Hamilton East library board suspends book review policy

Tiffanie Ditlevson selected to serve as next board president

By DANIELLE ZULKOSKY
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

The Hamilton East Public Library Board last Thursday afternoon voted to suspend the moving of specific books in its young adult section pending a future meeting about its Collection Development Policy.

Board member Michelle Payne said, “We need to take responsibility and accountability” on the language and requirements of the policy.

The board oversees the libraries in Fishers and Noblesville.

Board member Tiffanie A.H. Ditlevson is a Republican candidate in the November election for an at-large seat on the Fishers City Council. She called for the board to suspend the movement of materials until a meeting about the policy can be held. That motion passed unanimously.

Ditlevson said, “I would like to suspend that section of the Collection Development Policy that deals with reviewing and moving materials until we can have a meeting to hash this out. I think this is the closest we’ve come to collaboration in the last eight months and I am really happy to hear this kind of conversation.”

Don’t be ugly!

My cousin and I were about four or five years old. I thought it was my turn to write on her chalkboard. She would not give up her place in front of the chalkboard. It was hers, after all. Apparently, she had not been taught to take turns, but neither had I. I bullied her out of the way.

A loud argument ensued. She was a pincher. I was a hairpuller. We expressed our feelings loudly and with a bit of physical aggression.

I can still hear my mother’s gentle but admonishing words, “Girls, don’t be ugly.”

She separated us into “time out” corners and explained that we would not always agree, but we needed to treat each other nicely and respectfully.

Neither one of us would give up our chalk. We backed away from the chalkboard. I remember having to say I was sorry, as did my cousin. I don’t think we grasped precisely what my mother was trying to teach us. Neither do I think we were all that sorry.

This lesson was taught many years ago, and I will always hear my mother’s voice saying, “Don’t be ugly.”

It took time and a few more admonitions from my mother to fully understand that when I believe I am right, I can be very wrong if I do not treat others with respect and civility when I disagree with them. I had to learn to disagree agreeably. I can stand my ground with grace and kindness. I can never bully someone into agreeing with me.

Mom was never one to raise her voice, but it had a bit of an edge as she got her point across. She also had the “Audrey look” whenever she had had enough. Neither my cousin nor I ever wanted to cross that look.

Mom taught me never to get into an argument with someone who is shouting or name-calling. Just because I am louder

CHAMP Camp champions children

Submitted

Jamie Mitchell, Executive Director of CHAMP Camp, spoke to Cicero Kiwanis on Saturday, Aug. 19.

Established 34 years ago, CHAMP Camp provides a summer camp experience for children and adolescents with tracheostomies and those who require technological respiratory assistance. Prior to CHAMP Camp, children with such needs had extremely limited opportunities to enjoy an overnight outdoor experience and their families needed to be with them.

Through this camp experience, children spend a week independent of their families, fully participate in fun and challenging activities, and meet others who have similar medical issues. Volunteer counselors, who are in the medical field, provide the attention and medical expertise these kiddos need. Their families are then able to have a respite from the ongoing care they give.

How valuable is this experience? Mitchell related several "camp success stories," with one particularly standing out.

Reid, a wheelchair dependent youngster, was not thrilled to be at camp at first. He didn't smile or engage and, because he was young, counselors weren't sure he'd stay. After making a friend at camp and participating in a few activities, he began smiling. A few weeks after camp ended, Mitchell had a conversation with Reid's mother about camp, during which, the mom talked about how the boy the family took to camp was not the boy who came home. She said that he was smiling and laughing so much more: "It [camp] changed our world."

CHAMP stands for Children Have a Lot of Motivation and Potential, and the camp offers opportunities for these children who have specialized needs. The overall camp experience is rewarding to campers and volunteers alike.

The Kiwanis Club of Cicero was so inspired by CHAMP Camp's mission, its success, and how it transforms the lives of everyone involved, club members felt compelled to contribute $200 toward next year's no-cost to the kids camp.

Westfield to establish new park in honor of Joe Edwards

The REPORTER

City Councilor and life-long Westfield resident Joe Edwards was honored on Monday, Aug. 21 at an event at the future Lantern Commons mixed-use development site at 161st Street and Westfield Boulevard.

Front Street Partners, the developer of the 60-acre project, have named the future park in Lantern Commons “Joe Edwards Plaza.”

In the surprise announcement that drew family, colleagues, and friends, Edwards expressed his gratitude, saying, “I’m not sure I deserve this, but I am honored.”

Edwards continued, “My heart is in this city and this is where I will die. I will always think of Westfield with great fondness.”

Edward's grandparents, who farmed the property, formerly owned the land. Joe Edwards Plaza will be a Pocket Park that encompasses up to 1.25 acres.

Edwards and his family cut the ribbon on what will soon be Joe Edwards Plaza.

Westfield Mayor-Elect Scott Willis, a city council member, along with Councilor Scott Frei, worked with developers to make the park a reality.

“This piece of land is more than just a public park,” City Council President Mike Johns said. “As I think about the park, I don’t think of it as a gift to Joe. I think of it as a gift from Joe to future residents.”

Edwards, a Republican, represents residents in District 3 and is not seeking re-election. He also served on the Westfield Town Council from 1980 until 1991.

Hamilton Heights ag educator Emilie Carson named Husky Hero

The REPORTER

Emilie Carson, Hamilton Heights High School Agriculture Education teacher and FFA Chapter Advisor, has been named Husky Hero for the month of May.

Carson has been at the helm of Heights’ agriculture program and FFA Chapter sponsor since 2016. Ag education and the FFA program at Heights has grown in size and scope under her leadership.

“Mrs. Carson spends numerous hours outside of the classroom helping her students achieve their goals,” said Katie Anderson, HHHS ’21 and former FFA member. “She allows her students to compete in competitions that they are interested in even if she doesn’t know much about that specific contest, she will find someone to help them. She spends many evenings after school in the classroom having practices with her students to make sure they have all the materials they need to succeed. Her love and passion for Agriculture Education goes beyond the classroom and continues year-round as her students participate in agricultural-related activities throughout the summer.”

Anderson added, “There are very early mornings, and even later nights that she puts into her students, so they have every opportunity to participate in the contests of their choice. She truly cares about her student’s success in and out of the classroom. Her passion goes above and beyond. She has led many of her former students to do great things within the industry after graduation. I believe she makes a great impact on her students’ lives that they will carry with them throughout whatever their next steps are after high school.”

For Carson, the importance of her work lies in how she can educate students and change their lives.

“Wow! I was so surprised and so humbled by this nomination,” Carson said when presented with the recognition. “Being selected as a Husky Hero is a huge honor. This is the type of award that every teacher strives for in their daily workings. For me personally, my reward is seeing my students succeed in FFA competitions and make connections within the agricultural industry.”

Carson continued, “As the agricultural teacher, I have the unique ability to teach and influence students through agriculture. Standing behind the scenes watching my students strive for success gives me the opportunity to watch these young men and women become leaders of the next generation. Leadership, tenacity, and determination are the foundation of what we work to achieve in the Agriculture Department throughout the year.”

Carson’s dedication to agricultural education at Hamilton Heights is recognized by students, fellow teachers, and administrators.

“Emilie has steadily built this program from the ground up,” said Jarrod Mason, Hamilton Heights High School Principal. “She has done a great job of developing leaders in our FFA both at home and at the state and national level. She is constantly looking to showcase our FFA talent and build community partners with our AG program.”

Sheridan Education Foundation forms to meet growing needs

By EMILY WILL & BRIANNA DUKE
Sheridan Education Foundation

“Grant money would relieve the financial burden that so many of us feel as we work to grow as educators and improve the educational experience for all of our students.”

This is a quote from Sheridan High School’s Spanish and Education teacher, Jill Cali. As a way to help relieve this burden, the Sheridan Education Foundation, Inc. has recently been formed.

The Sheridan Education Foundation (SEF) is a committee made up of representatives from local businesses, retired teachers, school board members, and Sheridan youth. This committee exists to provide grants to teachers at all three Sheridan schools.

These grants are given through applications and will likely happen biannually. Once applications are submitted, the members of SEF will meet and discuss the applications. The winner or winners will be chosen and awarded a grant, varying in amounts needed.

The goal of this board is to help provide financial support to meet the needs of teachers and students in our community. This will ultimately improve the school environment and minimize the out-of-pocket expenses for teachers. Many teachers end up paying hundreds of dollars out of pocket for various supplies every year for their students and classrooms. The funds raised by the Sheridan Education Foundation will serve as a resource teachers can use to help cover some of those expenses.

As a board, SEF has already started fundraising for these grants. To help celebrate Sheridan High School’s 100th Homecoming football game, there will be a Sheridan Staff/Alumni/Blackhawk fan dinner, which will take place from 4 to 6 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 16 at the Sheridan Elementary School Cafeteria. The cost is $12 per person. The dinner’s main course will be the famous Blackhawk Bowl, consisting of mashed potatoes, corn, chicken, cheese, and gravy. It will be served with a roll, salad, dessert, and drink. This is a favorite of many Blackhawk students.

After the dinner, shuttles will be available to transport you to and from the football field to enjoy the game.

Please come and enjoy a delicious dinner and cheer on the Sheridan Blackhawks football team. You can purchase your dinner ticket at many of the Fall Varsity Sporting events leading up to the homecoming game or by credit card with the QR code at right, or at tinyurl.com/Sheridan-100HomecomingDinner. Homecoming football game tickets will be available for purchase (cash only) at the dinner as well. All proceeds will go directly to SEF and back to Sheridan’s teachers, students, and classrooms as the foundation begins to fulfill grant requests.

The input of Sheridan’s teachers on the importance of this board and the support it will bring is important. SEF members talked to one high school teacher, Jill Cali about her thoughts on the formation of SEF. She stated, “Federal grant money is hard to come by and the application process is often so daunting that teachers don’t bother applying for something that feels like such a long shot. I think that having grant money available from a local foundation would mean so much more than most of the public could understand.”

One of SEF’s goals is to make the grant process easy for teachers to get help from the school community.

Ms. Cali also shared,

“We, as teachers, spend an unbelievable amount of money on making our classrooms welcoming and having the supplies that we and our students need to function. That doesn’t even include the money spent on necessary supplies for specific learning activities for our courses.”

SEF hopes to provide grants for these types of needs to help lessen the financial burden that it causes many teachers.

