timeless tradition for many Noblesville families. Attendees can enjoy family-friendly movies, bring a blanket, dinner or snacks and enjoy an evening of cinema at Noblesville’s parks,” said Recreation Program Coordinator Erin Portman. “Instead of one location for the movie series, we are continuing to show the movies at various parks across the city in order to give residents an opportunity to enjoy them closer to home.”

To kick off the series, the Noblesville Parks Department is partnering with the Forest Park Aquatic Center, 1077 Cicero Road, to host a Flick ‘N Float featuring Pirates of the Caribbean 5. The movie will start at dusk and will be shown on the pool deck while attendees view the movie from the pool. Pool admission after 5 p.m. is $4 and food and beverages will be available for purchase.

• Friday, Aug. 13 – Flick ‘n Float featuring Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Men Tell No Tales (PG-13, 143 min.)

The remaining movies in the series will be shown at various city parks the next four weeks. Movies will begin at dusk and are free to the public. This year’s schedule includes:

• Friday, Aug. 20 – The Croods: A New Age (PG, 95 min.) at Finch Creek Park, 16233 Boden Road

• Friday, Aug. 27 – Onward (PG, 102 min.) at Dillon Park, 6351 Midland Lane

• Friday, Sept. 3 – Trolls World Tour (PG, 90 min.) at Federal Hill Commons, 175 Logan St.

• Friday, Sept. 10 – Wonder Woman 1984 (PG-13, 151 min.) at Forest Park Shelter 1, 701 Cicero Road

Light concessions will be available for purchase at all screenings. In addition to presenting sponsor T-Mobile, the city would like to also thank Logan Street Signs & Banners for sponsoring the movie series and helping to make the free movies possible. What county had the first federally-funded electric utility in Indiana?

The REPORTER

This week in Indiana’s history ...

1820 – In State v. Lasselle, the Indiana Supreme Court ruled that “slavery can have no existence in Indiana.” The case involved Polly Strong, an enslaved African American woman who was purchased at the age of 10 by Vincennes innkeeper Hyacinthe Lasselle. The decision established the 1816 Indiana Constitution as the authority in state courts regarding slavery and involuntary servitude.

1890 – Farms in many sections of the state were suffering from drought conditions. Reports from Jeffersonville indicated that the corn was “almost beyond help, and even though it should rain, not more than one-third of the crop will be gathered. No oats, half a crop of wheat, hardly any potatoes nor vegetables of any kind.”

1927 – Edna Browning Ruby, from Lafayette, was named the “Outstanding Business Woman of the Year.” The honor was bestowed by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women’s Clubs. She had already earned gold medals and other honors for her artistic talent in designing stained glass windows for churches. She was also considered one of the nation’s leaders in textile design.

1935 – The Boone County Rural Electric Membership Corporation (REMC) became the first federally-funded electric utility in the state and one of the first in the nation. Although many cities and towns already had electrical power, most rural areas were still without it. Other counties soon came online as crews went from farmhouse to farmhouse installing wires, fuse boxes, and outlets.

1946 – City leaders from around Indiana met at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis to discuss post-World War II issues and problems. Among the 450 representatives were Mayor Loba Jack Bruner of Bloomington, Mayor Sydney Baker of New Castle, Mayor W. Vincent Youkey of Crown Point, and Mayor Clarence D. Rotruck of Anderson. Topics discussed included finances, street repair, and sewage disposal plants.

1969 – Purdue University engineering graduate Neil Armstrong became the first person to walk on the surface of the moon. He was 239,000 miles from home when he stepped from the lunar module Eagle and said, “That’s one small step for a man, one giant leap for mankind.” He was on the mission with Astronauts Edwin “Buzz” Aldrin and Michael Collins.

Attorney General Todd Rokita encourages military service members, veterans to guard against scams

The REPORTER

As military service members and their families make enormous sacrifices daily for the good of their fellow citizens, they should also be sure to protect their own interests from would-be scammers and schemers, Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita said last week.

“By their very nature, the men and women serving in the U.S. armed forces tend to be selfless individuals,” Rokita said. “They consistently prioritize the needs of their country ahead of their own comforts and safety. As part of our office’s mission to safeguard consumers, we want to make a special point to remind these heroes to stay vigilant against fraud, identity theft and other predatory practices.”