Middle school math teacher Adam Spencer said, “I am very grateful for the starting of a foundation like this. It was long overdue ... I want to thank everyone who helps the rising of the foundation and hopes that it will continue for many years to come.”

Mr. Spencer and Ms. Cali both shared that they pay hundreds of dollars out of their own pockets each year for students. After hearing from some of Sheridan’s teachers, it is evident how important it is that the Sheridan Education Foundation, Inc. exists.

Please support SEF in taking steps to better every Sheridan classroom. See you for the 100th Homecoming dinner on Sept. 16.

Westfield Library Foundation raises $22,000 with help from 72 picklers

Pickleball tournament serves up good times & generous donations

The REPORTER

The Westfield Library Foundation (WLF) raised an impressive $22,000 in support of the Westfield Washington Public Library (WWPL) at its inaugural Pickleball Tournament.

The event, held on Thursday, Aug. 17 at The Bridgewater Club, brought together pickleball enthusiasts, library supporters, and community members for a day of friendly competition and charitable giving.

“I am so happy our inaugural tournament was such a success,” WLF Executive Director Erin Downey said. “I loved watching the players have so much fun, all while raising funds for such an important piece of our community.”

Seventy-two picklers of all skill levels converged on the courts for a round-robin tournament, ensuring that both novices and experienced players had the chance to showcase their skills. All players were invited to stay for lunch where John Morrin, a three-time US Open champion in both singles and doubles and currently active on the Senior PRO tour, shared his journey to pickleball success.

“We are overwhelmed by the incredible turnout and the generosity shown by everyone who participated in the pickleball tournament,” WWPL Director Sheryl Sollars said. “The dollars raised at this event will enable the library to expand its collection of books and digital resources, support educational programs, and enhance the facilities at our new building.”

The Grand National Pickleball Center served as the event’s ACE Sponsor. Once built, the center will offer 36 indoor and 16 outdoor pickleball courts in Westfield. Other sponsors included: Ice Miller, Business Furniture, Maureen and Seth Warren, Sue Kappen Real Estate Group, Northwest Radiology, OrthoIndy, Community First Bank, Wittler Orthodontics, KRM Architecture, Medallion Partners, Meyer Najem, Copper Trace Senior Living, Baker & Taylor, and Huston Electric.

does not mean I am right. (And if the truth be known, the louder the voice, the less they are listened to.)

I noticed over the years how soft-spoken my mother was, but people leaned in to listen to what she had to say. She had a voice of reason. She would share her opinion yet never had any meanness in her if you disagreed. She would say some people were blind to their meanness, which was sad.

There is brilliance in the art of gentle persuasion. My mother had it. She also had a keen eye for seeing manipulation.

The truth is that it is very difficult to change anyone’s mind once it is set. Read that again. Reaching a compromise is a lost virtue ... so it seems. Mom said that when people learn to compromise... everyone wins. Hmmm.

When it came to name-calling, that was also a big no-no in my mother’s do-not-be-ugly rule book. She said name-calling is like mud. Whenever you sling it, you will get some on you as well. She did say she thought a few people were funny-turned.

As I got older, she would also say, “Don’t stir manure because if you do, you will find yourself stinking as well.”

Mom said that a person’s true character rises to the top or sinks to the bottom when people disagree. Mom taught me that sowing discord only grows resentment and anger.

I miss my mom ... and I miss her wisdom.

Who knew the power of her teaching me and my cousin not to be ugly ...

Please Lord, help me see others with eyes of grace and kindness. Let my words heal and encourage. I pray my opinions never harm the heart of anyone.

I’m tired of the loud voices. I’m tired of the ugliness.

If only the loud and angry voices could be put in “time out” until they can learn not to be ugly. It worked for my cousin and me. I think it could make this world a lot kinder and less ugly.

Sheridan Community Schools Superintendent Dave Mundy added his congratulations to Henderson, Coyle-Paddock, and Bowen, saying, “I am so proud of these students. We have so many students excelling at such an incredibly high level right now; it’s great to see recognition given to these students for their continued hard work and effort. We are very proud of all our Blackhawks!”

Hamilton Heights’ students

These programs celebrate students’ hard work in high school and showcase their strong academic performance. The academic honors for rural area, Black,

The following Heights students were chosen among 72,000 students from across the country and earned this academic honor because of their grade-point average of 3.5 or higher and outstanding performance on the PSAT/NMSQT, PSAT 10, and/or AP Exams:

LIBRARY

No date has been set for a meeting to discuss the policy. It was unclear if the board would schedule a special meeting for the discussion.

Edra Waterman, director of the libraries, asked the board for clarification on the change in the shelving policy. The board indicated anyone still can file a reconsideration form to flag books in the young adult section, and the titles would be moved to the adult section until the board updates its policy.

Waterman asked, “So just to clarify from an operational standpoint, there is a paragraph in the policy that relates to placement, age-appropriate placement. Are we suspending that until we figure it out?”

Ditlevson replied, “Yes.”

Waterman answered, “Because we already make decisions.”

“Let your (book-reviewing) readers know they are paused,” Ditlevson said.

“We will probably pause them,” Waterman said.

“Yes,” Ditlevson said.

“And we will go ahead and do our work the way that we always have? And the reconsideration process is still in the policy?” Waterman asked.

“Correct,” Ditlevson said.

“So if anybody finds anything in the meantime, we can put that through it?” Waterman asked.

Ditlevson confirmed.

The controversy over reshelving young adult titles caused a large crowd to show up at last Thursday’s meeting. The board had to set up an overflow room for people to participate in the meeting.

The updated policy has been under scrutiny from community members after it was revised in December 2022 and reviewed this year in January and April. The policy became more widely discussed after Indiana author John Green posted about the policy calling out the decision to move his most popular novel The Fault in Our Stars from the young adult section to the adult section.

Board member Ray Maddalone at the meeting said Green’s book did not need to be moved because the sex scene in the “young adult” novel was not explicit and instead was “vague.” He made a motion to move the book back to the Teen Zone, but later withdrew his motion.

Waterman told the board at the meeting that she disagrees that the discussion of sex in Green’s novel is not explicit enough to require it to be moved to the adult section.

Waterman said the policy for reviewing books written for teens and young adults is too vague.

“Give us a clear policy

and we will do our best to implement it,” Waterman said.

Library staff had been operating with a zero-tolerance policy, but board secretary Ray Maddalone walked back that notion. “If something is on the fence, we want it to be left,” he said.

“Absolutely the opposite,” Waterman responded. “The operational response plan is clear, that if there is any question, we age it up and that would mean moving The Fault in Our Stars to the adult collection.”

Board member Andre Miksha agreed with Waterman’s understanding of the policy. “My understanding is yes, while there would be some grace extended, the policy itself is looking to be applied very specifically. Obviously, it was a message to me and seemed like to Edra (Waterman) and her staff it would be reasonable to say all of those terms should be narrowly construed and harshly enforced.”

The Collection Development Policy (hepl.lib.in.us/policies) requires strict attention be given to nudity, alcohol and drug use, profanity, violence, and sexual content before a book is placed in the children or teen sections. If a book discusses any of those topics, it is then reshelved in the adult section.

The policy overrides recommendations from the publishers, authors, and librarians on where to shelve books.

Laura Aledring, former library board president, is also a member of the Noblesville School Board. The school board had appointed Alerding to the library board, but, on Aug. 15, voted to replace her with Noblesville teacher Bill Kenley. Alerding’s term on the board ended last Saturday.

As a result, the library board’s nominating committee met at 2 p.m. last Thursday, an hour before the full board meeting. The full library board has seven members.

During the nominating committee meeting, Alerding suggested Ditlevson replace her as president. Maddalone suggested Miksha or Craig Siebe as president. A discussion occurred about whether Ditlevson can serve on the Fishers City Council and the Hamilton East Library Board at the same time, but an attorney said the library board can discuss that prospect if she’s elected in November.

The committee suggested new board officers: Ditlevson for president, Craig Siebe for vice president, Maddalone for secretary, and Miksha for assistant secretary and treasurer. The full board later approved the recommendation in a 4-3 vote.

History of Arcadia’s Phi Beta Psi Delta Chapter, Part III

Submitted by
VICKI COOPER

Phi Beta Psi, Delta Chapter

As Delta Chapter of Phi Beta Psi gets ever closer to its 100th birthday celebration on Sept. 9, 2023, let’s get the last chapter – for now – of Delta’s history finished.

The FUNdraising never stops!

Going through Delta’s minutes starting with 1991 to glean some facts we’ve probably forgotten was a bit of a chore but totally enjoyable – if one likes history! We have been (and always will be) a busy group in fundraising, giving, and having fun!

Some of our many fundraisers not previously mentioned included: selling Rada knives, Moore’s pies, nuts, candles, poinsettias, flashlights, book drives (took them to Half Price Books), white elephant sales, purse auctions, bagging sales at Kohl’s at Christmas, Euchrama yearly from 1990 until 2008, Breakfast with Santa starting in 2015, motorcycle rally with Cicero American Legion since 2017 (just finished 2023’s), and taking part in Jim Dandy’s fundraiser at both Noblesville and Tipton.

Money from our fundraisers always goes to our National Project of cancer research and our State Project of scholarship and a scholarship given to a Hamilton Heights senior each year. Several programs and events at our local schools have been recipients of our donations through the years. We’ve given to Ronald McDonald House, sent packages to service men and women in the early 2000s, sent seasonal cards to nursing home residents, helped local folks purchase glasses, hearing aids, among other needs brought to our attention.

Phi Beta Psi Sorority
Love-Friendship-Truth

tion. In December 2007, we purchased books from Kim Martin’s Hair Fairy Project to go children undergoing chemotherapy.

In October 1991, Delta again hosted the Indiana State convention at the Radisson, Keystone at the Crossing with a fall theme of “Ain’t God Good to Indiana.” One of our member’s fathers had carved several hundred small pumpkins for favors for this convention. We spent months prior to convention sanding and painting them – chatting and laughing a little bit too! We had no Tasting Party that year due to preparing for convention. (Note: in 1996 we had no Tasting Party that year either and the last tasting party was in 2011.)

It isn’t expensive to be a member of Phi Beta Psi. At National Convention in 2007, national dues were increased to $35 per year per member from $25 after 30 years. State dues are $5 per year per member. Some chapters also have a membership fee. Delta doesn’t. We just expect members to help with fundraisers, try to help bring in new members, suggest where donations might be needed and attend meetings as often as possible.

No matter

where we meet . . .

For years, Delta Phi Betes met in members’ homes. In early 2000s we met in the Shaffer Community Center at Arcadia Town Hall several times, and in September 2016, we started meeting at the Shaffer Room regularly for most of our meetings. From its inception, Delta met the first and third Tuesdays of each month. On Nov. 4, 2008, we voted to start having one meeting a month, so we started meeting only on the first Tuesday of each month from September through June.

Remember year 2020? It was a weird year for everyone because of COVID-19, which affected us all in many ways. Some of our meetings early in the year were canceled but at the start of our new year, which for us was Sept. 1, 2020, we met regularly and practiced social distancing and masked up. It worked!

There was no National Convention in the summer of 2020, but $297,318 was given to six cancer research doctors by Phi Beta Psi anyway. There was no Indiana State Convention either, and we didn’t have our Breakfast with Santa.

Remember longtime members

Many members who reached 50 years as Delta Phi Betes have passed on and we remember them fondly. Currently we have two members who are 50-year members and one who has been a Delta Phi Bete for 64 years. Talking with Janice Fisher, mentioned in our second history article, who has been in Delta since February 1959, her favorite thing about being an active member for so long is the camaraderie among the members. She loved the fashion shows and tasting parties, and in the late 50s and early 60s, she liked the dress clubs with Mr. Eds and Willits. Jo Edna Bardoner, 50-year member, loved catering to the older folks (her words) in the community, taking them food and helping them do small jobs. She always liked making the candy wreaths and doing the pie sales and flower sales. Shirley Stover, our other 50-year member, loves the fact we raise money for cancer research and always enjoyed the style shows.

2021 State Convention

In 2021, we once again hosted the Indiana State Convention. It was held at the Cambria Hotel in Westfield in October. The theme was “Tackling Cancer.” The football theme was complete with a “tailgate party,” “1st half,” “halftime,” “2nd half,” and “Homecoming Victory Dance.” Two weeks before our convention the Cambria underwent a name change to Wyndam, but nothing changed for us – our plans went on as planned and we scored a “touchdown!”

100 years of good work

In its 100 years, Delta has seen many members marry, celebrate 50-year anniversaries, have children and grandchildren, enjoy great friendships, travel to state and national conventions and other special places. We’ve watched history unfold in our state and country. We’ve worked hard to raise funds in many (legal) ways for many worthy projects.

Our parties have had us “come as you are,” dress like hobos, mask up, have picnics in the park, cookouts, eat in nice restaurants, sit on Santa’s knee, enjoy great meals at Arcadia Church of Brethren, and pay tribute to our Founders every year. We have mourned the loss of many members and family members.

And all the while, we’ve tried to be the “best that is in womanhood.”

Here’s to the next 100 years!

Keep challenging yourself & enjoy life to the fullest

"We don't stop playing because we grow old . . . we grow old because we stop playing." – George Bernard Shaw

I am going to give the word "playing" as used in the quote above a bit of a twist. Although I am not completely certain of Mr. Shaw's definition of "playing," I will step out to use my own. I will admit that in my younger years I would have questioned this comment but have since found the truth in his remark.

Most of us (and I am including myself in this group) have a fairly scheduled routine. This is something to which I have adhered basically my entire life, even as a child. Perhaps that goes along with what is often called the "type A" personality which oftentimes presents itself in the oldest child of the family. This attribute can be very helpful in raising children, taking care of a home and pets, and a demanding career – and I fall into each of those categories.

However, being retired or "rewired" can provide us with opportunities to once again focus on and enjoy activities of our earlier years as well as taking on new challenges, both physical and mental. Sometimes the word "challenge" can be daunting as some folks may consider that to indicate hard work, although that is simply not always the case.

Let's explore some possibilities that you can consider to challenge yourself. Please keep in mind that physical issues may keep you from participating in some of the activities we will cover here.

What are some activities you enjoyed as a child? As a teenager? Or perhaps some hobbies that you let go or did not pursue when you were working full time or raising your family, etc. Of course, we are not now as flexible, energetic, or carefree as we were when growing up, but we can reflect on what we did enjoy doing and find aspects of that activity to incorporate into our "grown up" selves.

Most of us grew up riding bicycles, sometimes many hours of the day during the warm spring and summer months. Fortunately, there are many cycling trails and opportunities here in Hamilton County. Were you a twirler, cheerleader, pep squad, flag in high school? One of my favorite pastimes is twirling my baton. I am not as fast or as coordinated now, but so what? Of course, we all need to challenge ourselves physically as we spend too much screen time, which can be said of most of the population!

Additionally, it is a fact that we lose muscle tone beginning for most around the age of 30¹ and unless we address that our muscles will continue to atrophy and not serve us as they are meant to do. There are many ways to begin a fitness program if you are not currently participating. If you are more comfortable using a personal trainer, be sure to vet their certifications before you begin. If you review online fitness programs, do the same and be sure to get the okay from your licensed medical practitioner.

Are you or were you formerly an avid reader? How about joining a local book club? Taking art lessons could open up a whole new world of opportunity if you are talented in that area. Pick up that musical instrument again! Have you wondered in the past if you could write and publish a book? Of course you can! I did it (and busy writing another!) and you can too.

Maybe you love dogs and cats but you cannot at this time home one. Contact the Humane Society or another shelter – they need volunteers! If your past profession or volunteer activity would enable you to be a presenter or speaker on a specific topic, contact the organizations which may be looking for someone like you.

Readers, we must continue to challenge ourselves physically and mentally in order to live our best lives. Enjoy a "pajama day" once in a while, but focus on being the best you can be and reap the benefits!

What is the reason for our mental loads?

As most of you know, I've been talking about the mental load in this column over the past two months and how it creeps into almost every area of our lives.

This week, I'll talk about the reason so many of us deal with this often-overwhelming load. It can be summed up in one simple word: MORE.

More square feet in our homes, more vehicles, more than one job supporting a family. More kids' activities, more pets, and more invisible responsibilities at work and increased hours spent on the job.

More elaborate holidays and celebrations. More complicated vacations and hobbies. More caregiving responsibilities, especially as we get older, and more ways to help our community.

After reading this series, I'm sure many of you are ready to scream, chuck it all, and move to the wilderness – maybe somewhere like Elk Droppings, Montana. Sorry, but there is no such town called Elk Droppings, Montana. Apparently, there is a product called Montana Elk Droppings, which are chocolate covered almonds. But let's get back to our subject.

I didn't start this series to bring you down, but rather to help you see the extent of the problem and its origins. I promise you there is hope and we can make some big changes. We obviously can't and shouldn't get rid of all our responsibilities. But some of them are optional, and we'll explore how to gradually (or suddenly) let go of these things in our lives without our world collapsing.

In fact, by decreasing or getting rid of some of these responsibilities, we'll be more productive and energetic for the things that truly matter in life.

We'll talk about the many ways we can lighten our mental loads by 50 to 75 percent in each of the areas I've mentioned this summer. We'll explore various techniques that have worked for others as well as some fabulous free or low-cost technology.

I'm cautiously optimistic in my hopes that in 10 to 20 years, all the depressing information I shared earlier will be ancient history. It's my dream that we look back on it and sigh with relief knowing we've made the right changes and won't repeat those mistakes. I believe lightening this mental load will make us a happier, healthier, more productive society.

Where will we begin next week? As the saying goes, "It all starts at home."

A special "Thank you!" goes out to Leah Johnson, who wrote a wonderful note to me in the mail about my high school reunion column. Thank you, Leah, for your kind words and for sharing your experiences. I hope you meet you someday!

Sugar or artificial sweeteners: is one really better than the other?

Many people consider utilizing artificial sweeteners since high sugar consumption promotes obesity, metabolic syndrome, heart disease, and diabetes. Sugary-drink consumption is linked to early onset colon cancer, inflammatory bowel diseases, and fatty liver.

Many dietitians have long expressed health concerns regarding artificial sweeteners without strong evidence. Now, studies cast a critical eye on artificial sweeteners showing little benefit and even suggesting harm. These artificial sweeteners include sucralose (Splenda), aspartame (Equal), saccharin (Sweet'N Low), and stevia (Truvia).

The Federal Food and Drug Administration considers these sweeteners safe after review of countless studies. These recent studies contradict previous evidence. The only sweetener ever banned by the FDA was sodium cyclamate in 1969 over potential cancer concerns.

The World Health Organization recently made recommendations to avoid artificial sweeteners found in foods and beverages to control body weight, concluding they are ineffective in long-term use and may increase the risks for cardiovascular disease, Type 2 diabetes, and mortality. Importantly, the recommendations do not include diabetics; sugar intake in diabetics is highly associated with increased cardiovascular disease and mortality.

The WHO's recommendations are considered conditional since the results may be confounded by study-participant characteristics and by its own admission that the opinions are based on "very low- or low-certainty evidence." Puzzling.

The WHO most recently reported on the association of "possible" increased cancer risks with aspartame. The conclusions appear to be based on sparse and inconsistent evidence and relevant only to unreasonably high consumption. Further, the FDA disagrees with the conclusions.

The WHO recommends eating foods with naturally occurring sugars and reduce the sweetness of your diet. Unrealistic.

A study in the journal Cell suggested modest use of saccharin and sucralose change gut microbiomes leading to small increases in blood glucose levels and modest weight gain. Experts expressed uncertainty regarding the overall health significance of these changes. And a study in The British Medical Journal found a positive association between artificial sweeteners and Type 2 diabetes.

A Journal of the American College of Cardiology investigation demonstrated that high consumers of artificial sweeteners had a higher rate of cardiovascular disease compared to high consumers of sugar. A NutriNet-Sante cohort study showed a 9 percent increased risk of cardiovascular events for subjects consuming modest amounts of artificial sweeteners.

A report in PLOS Medicine found those with the 20 percent highest intake of sweeteners, especially aspartame, were 13 percent more likely than non-consumers to be diagnosed with obesity-related cancers of the colon, breast, and ovaries. The authors expressed concern that much of the increase may be result of other factors.

Most concerning is a Cleveland Clinic study showing an association between stevia and increased cardiovascular events, probably from enhanced blood-clot formation.