July is Military Consumer Month. The U.S. Department of Defense, the Federal Trade Commission, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and other agencies are also highlighting consumer threats to which service members and veterans could be vulnerable.

Recent scams for which veterans and military service members should be on the lookout include bogus military charities; calls, texts or emails attempting to impersonate the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA); copy-cat recruiting websites; and crowdfunding scams.

For the most part, Rokita said, military families should follow the very same preventative steps as other consumers and take the same measures to rectify issues when they occur. They should pay particular attention, however, to the possibility that scammers may use misleading photos or language to falsely imply an association with a branch of the military or veterans group.

Rokita

Veterans, active military service members and their families should be vigilant about protecting their personal and financial information through such steps as the following:

- Place an active-duty alert on credit reports at no cost. An active-duty alert requires businesses to take additional steps before granting credit in the name of active-duty personnel serving overseas.
 - Carefully inspect email addresses in all messages landing in your inbox.
 - Avoid clicking on links in unsolicited emails, and be wary of email attachments.
 - Purchase goods and services from trusted vendors. Use trusted, legitimate websites when doing business online.
 - Don’t reveal personal or financial information via email or text message.
 - Verify the authenticity of a charity before donating money. You may research charities at the Better Business Bureau’s Wise Giving Alliance website at give.org.
 - Pay by credit card for all transactions. This enables you to file disputes with your credit card provider if you encounter fraudulent sellers. Do not wire money to purchase items. Never pay with gift cards.
 - Do not follow payment instructions that take you outside of the payment services of legitimate websites with which you are familiar. This is generally a phishing attempt to steal credit card information.
 - Take your time. Never feel pressured to act immediately to sign a contract or make a transaction.
- If you believe you’ve encountered a scam, file a complaint with the Office of the Attorney General’s Consumer Protection Division at IndianaConsumer.com.

Learn to rock from some of Indy’s best

Indy’s Rock Garage looking for new music students, members

The REPORTER

If you’re ready to rock, then Rock Garage is calling. Rock Garage is for anyone interested in music lessons or wanting to become part of a band. It’s a great opportunity to become part of the musical excitement around Indianapolis.

“Rock Garage is truly all about working with musicians, both young and not so young, beginners to masters, who want to realize their dream of performing on stage,” said Dave Foellinger, co-owner of the Castleton-based music lesson center and rock band program. “Rock Garage is designed to make that happen. We’ve built a system of instruction, rehearsal, and performance second to none.”

Rock Garage’s program is built upon the principles of band chemistry, live experience, and having a good time. For individuals, adults or children who are just starting out, they can choose online or in-person lessons and learn to rock out.

Meet the educators of Rock Garage here:

Preston Nash

One of the leading musician educators, Nash has been playing drums for nearly 40 years. His touring and recording credits include Dope (Sony Records), Primer 55 (Island Records), Society 1 (Earache Records) and many others. Nash has played all over America, Canada, and parts of Europe, on stages including CBGB’s, Carnegie Hall, the

Montreux Jazz Festival and Sun Devil Stadium.

As an educator, Nash has been teaching music since the early 1990s, privately as well as at the high school and collegiate level. In 2011, he started the award-winning Ash Rock Program at Sam Ash Music and in 2020 he co-founded Rock Garage. He has earned three degrees in music, including a master’s in Music Theory/Composition from Montclair State University in New Jersey.

John Frye

Teaching for 25 years and playing guitar for 36 years, Frye is well versed in all styles of music and has an extensive knowledge of music theory as well. Frye has a wide range of musical influences spanning many different genres and styles, with his biggest guitar influences being Eddie Van Halen, Jimi Hendrix, Randy Rhoads, Jimmy Page, Steve Lukather, Michael Landau and Scott Henderson.

Frye believes the most important aspect of teaching and playing is to simply have fun and enjoy playing the music you love. He is also an active performer, primarily playing shows all over the Midwest.

Amanda Tewell

Giving instruction on vocals, Tewell holds a Bachelor of Arts in Vocal Performance. She engages audiences and fellow artists during performances with her passion and confidence, her versatility in vocal range and genres, along with her dedication to her continuing training and experience.