Artificial sweeteners may not offer a much healthier option than sugar. Reductions in body fat are minimal. Current studies are somewhat concerning but are far from conclusive as many are underpowered, of sub-optimal study design, or based on non-clinical data. Many are observational rather than randomized-controlled prospective trials; there are undoubtedly confounding factors affecting the results including "reverse causation" wherein high-risk individuals may naturally consume more artificial sweeteners. Studies have conflicting results depending on study-design type. And remember that the WHO reports are based on low-certainty evidence.

My best counsel is to limit sugar consumption, especially sugary drinks. If you are pleased with artificial sweeteners and find them beneficial, continue their use, but consider moderation in amount.

We are on a learning curve. Let's wait and see.

Guerin Catholic to begin construction on new Fine Arts & Wellness Center

Let’s (not) talk religion

Crime prevention is a top priority

Trying to expand my horizons from my Hoosier farm-boy background, on two occasions during my time at Purdue I had a Chinese roommate.

The first was very bright. He lived in Hong Kong and knew more American movies than I did. As an incoming freshman engineering student, he tested out of my junior year of mathematics as a mathematics major! On a trip home over the holidays, my mother was embarrassed when she asked him how his mother did the laundry, only to find out that he was the seventh child of the second wife, and it was the upstairs maid that did the laundry for the children. The downstairs maid did the laundry for the adults. Malcom Cho was certainly a privileged and intelligent man.

My senior year saw five of us who leased a house near campus. After graduation, I was working at a walnut cabinet manufacturing factory helping to manufacture walnut cabinets and not doing much else. Weekends were leisurely with no responsibility of work, family, or community calling upon us.

One weekend, an irritation that arose was a neighborhood lady. She was a member of Jehovah’s Witnesses and would arrive early at the house, ring the doorbell, and want to talk about her religion. As you might imagine, none of us were interested in an early morning with her. After several weekend interruptions, my Chinese roommate, Wilson Wong, said that he would handle the problem. He had officially changed his first name to Wilson because the English pronunciation of his first and middle name didn’t exactly convey the message he wanted to convey.

Sure enough, as the next weekend rolled around the doorbell rang, and the lady and her children were ready to proselytize. Wilson answered the door and said in his Chinese-English accent: “You talk-a your religion, I talk-a my religion.” Of course, she readily agreed. He then began unbuttoning his shirt with a comment “I be a nudist, let’s take all our clothes off.” For some reason, the lady was no longer interested in our house.

I finished out that summer in relative peace until I answered Uncle Sam’s draft call to become a tank mechanic. As a tank mechanic, I worked primarily on the M88, which is basically a wrecker to retrieve damaged or bogged down tanks. Wikipedia reports a total of only 629 have been produced for the United States Army. These incredible machines were powered by two locomotive engines and were a thrill to operate.

Fortunately, Carmel has remained a safe community even as our population continues to grow. In 2023, Carmel was named as number one on a list of affordable safe suburbs in the U.S. and the safest suburb in Indiana, according to a June report in SmartAsset.

See Carmel’s 2022 crime statistics at tinyurl.com/CarmelCrimeStats2022.

In 2022, there were only two homicides in Carmel, which is amazing for a city of more than 100,000 people, which is the fifth or sixth largest city in the state (depending on the source).

Just south of Hamilton County, Indianapolis reported 226 homicides in 2022. I understand Indianapolis is about nine times the size of Carmel, and I’m not trying to pick on Indianapolis or disparage its residents or leaders, but I just wanted to show a comparison.

Every Friday of my eighth-grade year, I’d rush home from St. Bernadette Catholic School and begin the two-hour process of transforming myself from plain parochial-school introvert to heavy metal head-banger. There was nothing like the energy and camaraderie of a live show.

My city’s ice rink hosted local bands each weekend that kept us satisfied through winter. In summer, we turned to outdoor shows. It was a challenge keeping our black clothing, makeup, and giant, ratted hair looking 100 percent in 90-degree weather, but we were dedicated. We never left the house without a ratting comb. “Is my hair flat?” we’d ask each other, panic in our eyes. “Oh, no, no!” we’d answer reassuringly. “It’s really high, way up there.” We’d nod, relieved.

In college in the ‘90s, I moved on to folk-rock, jam, and grunge bands. I traded Aqua Net for my dad’s old flannel work shirts, which actually proved handy when I moved to the Minnesota Northwoods.

My roommate, Mark, was a Dead Head. He’d been to countless Grateful Dead shows and had hundreds of carefully labeled cassette tapes. Most any night of the week, other Dead Heads would come by our place with their tapes of live shows to share with Mark, and in turn they’d record some of his shows. That community around the band – the friendships

If you don’t have a safe city, you don’t have a great city.

In my opinion, crime prevention should be the top priority of local elected leaders. You can build great roads and attract top businesses and amenities to come to your city, but if people don’t feel safe going out with their family, you’ll see property values plummet and businesses begin to suffer.

There are many root causes of violent crime, such as health issues, poverty, education, family situations, etc.

One way we can address crime is making sure we have enough police officers on the street. This is a problem nationwide. An analysis of two years of U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and Census Bureau data shows a steady decline in both law enforcement jobs during the pandemic. From March 2020 to August 2022, the number of local law enforcement employees decreased by 4 percent, the most recent data show. The Census Bureau’s government payroll sur-

Overnight campouts outside of ticket counters made for new friends and great memories.

It was in Duluth, Minn., in 1994 when I last waited in a physical line for concert tickets. Neil Young’s Harvest Moon tour. Ahead of me, two middle-aged women waited. One turned to me and pointed to my Pearl Jam shirt. “You know,” she said in a thick Minnesota accent, “Neil really is the grandfather of grunge.” “Oh, yup, yup, he sure is. You betcha,” her friend agreed.

Now I’m the middle-aged woman in line for tickets. But today it’s an isolated experience. In a virtual line. I miss camping out overnight in the old chaise lounge chair dragged from the garage, spider webs and all. I miss chatting with other fans around me, watching the sun rise and listening for the click of the merchant’s door unlocking. Fortunately, the concerts themselves – that fantastic live music experience – hasn’t changed much, at least not for me. And today I can share the experience with my own kids.

Several years ago, I took my daughter to see Dave Matthews Band at an outdoor amphitheater. At the gate, we chatted with a young couple beside us. It was their first show. They were excited. My daughter was excited. It made me feel young again, if only for a moment. When I said I’d first seen the band live back in 1998, the girl’s eyes brightened. “I was born in 1998!” she said.

Overdose Lifeline, a nonprofit dedicated to helping individuals, families, and communities affected by substance use disorder, is releasing first-year results from its School Naloxone and Emergency Preparedness Project, in partnership with CareSource.

The goal for the program is to reduce stigma around substance use disorder and improve preparedness of Indiana schools to respond to an overdose situation.

A year after the implementation of the program, 88 school districts across the state of Indiana now have at least one person trained to respond to an overdose, with 505 total participants now trained. In Hamilton County, school staff at Guerin Catholic School and Sheridan Community Schools have been trained to recognize symptoms and administer naloxone safely to anyone experiencing an overdose.

“Around 90 percent of addictions in the U.S. originate during the teenage years. With this reality, it’s essential that Indiana schools are prepared to know the signs of an overdose and respond accordingly,” Overdose Lifeline Executive Director Justin Phillips said. “With our training programs, we’ve already seen progress in reducing stigma and educating school staff on appropriate responses to an overdose.”

In a survey given to participants before and after completing their training, they are asked questions about their education and skill perception regarding opioid overdose and naloxone distribution. After taking the training, 99 percent of participants were correctly able to describe how naloxone stops an overdose. The survey also shows improved responses around the misconception that the opioid overdose reversal drug naloxone encourages an individual to continue using opioids.

“Education is the best thing we can do to remove the stigma around substance use disorder,” CareSource Indiana President Steve Smitherman said. “Seeing schools across the state embrace training for their staff and continue to support children affected by SUD after this first year is a rewarding part of our partnership. We’re looking forward to seeing the impact to come over the next two years.”

Carmel mourning death of boys lacrosse coach Jack Meachum

By ASHLEY FOWLER & The REPORTER

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Carmel High School is mourning the unexpected passing of head boys lacrosse coach Jack Meachum. Meachum, 31, died in a vehicle crash last Tuesday evening, Carmel Clay Schools confirmed to News 8.

Hamilton County Sheriff’s deputies were called around 7:30 p.m. last Tuesday to a two-vehicle crash at State Road 38 and Six Points Road near Sheridan. Upon arrival, deputies found Meachum’s SUV in a ditch and a second vehicle on its roof on the side of the road.

Meachum died at the scene. The driver of the other vehicle, Brennan Smith, 26, Sheridan, died shortly after arriving at an Indianapolis hospital.

“For six years, Jack poured his heart and soul into the Carmel Lacrosse program, achieving the remarkable feat of securing a state title just last year. Jack’s impact reached far beyond the field, as he mentored our student-athletes and dedicated significant time to working with youth,” Carmel Clay Schools said in a letter to parents.

Staff and students at the high school are “heartbroken and devastated” by Meachum’s sudden passing, Carmel High School Athletics Director Jim Inskeep, said in a tweet.

“He made a significant impact on the lives of student-athletes and the Lacrosse Community in Indiana,” Inskeep wrote. “Jack was named the CHS Head Coach of the Year by his peers last week. Our prayers are with his wife, family, players, coaching staff, and friends.”

Meachum coached Carmel to its first boys lacrosse state championship in eight years when it beat Hamilton Southeastern 9-7 in the state championship game this past June at Roncalli.

In addition to his role at Carmel High School, Meacham served as the state chair for Maryland-based USA Lacrosse and was a member of the Indiana High School Lacrosse Association’s executive committee, according to his LinkedIn profile. He was a graduate of Carthage College and, more recently, the University of Indianapolis.

In a statement on Twitter, Carmel Men’s Lacrosse said, “We are saddened by the passing of Coach Jack Meachum. His impact on the Carmel Lacrosse program was undeniable and we will miss him dearly. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family, friends, and everyone of the Carmel Lacrosse family.”

Meacham was survived by his wife and family.

Carmel High School held a vigil for the coach last Wednesday at Murray Stadium, the soccer field at 520 Stadium Drive.

Obituary

Jack Meachum

November 21, 1991 – August 22, 2023

Jack Meachum, 31, Sheridan, passed on Tuesday, August 22, 2023.

Jack’s life was cut tragically short, but his time spent on this Earth was lived to the fullest. His motto in life was “Every day is a great day to have a great day.” He especially loved to recite this to his high school lacrosse team at early morning practices.

Jack gave 110% to every aspect of his life, from his love and dedication to his beautiful wife, Bethany; to coaching his Carmel High School Lacrosse Team; to being a director at True Lacrosse.

Jack grew up in Naperville, Ill. He attended Naperville North High School. From there Jack attended Carthage College in Kenosha, Wis., where he played lacrosse. After graduation Jack moved to Ashland, Wis., to build and coach Northland College’s first lacrosse team. This is where he met the love of his life, Bethany Best.

Together the two moved to Indiana to begin their life together. Jack started coaching as Carmel High School’s varsity lacrosse coach where he served for the last six years. This year Jack’s team went all the way to the state finals and won the state championship. He was named “2023 Coach of the Year” for Carmel High School. He also was honored this year as “USA Lacrosse Coach of the Year.” Jack attended graduate school at Indiana University and earned a Master’s Degree in Strategic Leadership and Design. He coached and mentored so many students and they learned through Jack’s example to be not only a great lacrosse player, but to be a person of character on and off the field.

This year, Jack married the love of his life, Bethany Meachum, on June 10. Jack loved being with his family and friends, playing hockey, running, weightlifting, anything active, and spending time up north. He was a dancing enthusiast especially when “Who Let the Dogs Out” was playing. Jack loved nothing more than spending time with his wife Bethany and his dog Moonshine.

He is survived by his wife, Bethany Meachum; parents, John and Lauren Meachum; twin siblings, Kate (Robert Bernstein) Meachum and Dan (Vicki) Meachum; and niece and nephews, Teagan, Asher, Ezra, and Quentin.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents.

Visitation and funeral services were held on Sunday, August 27, 2023, at White River Christian Church, 1685 N. 10th St., Noblesville, with Mike Morley officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Heaven After Hell Animal Rescue, 6819 W. 21st St., Indianapolis, IN 46214 (heavenafterhellrescue.org); or to the GoFundMe account at gofundme.com/6801e338.

Barbara Ann (Barmore) Sampson

November 25, 1941 – August 22, 2023

Barbara Ann (Barmore) Sampson, 81, Westfield, was born on November 25, 1941, to Denzel (Myers) Barmore and Clyde Barmore in Home Place, Ind., and was called home on August 22, 2023.

Barb's family would like to thank the staff at Wellbrooke of Westfield for their outstanding devotion and care over the last year and the staff at Paradigm Health for their wonderful hospice care and support.

Barb is survived by her loving daughter, Shannon (Sampson) Stuart, her son-in-law, Tim Stuart of Westfield and grandchildren Tyler, Siera, and Carly Stuart of Westfield. Barb was preceded in death by her husband, William (Bill) Sampson, and her parents.

Born and raised in Home Place, Barb attended Clay Center School and was part of the first class to graduate from the new Carmel High School in 1959. During her time in high school, Barb was a CHS cheerleader and a member of Sunshine Club, 4-H, National Honor Society, and Methodist Youth Fellowship. She was an excellent typist and set the record for shorthand at 100 words per minute and typewriting at 57 words per minute and worked in the Dean's Office. While a student at Indiana Central Business College, Barb was asked to teach the shorthand class for the semester when the teacher took a leave of absence. Needless to say, Barb graduated with honors and her love of teaching was born!

Barb worked as the Executive Secretary to the President of Schoolcraft, Inc. and then went on to serve as the Executive Secretary to Director of the Indianapolis Marion-County Building Authority where she met her future husband, Bill Sampson. It wasn't quite love at first sight when Bill rushed in late for his interview at the City-County Building (nine speeding tickets in hand) and ran right into Barb, the gatekeeper for the interview. When Bill landed the job of Operations Director anyway, the two worked closely together, reporting to the same boss, and decided to call a truce. On May 7, 1967, Bill and Barb became the first couple to be married at the new Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church in Home Place.

After Shannon was born in 1974, the couple moved to the "country" in Westfield where they built their home and their lives together. Barb was a member of Christ United Methodist Church in Westfield where she taught Sunday School, led VBS, worked fish fries and elephant ear booths, and, of course, taught thousands of children in the preschool over her 39-year career. Barb studied early childhood education at Marian College and served as the Director of CUMC Preschool until her retirement in 2016. She loved reading, playing, singing, crafting, going on field trips to Stuckey Farms and the Indy Zoo, performing as Chef Combo to teach good nutrition, and crafting the perfect handmade gifts and themed Mother's Teas, Dad's Days, Open Houses and Preschool Sings. Her quick wit, warm smile, playful attitude and love of learning made her the perfect first friend to so many little ones who trustingly took her hand on that first day of preschool.

Barb was a dedicated and loving daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. She was a voracious reader, and a generous and thoughtful giver who shared her love of learning and creativity with her daughter and grandkids. She spent her free time driving "Mom's taxi" to take Shannon and her friends on many adventures, sports practices, and activities in her prized baby blue 1967 Chevy Nova SS. She was a proud Brownie and Girl Scout Leader for Troop 199, a sponsor to the WMS cheerleading team, a Westfield PTO volunteer and past-president, and gave her time, talents, and money to support kids, families, and animals in need. She loved God and her pets, fed the birds and the wildlife, and helped organize and contribute to scholarship funds at CUMC Preschool and the Westfield Education Foundation. She loved games like euchre, crosswords, Tripoley, and fishing, and once held the record for the largest Muskie caught by a woman in Minnesota. Above all, she loved her family and was the biggest fan and cheerleader to her community, daughter, and grandkids in music, art, sports and life. Go CHS Greyhounds, WHS Shamrocks, Berklee Jazz Cats, Marian Knights, Ulndy Greyhounds, and Indianapolis Colts, Pacers, and Indians!

Family and friends celebrated Barb's amazing life at Randall and Roberts Funeral Center at 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville, with visitations on Saturday, August 26 and on Sunday, August 27. Funeral services were held on Sunday, August 27 at the funeral home, and graveside services immediately followed in Oaklawn Memorial Gardens.

Memorial gifts in lieu of flowers may be sent to either:

- The Liberty Acres United Rescue Animal Sanctuary, 3546 E. Mitchell Road, Liberty, IN 47353 (libertyacresunited.com) to support senior, hospice, and special needs rescued pets and farm animals in Indiana; or
- The newly-established William and Barbara Sampson Family Scholarship through the Westfield Education Foundation, 19500 Tomlinson Road, Suite B, Westfield, IN 46074 (www.wef.org/williamandbarbarasampson) to support the secondary education of Westfield students in early childhood education, not-for-profit leadership, or civil and social services.

Sheridan comes together to remember Jaxson Schooley

By DAJA STOWE
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

A 17-year-old high school student died on Saturday, Aug. 19 in a multi-vehicle crash in Tipton County, Indiana State Police say.

At 10 p.m. on Aug. 19, officers responded to a report of a fatal crash on South Main Street just north of County Road 300 South.

State police say a preliminary investigation revealed that 19-year-old Harrison Schwinn was driving a 2010 Dodge Challenger north on Main Street approaching CR 300 South. For unknown reasons, the Challenger went across the center line and into the southbound lane, hitting a 2010 Volkswagen.

Lebanon and Sheridan volleyball fans wore blue during last Tuesday's match between the Tigers and the Blackhawks to remember Sheridan junior Jaxson Schooley, who passed away in a vehicle accident on Aug. 19.

The driver of the Volkswagen was later identified as Cory Schooley, 17.

Sheridan High School student Jaxson Schooley, 17, who was in the front passenger seat of the Volkswagen, was pronounced dead by the Tipton County Coroner's Office at the scene.

Cory Schooley and Harrison Schwinn were transported to area hospitals by Samaritan Air for serious but non-life-threatening injuries.

Indiana State Police Public Information Officer Sgt. John Perrine says Jaxson Schooley was a junior at Sheridan High School.

Police say neither consumption of alcoholic beverages nor narcotics are suspected of contributing to this crash. No further information is expected to be released at this time.

Noblesville Schools partners with Noblesville Girls Softball Association for new fields

The REPORTER

The Noblesville Schools Board of Trustees recently approved a partnership agreement with the Noblesville Girls Softball Association (NGSA) that will bring new softball fields to North, Hinkle Creek, Stony Creek, and Promise Road elementary schools.

NGSA has historically used fields on property owned by Crownland Cemetery but have been asked to vacate that space to make room for an upcoming cemetery expansion.

Noblesville Schools has stepped in to ensure that NGSA has the field space needed to continue to run their programming.

"These NGSA players are in many cases our Noblesville Schools students and we wanted to be sure their facility needs were met without disruption," said David Hortemiller, chief financial officer for Noblesville Schools. "I'm pleased we were able to partner on these new fields and am excited to see them used by NGSA, Noblesville Schools students and families, and the community at large."

Construction activities are scheduled to take place in October and will include resurfacing, enhancing fencing and backstops, and relocating dugouts and bleachers. Beaver Materials is donating supplies, storage, labor, and equipment in support of the project.

The elementary fields will be NGSA's home for the next few years while the organization searches for a permanent location to accommodate all their needs in one facility. Noblesville Schools will then maintain the elementary fields for ongoing use by students and the community.

NGSA was founded in 2007 and provides fall and spring programming for approximately 300 Noblesville girls ages 4 to 18. Their leagues also support softball in Westfield, Fishers, Sheridan, Tipton, Lapel, Arcadia, and Cicero.

For more information on NGSA, visit noblesvillesoftball.com.

Millers power through Homestead to get first shutout win since 2020

By RICHIE HALL
sports@readthereporter.com

NOBLESVILLE – After making some Millers history to open the season, Logan Shoffner picked up right where he left off in the Noblesville football team's first home game of 2023 last Friday.

The senior running back scored three touchdowns, helping the Millers to a 42-0 win over Homestead at Beaver Materials Field. It was the first time Noblesville shut out an opponent since Aug. 28, 2020, when it beat Terre Haute South 50-0.

"I'm just happy for our kids," said Millers coach Dave Sharpe. "We've worked really hard. We know that we're capable of doing this. It was a great night by everybody, a total team win."

The Millers took care of business early with two touchdowns in the first quarter. Gage Gulley punched in the first score from the one-yard line, then Shoffner took off on a 50-yard blast for the second touchdown, which was followed by a two-point conversion run by Gabe Bellan.