In college, she enhanced her skills with dance and linguistics. She completed courses in German and Languages for Singers with French, Italian and Latin, allowing her solo repertoire to flourish. She was a member of the Indiana University Southeast Concert Choir and has performed in classical concert settings, cabarets with Carmel Community Players, operas and pop concerts with the Indiana University Southeast, as well as singing with the Orchestra at Indiana University Southeast and their brass band.

Tewell not only pursues her passion, she advocates and supports others to pursue music and voice education as well. She took the initiative to create a curriculum and support services within the Indiana University Southeast Music Department allowing accommodations for students who have dyslexia in their music education. She also enjoys volunteering her talent with different military and veteran groups.

Eric Jones

Playing drums for over 40 years, Jones has played with over 200 bands and plays Ludwig drums, Zildjian cymbals, Remo drumheads, Vater sticks, and Gibson banjos.

He has toured the U.S. and has played in Europe. His credits include playing for Lindsay Lohan, and he has worked in the studio or live with many established artists such as Steve Lukather, Trev Lukather, Black Eyed Peas, Kelly Clarkson, Snoop Dogg, and many others. He has been in MTV hit videos, live MTV and TV performances, and has performed stadium concerts.

Jones is a graduate of the Percussion Institute of Technology at Musicians Institute in Hollywood, Calif. He has been teaching privately for 25 years, and has taught at two academies in Los Angeles, as well as IRC Music, Sam Ash, and Rock Garage in Indianapolis. He also plays and teaches five-string bluegrass banjo, Logic Pro classes, recording classes, and operates the recording studio at Rock Garage.

Cassandra Hustedt

An Indianapolis-based singer/songwriter with over 10 years of teaching and pedagogical experience, Hustedt is trained in classic, contemporary, and musical theatre.

Her teaching philosophy: "Whether you want to sing back up, be a front-of-band rock star, or just become a better musician, getting to know your voice is so important! Unlike other musical lessons, singing is your internal instrument. We will learn to identify the different 'tools' you have in your voice during lessons, recognize that feeling, and use it to approach any song you want to learn. Along the way, I will make sure you gain confidence and embrace your unique voice! I can't wait to work with you!"

About Rock Garage

Rock Garage was born out of the Pandemic shutdown when Dave and Kate Foellinger, Steve and Kimberly Klinger, and Preston and Rocky Nash joined forces to start a Facebook group for musicians to talk about music, upload their songs and share ideas. The group grew to more than 800 members from all over the world and eventually led to establishing a new website and a physical location in the summer of 2020. The Castleton business, located at 8115 Center Run Road, has three large rooms for bands to rehearse and record their music, and smaller rooms for private lessons.

TODAY’S BIBLE READING

Now about the collection for the Lord’s people: Do what I told the Galatian churches to do. On the first day of every week, each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with your income, saving it up, so that when I come no collections will have to be made. Then, when I arrive, I will give letters of introduction to the men you approve and send them with your gift to Jerusalem. If it seems advisable for me to go also, they will accompany me.

Noblesville Babe Ruth hosting Hamilton County Classic this weekend

Baseball fans who are looking for Sunday games need look no further than today at Forest Park, the home of Noblesville Babe Ruth Baseball.

NBR is hosting the Hamilton County Classic this weekend. The tournament was to begin on Friday, but got pushed back to Saturday due to rain. As a result, Saturday was busy with games on both Logan Field and Emmerson Field.

While the rain disrupted the schedule, the field conditions were fine by Saturday.

"We actually just re-did the fields at the beginning of the season, the Babe Ruth season," said Scott Springer, NBR Secretary of the Board. "The material, it actually takes the water and just pulls it away."

Springer said the material won't pool the water like regular dirt or dust will.

"It's a really high-quality material and we're getting ready to do the back field," said Springer. "We're shutting it down in August and doing the same thing that we did to this field back there as well."

Eight teams are playing in the Classic, and each team features players ages 16 to 18. NBR has a team, and there are a handful of other local teams as well, such as the Savages, which features players from across Central Indiana. In addition, there are two teams from Illinois playing, and a team from Kentucky, the Wolves.