Shoffner scored again in the second quarter with a 10-yard run. Gulley added another touchdown run, and Noblesville led 28-0 at halftime. Jack Letourneau made extra-point kicks for both second-period scores.

Shoffner added his third TD of the game midway through the third quarter. A Letourneau kick made the score 35-0, and the remainder of the contest was played under a running clock. Brody Gump scored a fourth-quarter touchdown to add to the total, with a 26-yard run to the end zone, and Letourneau finished the night with another good kick.

The Millers ground up 351 yards on the ground. Gulley totaled 124 yards, with Shoffner gaining 102 yards. Quarterback Jacob Baker was 3-for-4 in passing, totaling 29 yards. Aidan Brewer had two catches for 24 yards, with Shoffner making one reception for five yards.

"I think we're executing, because our goal is to get four or five yards every play," said Shoffner. "And we're hitting that plus some, so I think that allowed us to push the ball down the field and end up in the end zone at the end of the drive."

Shoffner broke the Noblesville career rushing record Aug. 18 during the Millers' win over Mount Vernon at Lucas Oil Stadium. Shoffner said his goal "wasn't really to break the record, I was just going out there to play and try to get a win, but it ended up happening, so it was a cherry on top."

Meanwhile, Sharpe was equally happy for his defense, noting that Noblesville's defensive players were "really ashamed of themselves because of the fourth-quarter touchdowns against Mount Vernon" in last week's game.

"They came out on fire," said Sharpe, who named about defensive player under the sun: Austin Hastings, Gavin Kinyon, Carson Cox, Jackson Peterson, Cole Richardson and Carter Richardson.

"It gives us momentum," said Shoffner. "We're not as worried, because we know that if we mess up or we have to punt – but we didn't – but we know if we have to that they got our backs and they're going to stop them next drive."

The Millers are 2-0 and play at home again Friday, beginning Hoosier Crossroads Conference play against Fishers.

"Our kids will be excited to play one of our rivals," said Sharpe. "We can't celebrate this one for more than

Guerin Catholic dominates in home opener

By JAMES SEAY
For The Reporter

The Guerin Catholic Golden Eagles were able to control the entire game for a convincing 27-3 in their home opener last Friday night. GCHS overwhelmed the Knights of Lafayette Central Catholic to win the Bishop's Cup and race to 2-0 on the season.

According to Guerin Catholic Coach Tom Dilley, the coaches were the key to the performance given the challenges they faced with the extreme heat this week.

"This was a little bit of a unique week with some of the weather concerns, but our coordinators were able to put together a good game plan and our assistant coaches were able to get their kids to execute."

The game started off slow with both teams exchanging three and outs before the Guerin offense was able to kick into gear. Senior Ryan Zimmerman was able to connect with junior Hayden Cler for two big passes to ignite the first points of the game. "We knew going into the game they would play about eight to 10 yards off the ball, we knew the hitches would be there. I just knew when I got the ball, I had to make plays," said Cler. After two big chunk gains, senior Peter Rooney was able to race into the end for the first of his three touchdowns on the game.

"I just put my head down and let the O-Line do the rest," said Rooney after his big night.

As the game progressed, the defense became increasingly stifling with junior Dylan Vargas and the rest of the team constantly hounding the LCC offense. Multiple tackles for a loss and pass breakups led to only three points on the entire game for the visiting team. Junior Malcolm Houze was pivotal as he was able to pull down two interceptions, including one in the red zone to cap off the stifling defense. "When the ball was in the air all I knew was that I had to get it. I wanted to return it, but given I was almost out of bounds I just secured it. The second interception was thrown right to me," proclaimed Houze.

Both teams suffered from several cramps which prolonged the game to just over three hours. Still, Coach Dilley was excited about his team's path for the season ahead.

"Yeah, the game certainly took a while - but we are proud of our team and will work to get better. I'm really pleased to come out with a really good performance against a really good program like LCC. Bottom line is we are going to work to be better tomorrow."

Rooney led the rushing with 194 yards in 18 carries. Fresh off the win, Rooney said that he is "looking forward to giving it 100 percent for the rest of the season" both Cler and Houze added "it would include a lot of wins."

Guerin Catholic will host Heritage Christian at 7 p.m. Friday for a battle between two undefeated teams prior to beginning Circle City conference play.

Sheridan takes down North Miami in home opener

The REPORTER

Sheridan won its first game of the season last Friday, beating North Miami 35-12 at Bud Wright Stadium.

Eli Kolb had a fantastic running game for the Blackhawks. He scored four touchdowns, including two in the first quarter. Kolb zoomed into the end zone from 55 yards to get the 'Hawks on the board just 19 seconds into the game.

Kolb also scored one touchdown each in both the third and fourth quarters. In the second period, Caleb Alexander threw a 12-yard TD pass to Nolan Page. Owen Bell was perfect in extra-point kicks, making five of five.

"We played a lot better," said Wright. One thing that helped Sheridan was the return of Zach Bales, who was out for the Blackhawks' opener.

"He returned and that really helped us," said Wright.

Sheridan is 1-1 and plays at Tri-Central on Friday.

Undefeated Huskies take down Chargers

The REPORTER

Two big touchdown throws from Bodie Derrer helped Hamilton Heights to run away from the Chargers.

The Huskies beat North Montgomery 28-12 in a home game last Friday. Both teams scored a first-quarter touchdown: Derrer punched the ball in from the one-yard line just three minutes into the period, but the Chargers answered with a 24-yard touchdown pass. The score was 6-6 at the quarter's end.

Heights had to wait until there was 3:08 left in the half to score again, but it was worth it: Derrer aired out a throw to Tyler Champion, and the junior ran it into the end zone for a 78-yard touchdown reception. Owen VanHaaren's two-point run made it 14-6 at the break.

Derrer launched another long touchdown pass in the third quarter, teaming with Keaton Weaver for a 70-yard scoring throw. Teigan Scoles' kick made it 21-6. North scored on another touchdown pass in the fourth quarter, but VanHaaren sealed the win with a one-yard touchdown run.

Derrer finished 10-of-19, totaling 258 yards. VanHaaren gained 146 yards rushing. Weaver, Champion and Jaylyn Pugh all had three receptions.

Shamrocks beat Lawrence Central in overtime

The REPORTER

Westfield won a high-scoring, back-and-forth game at Lawrence Central last Friday, getting past the Bears 59-58 in overtime to improve to 2-0 for the season.

Lawrence Central scored the first points of the game, which the Shamrocks answered with their own touchdown: Gabe Arambolles set up a short run for Jackson Gilbert, who took the ball in for Westfield's first score. The Bears answered back with another touchdown, and led 14-7 at the end of the first quarter.

Lawrence Central opened the second quarter with its third TD of the game to lead 21-7. Gilbert threw a scoring pass to Arambolles to cut that lead to 21-14, but the Bears got another touchdown pass of their own to move ahead 28-14.

The 'Rocks got the last word before halftime, as Gilbert punched in another touchdown, bringing Westfield within 28-21 at the break. Brody Boehm made all three extra-point kicks in the half.

The second half followed roughly the same pattern, with LC scoring the half's first touchdown to lead 35-21. The Shamrocks got their first score of the half courtesy Gilbert, as he followed Mikeah Webster's block into the end zone for another score. Boehm's kick brought Westfield within 35-28.

Boehm made a huge play a couple minutes later in the quarter. The Shamrocks had to punt, but Boehm placed it inside the Bears' one-yard line. Westfield's defense then stopped LC inside the end zone for a safety and cut the Bears' lead to 35-30.

Lawrence Central scored again to go up 43-30, but the Shamrocks blasted back with two touchdowns to take the lead. Gilbert threw a touchdown pass to Max Nosler, then Gilbert dove into the end zone for another TD. Boehm made both extra-point kicks, and Westfield was in front 44-43.

The Bears scored again and made a two-point conversion to go up 51-44.

Royals rack up touchdowns to get early lead, easily beat North Central

By CRAIG ADKINS
For The Reporter

INDIANAPOLIS — The Hamilton Southeastern Royals were able to figure out some things and that made it look easy last Friday night on their way to a comfortable win over North Central.

HSE made quick work of the host Panthers and were able to set it on cruise control for a majority of the night in a 35-7 win at Panther Stadium.

The Royals marched down the field quickly and wasted no time on the opening drive. Going six plays and 61 yards, Jalen Alexander punched it in from one yard out for the early 7-0 edge.

Forcing North Central to punt, it wasn't long that Southeastern was hungry for another score.

Starting the second series at the Panthers' 41, three plays later, Chandler Weston found a wide open Kameron Anthony for a 39-yard touchdown strike to make it 14-0.

"It was important for us to get off to a quick start. I thought offensively, we kind of stumbled around last week, playing against a very, very good Carroll team," said Hamilton Southeastern head coach Michael Kelly.

After a second straight punt by North Central, HSE had the ball at the Panther 49 and looked to capitalize again.

Weston found Donovan Hamilton, who broke away from his defender, for a 39-yard touchdown grab. This put the Royals in complete control at 21-0 through one quarter.

The junior signal caller was able to take his time in the pocket with the help of his offensive line.

The Tigers played with a steady offense, scoring two touchdowns in each of the first three quarters. Noah McPeck caught a 20-yard scoring pass from Bennett Gorak for the first TD, then Khobie Martin made a short scoring run. Jonathan Tangara's kicks made the first-quarter score 14-0.

Sekai Bogle took over in the second period, with two touchdown runs. Fishers led 27-0 at halftime, then hit the 40-point mark for the second consecutive game in the third period. Martin punched the ball in from the one-yard line, Gorak connected with JonAnthony Hall on a 42-yard pass play touchdown.

Martin gained 173 yards on the ground, with Hall making six receptions. Go-rak was 14-of-24, totaling 196 passing yards. Joshua McGuire led the tackles with nine; both he and Tony Akinbobola made six solo tackles. Ife Adeoba had one sack.

Shoffner said that the team is getting "locked in," because he noted that the

"The competition is crazy good, so we got to really lock in this coming week," said Shoffner. "We got Fishers coming up at home, so we got to get prepared for that and be ready to go. Golden Eagles & Greyhounds each claim trophies at Shirley Men's Tennis Invitational

sports@readthereporter.com

INDIANAPOLIS – There were two Hamilton County champions at last Saturday's 26th annual John Shirley Men's Tennis Invitational, which took place at North Central's beautifully renovated Barbara Wynne Tennis Center.

Carmel finished as co-champion in the Shirley Division, sharing the team title with Brebeuf Jesuit. Both teams scored 34 points. Meanwhile in the Buckley Division, Guerin Catholic had a dominant day, scoring 45 points to claim the trophy in that division.

No team won more than one flight in the Shirley Division. The Greyhounds were first in No. 1 doubles, where junior Michael Bao and freshman Grant Mu beat the Braves' team of juniors Ethan Birge and Anthony Suscha 6-3, 6-2 in the first-place match.

Carmel and Brebeuf also squared off in the No. 2 singles championship. Braves freshman Tony Tancredi won a very close match, 6-4, 3-6, 10-8 over 'Hounds sophomore Wes Worobel. (The third-set was played as a 10-point

Carmel finished in third place in the other three flights: No. 1 singles (senior Braedon McIntyre), No. 3 singles (freshman David Liu) and No. 2 doubles (sophomores Sanjith Boddu and Andrew Kim). The Braves also were the runner-up at No. 3 singles and placed fourth in No. 1 singles and No. 2 doubles.

"The top teams duked it out and I think in the eyes of most people it's going to leave the state pretty wide open for who's going to be there at the end," said Greyhounds coach Dan Brunette.

All in the finals
Over in the Buckley Division, the Golden Eagles reached the championship match in all five flights, totaling 45 points, well ahead of runner-up Cathedral's 28 points.

Guerin Catholic won at No. 1 singles and No. 2 doubles. Senior Max Fuller beat Cathedral junior Charlie Coleman 6-1, 6-2 for the singles victory, while the doubles team of freshman Jake Husmann and senior Sean Loub beat Terre Haute South's team, junior Tyler Swan and senior Nathan Wright, 6-4, 6-3.

Finishing as runners-up were freshman Charlie Phillips at No. 2 singles, sophomore David Cacchillo at No. 3 singles and the No. 1 doubles team of junior Rhys Garrison and senior Alejandro Torres. As a result of the win, the Golden Eagles will move up to the Shirley Division in next year's tournament.

"I know we won the Buckley when I was a player," said second-year GC coach Wyatt Metzger, who graduated from Guerin Catholic in 2018. "But not at this level, not at the way we came out and competed, dominated across the board. Just really happy with the depth we showed, the heart we showed across the board."

Fishers and Hamilton Southeastern both played in the Shirley Division, and finished tied for sixth place. Both teams scored 10 points. The Tigers got a fourth-place finish from senior Cooper Valance in No. 3 singles and a fifth-place result from junior Vaughn Curtis and sophomore Es-han Jain in No. 1 doubles. As for the Royals, No. 1 singles, junior Alex Piercy and the No. 2 doubles team of freshman Brady Stump and senior Alex White all placed fifth.

ROCKS

But the 'Rocks came back, with Gilbert throwing a touchdown pass to Parker Knott. Boehm's kick tied it up at 51-51, which was the score at the end of regulation.

The overtime period also went down to the wire. Lawrence Central won the toss and started on offense, scoring on its first play. Westfield then got the ball, and needed a fourth down before Kendall Garnett punched the ball in. The Shamrocks went for two, and Garnett stepped up again, running the ball in and getting Westfield the victory.

Gilbert had an outstanding game, completing 21 of 31 pass attempts for 270 yards. He had three passing touchdowns, plus his four rushing touchdowns, totaling 43 yards on the ground.

Garnett was the leading rusher with 118 yards and his fourth-quarter touchdown. Aramboles led the receptions with seven (128 yards), followed by Garnett and Knott with four each, and Nosler and Beau Braun with three each.

Anthony Feltrinelli led the tackles with 12. Andrew Lieske had 11 stops and a fumble recovery.

The Shamrocks are 2-0 and begin Hoosier Crossroads Conference play Friday at Zionsville.

ROYALS

"Our offensive line, that's one of the strengths of our team right now. We've got two really, really good tackles and then the interior guys do a nice job and we're working on moving our feet and making sure we stay in front of people. That's a huge credit to Coach Radican and the job he does developing players. And, Coach Gorin and Coach Mussleman do a fine job getting those guys ready to go," continued Kelly.

The offense kept coming at the Panthers in the second, but not as heavy. AZ Wallace muscled his way for the fourth HSE score of the first half that put the Royals up 28-0 after two quarters.

North Central started to play better defense in the third. They both turned the ball over on downs to start the second half.

Southeastern put the game out of reach late in the third when Weston took advantage of a Panther defensive back leaving Dylan James open for a 48-yard touchdown pass. That made it 35-0, making it a running clock for the duration of the game.

Early in the fourth, North Central showed some signs that they weren't going away quietly. Jimmel Perryman dove into the end zone from one-yard away that accounted for the final score of 35-7.

Jimmel Perryman led the Panthers with 19 carries and 79 yards and a TD.

North Central drops to (0-2) on the season and has now lost 14 games in a row, dating back to the 2021 season. The Panthers visit Warren Central to open Metropolitan Conference play next week.

AZ Wallace led the Royals on the ground with 66 yards on seven totes. Jalen Alexander carries seven times for 31 yards. Donovan Hamilton caught four passes for 66 yards, Dylan James two for 54 yards and Kameron Anthony one for 39 yards. They each scored a TD.

Hamilton Southeastern (2-0) hosts Avon (0-2) Friday in the first game of a grueling Hoosier Crossroads Conference schedule.

"The reality is, in our conference, there are no weeks off. You've got to make sure you come ready to go to work. They have a QB that's a veteran, well-seasoned. He's explosive with plays, so he's going to be a challenge for us. We're going to see how good we are next week, trying to bottle him up," stated Kelly.

Carmel boys basketball Walt Morris getting the word out on aortic dissection symptoms

By RICHIE HALL
sports@readthereporter.com

Last summer, Walt Morris learned a lesson that he now wants to teach other people.

The longtime basketball coach and Noblesville native was having several episodes of neck and jaw pain, and it came to a breaking point on July 25, 2022. Morris soon learned he had an aortic dissection, which required a lengthy surgery.

But Morris got through the surgery, and now wants to spread the word about the symptoms, and the need to get help right away - something that saved his life.

"I don't want anybody else to go through what I did," said Morris. "I'm fortunate to be here."

Early symptoms

A couple months prior to his diagnosis, Morris said he was having episodes where he was having trouble swallowing and started sweating. He was also having neck pain and "a lot of jaw pain."

"I blew it off, which wasn't smart," he said.

On that fateful day, Morris said he had just finished a three-mile walk/run. When he got home, he was experiencing "jaw pain from my ear to my jaw," that he said knocked him to the ground. A man tried to help him up, but he walked back to his house.

Once he got home, he told his wife Lisa, who immediately got her husband to Riverview Health in Noblesville.

Morris participated in a series of tests that lasted the entire day. The doctors kept him overnight so he could have an ultrasound electrocardiogram (EKG) test. What was supposed to be a half-hour test lasted a minute and a half, after which they diagnosed Morris with an aortic dissection, in which a tear occurs in the inner layer of the aorta, which is the body's main artery. The ensuing rush of blood through the tear causes the inner and middle layers of the aorta to split, or dissect. (More information from the Mayo Clinic at tinyurl.com/Mayo-AorticDissection.)

Minutes later, Morris was in an ambulance for a drive to Ascension St. Vincent Heart Hospital in Carmel.

"That was a bit surreal," said Morris. He remained calm and said prayers for his family during the ambulance ride, which Morris estimated took about 15 to 20 minutes.

The surgeons and staff were waiting for Morris when he arrived. The resulting surgery took 11 hours, but when it was done, Morris said "those incredible doctors somehow saved my life. Most men, you find them somewhere."

While the surgery was a success, it also required a few months for Morris to recover. That included getting back to his assistant coach duties with the Carmel boys basketball team, helping head coach Ryan Osborn.

"I thought I wasn't going to be able to coach and a lot of things were over," said Morris. "Coach Osborn was very patient."

"It was definitely a scary situation," said Osborn. "I think we're very fortunate that his wife was home and knowledgeable of the situation, and able to get him the care that he needed."

But by late September, Morris was able to get back to business with the Greyhounds.

"It takes a while," said Morris. "You get your body opened up like that. It was scary for a while."

The 63-year-old Morris' main message with his story is that if anyone is having these symptoms, they need to get checked out right away. Morris was going through his daily routine in the months prior to his aortic dissection, but ignored the symptoms.

"I was physically active, worked the whole month of June," said Morris. Meanwhile, he felt those symptoms and "blew it off." He noted that the same condition can happen to "very active people, some of them in much better shape than I am. If you have this, it doesn't matter."

Another important aspect is family history. If patients mention that someone in their family have a history of this condition, a test will be set up quickly.

"If they don't say anything doctors and physicians aren't going to bring it up," said Morris. Patients have to be willing to go to bat for themselves in order to get the test.

"My father had an aneurysm at age 69," said Morris. "That's the other part, it was in my family history. I never told my doctor about it or my cardiologist. I didn't let them know, so there was no way to set me up for the EKG that I needed."

After Morris' episode, everyone in his family got tested. His sister also had the exact same condition as Morris, and she had the same surgery that her brother had.

"They did her surgery in February," said Morris. "She's doing great now."

One year later

Almost one year to the day after Morris' surgery, he put out a video that was posted on the Carmel boys' basketball Twitter account. The video lasts 1 minute and 23 seconds, but it makes its point very concisely.

Morris talked to Osborn, who said that if he could "put a good quality, short video together, we'll put it on our Twitter."

"It was Ryan's idea to do that," said Morris.

"I think as teachers and coaches, we talk about the negative impacts of social media, and it's also proven in this scenario that it's a positive," said Osborn. Since it was posted on July 26, the tweet has received over 28,300 views. (You can view the video at tinyurl.com/CoachMorrisVideo.)

"He sat on it and really felt compelled to use it as a way to make an impact, and it's just the type of guy that Walt is, super positive and always wanting to help people," said Osborn. "Through this, he's been able to accomplish that."

Now ready to go for another season of Carmel boys basketball, Morris is happy to be back to his regular routine.

"I'm walking four and a half miles a day now, doing all of my normal part-time jobs, feeling better than I ever felt in a long time," he said.

And with this new lease on life, Morris also wants other people to be aware of the symptoms and to make sure they are ready to take action to save their own lives.

"I'm never going to know if this helps anybody," said Morris. "My job's to get it out."

"I just want to get this message out, hopefully save some people," he said.

Carmel boys basketball assistant coach Walt Morris went through an 11-hour surgery last July to repair an aortic dissection. Morris wants to share his story to make people aware of the symptoms and be ready to take action to save their own lives.

Hamilton County

Pursuant to the laws of the Indiana General Assembly, notice is hereby given that the following described property is listed for sale for delinquent taxes and/or special assessments. The county auditor and county treasurer will apply on or after 09/22/2023 for a court judgment against the tracts or real property for an amount that is not less than the amount set out below and for an order to sell the tracts or real property at public auction to the highest bidder, subject to the right of redemption. Any defense to the application for judgment must be filed with the Hamilton County Superior 3 Court and served on the county auditor and treasurer before 09/22/2023. The court will set a date for a hearing at least seven (7) days before the advertised date of sale and the court will determine any defenses to the application for judgment at the hearing. The county auditor and the county treasurer are entitled to receive all pleadings, motions, petitions, and other filings related to the defense to the application for judgment.

Such sale will be held on 10/12/2023 at the 2nd Floor Historic Courtroom, 33 N 9th St., Noblesville, In 46060 and that sale will continue until all tracts and real property have been offered for sale. At the discretion of local officials, the tax sale may switch to an online format. If those measures are taking place, the public auction will be conducted as an electronic sale under IC 6-1.1-24-2 (b) 10 at www.zeusauction.com commencing on the same date/time listed above. All location updates will be posted at www.sriservices.com prior to the tax sale.

Property will not be sold for an amount which is less than the sum of: (A) the delinquent taxes and special assessments on each tract or item of real property; and

(B) the taxes and special assessments on the real property that are due and payable in the year of the sale, whether or not they are delinquent; and

(C) all penalties due on the delinquencies, and
(D) an amount prescribed by the county auditor that equals the sum of: (1) fifty-five dollars ($55) for postage and publication costs; and (2) any other costs incurred by the county that are directly attributable to the tax sale; and

(E) any unpaid costs due under IC 6-1.1-24-2(c) from a prior tax sale. No property listed below shall be sold if, at any time before the sale, the Total Amount for Judgment is paid in full. If the real property is sold in the tax sale, the amount required to redeem such property will be 110% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, if redeemed not more than six (6) months after the date of sale, or 115% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, if redeemed more than six (6) months after the date of sale, plus the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the real property plus five percent (5%) per annum interest on the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the property. All taxes and special assessments upon the property paid by the purchaser subsequent to the sale, plus five percent (5%) per annum interest on those taxes and special assessments, will also be required to be paid to redeem such property.

In addition, IC 6-1.1-25-2 (e) states the total amount required for redemption may include the following costs incurred and paid by the purchaser or the purchaser's assignee or the county before redemption: (1) The attorney's fees and cost of giving notice under IC 6-1.1-25-4.5; (2) The costs of title search or examining and update the abstract of title for the tract or item of real property. The period of redemption shall expire on Monday, October 14, 2024 for certificates sold in the tax sale. For certificates struck to the county, the period of redemption may expire Friday, February 09, 2024.

If the tract or item of real property is sold for an amount more than the minimum bid and the property is not redeemed, the owner of record of the property who is divested of ownership at the time the tax deed is issued may have a right to the tax sale surplus.

The Auditor and Treasurer specifically reserve the right to withhold from the sale any parcel which has been listed in error, or which otherwise becomes ineligible for sale either prior to 10/12/2023 or during the duration of the sale.

This notice of real property tax sale, and the tax sale itself are undertaken and will be conducted pursuant to the requirements of the laws of the State of Indiana which regulate the sale of land for delinquent taxes, pursuant to I.C. 6-1.1-24-1 et seq.

The County does not warrant the accuracy of the street address or common description of the property, and a misstatement in the key number or street address does not invalidate an otherwise valid sale.

Minimum bid amounts are prescribed by law and are subject to change prior to the auction date.

Pursuant to IC 6-1.1-24-3(e), property descriptions may be omitted for properties appearing on the certified list in consecutive years. A complete property list may be obtained at www.sriservices.com or in an alternative form upon request.

The City of Noblesville Redevelopment Commission (the "Commission"), the governing body of the Department of Redevelopment and the Redevelopment District of the City of Noblesville, Indiana (the "City"), has executed, and determined to enter into a Lease Agreement (the "Lease") with the City of Noblesville Redevelopment Authority (the "Authority"), to provide for the lease by the Commission, as Lessee, from the Authority, as Lessor, of certain real estate consisting of Phases II and III of the Pleasant Street Corridor project, all in connection with the accomplishment of the economic development and redevelopment plans for the Noblesville Downtown Redevelopment Area, the Hazel Dell Economic Development Area and the Pleasant Street Economic Development Area (collectively, the "Areas"). The Lease will enable the Authority to finance the costs of (i) the planning, designing and construction of the Pleasant Street Corridor from the intersection of 10th and Pleasant Street, east to just east of the intersection of Pleasant Street and 19th Street, and from the intersection of Hague Road/State Road 32 to just west of River Road, together with all necessary appurtenances, related improvements and equipment, in, serving or benefiting the Areas (collectively, the "Phases II and III Project"), (ii) the refinancing of outstanding Redevelopment District Bond Anticipation Notes of 2022 of the Commission (the proceeds of which were used to provide preliminary funding for the Phases II and III Project) and (iii) costs of such financing. The Lease provides for payment by the Commission of lease rentals from a special benefits tax levied under Indiana Code 36-7-14-27, to the extent not paid from tax increment revenues from the allocation area for the Pleasant Street Economic Development Area and any road impact fee revenues pledged by the City to the Commission for such purpose. After a public hearing held on the proposed Lease by the Commission on August 17, 2023, at which all interested parties were provided the opportunity to be heard, the Commission adopted a resolution, which among other things, authorized and directed the President and Secretary of the Commission to execute and deliver the Lease in substantially the form presented to the meeting and further found that the rental payments to be made by the Commission are fair and reasonable and that the use of the leased premises under the Lease throughout the term thereof will serve the public purposes of the City and is in the best interests of the residents of the City. Geared towards fun: Academy Sports + Outdoors opens new Westfield store

By RICHIE HALL

WESTFIELD – Attention, class: Academy Sports + Outdoors is open for business.

The assignment for those who attend this Academy is to get outside and “Have Fun Out There,” according to its hashtag on X, formerly known as Twitter. The 85-year-old sports and outdoors store is officially opening its first Indianapolis-area location right here in Hamilton County last week.

Academy is located at 1960 Greyhound Pass, just north of the Westfield-Carmel border in the building that had formerly been occupied by Marsh Supermarket. Customers were already in the store on Thursday, taking advantage of a wide selection of sporting goods and outdoor gear.

And there is quite a selection in the 75,000 square-foot store.

“This store is a sports and outdoor store, so we have everything from hunting, fishing, camping, kayaking,” said Khatijah Smith, the store director of the Westfield-Carmel location. In addition to the outdoors section, Academy also offers goods for various sports, including basketball, baseball, golfing, ice hockey, wrestling, football and much more.

“Geared towards fun,” said Smith.

Academy’s clothing and shoe selection ranges from national brands such as NIKE, Columbia, adidas and the North Face, as well as private labels such as BCG, Magellan Outdoors, Freely and Roe. There’s also plenty of team apparel available for fans, including for the Indianapolis Colts, Indiana Pacers and college teams.

The fishing section has everything from bait – including the store’s private label, H2OX – to electronic fishfinders.

“Everything in our fishing department can be for the professional angler to just somebody who’s a beginner, intermediate,” said Smith. “We do also like to highlight our reel bar. We do free line spooling as well for our customers.”

If you also enjoy eating outdoors as much as playing outdoors, there is a sizable grilling section at Academy. The store offers charcoal and gas grills, along with a good-sized selection of spices to flavor up your food.

Academy got its start as the Academy Tire Shop, which opened back in 1938 in San Antonio, Texas. The store became a military surplus store the following year, moved to Austin, Texas in 1956, then to Houston in 1978. Two years later, Academy began offering sports and outdoor items.

In 1990, the Academy headquarters relocated to its current home in Katy, Texas, and soon began expanding across the country. Academy entered Indiana in 2014 and Academy invited 20 children who are involved with the Indianapolis Police Athletic League to the store for a $5,000 donation. Each child received a $150 Academy gift card, while the Indy P.A.L. received a $2,000 gift card. Indiana Pacers star Isiah Jackson and Indianapolis Indians mascot Rowdie were also on hand to greet the children.

had four locations (Evansville, Terre Haute, Jeffersonville and Lafayette) before opening its fifth Hoosier state location here in Hamilton County. Academy also will soon be opening a sixth Indiana location in Avon.

“We just want to find a community that we can be engaged and involved with and just provide more fun for all,” said Smith.

Even before its grand opening, Academy is giving back to the Indianapolis area. The store invited 20 children who are involved with the Indianapolis Police Athletic League to the store last Thursday afternoon for a $5,000 donation. Each child received a $150 Academy gift card to shop the store, then Academy donated a $2,000 gift card to Indy P.A.L. to purchase new equipment for the program. Indiana Pacers star Isiah Jackson and Indianapolis Indians mascot Rowdie were also on hand to greet the children.

The kids were happy to receive the gift cards, and Sgt. Babacar Diouf, the supervisor sergeant of the Police Athletic League, was overjoyed at the donation of the $2,000 card, something that will benefit the kids in the P.A.L.

“We’re trying to build that future generation through sports, through mentoring, mentorship, but also with parental involvement, because those three things are very important for our growth and what we’re trying to do,” said Diouf. He also said that if the P.A.L. expands, “the future is a little bit brighter and also safer for the kids,” and opportunities will be provided to them so they can be more successful.

Ribbon cutting

Academy officially cut the ribbon on its store at 8:40 a.m. last Friday. Team members and leadership welcomed customers, along with Indianapolis sports mascots Zeke (Indy Eleven), Boomer (Indiana Pacers) and Freddy Fever with the city’s WNBA team.

Academy will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. every Sunday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Fridays and 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturdays. For more information, visit academy.com/Westfield.
