The call

COLUMNIST

MEGAN RATHZ

When Nature Speaks

We finally got the call that my family has been waiting and praying for.

It was a Saturday night in January. My husband and I had just finished dinner and were enjoying a glass of wine when my sister called. I knew that she was downtown that evening and didn't expect her to be calling, so I quickly answered.

I was met with the words that I had been longing to hear from her: "We got the call! We have a baby. We are going up tomorrow to the hospital."

You see, my sister and her husband have been waiting to be selected for adoption. They went through a very long and emotionally draining vetting process and knew that any day they could get the call. The days of waiting turned into weeks and months.

They had a nursery ready in their home that was anxiously filled with outfits and special touches; all it was missing was a baby. We knew that it could happen like this. We did not know when, but we knew that any day we could get a call and have our baby. My sister and her husband have been through so much to become parents. I've never seen two people fight harder to have a child and go through more to have a baby. They went through failed adoptions, infertility, and heartbreak in the loss of my brother-in-law's mother.

This Friday, get ready for Gino & Eddie

The REPORTER

This Friday, April 19, you can hear Gino and Ed at Patsy's Pub, 17419 Carey Road, Westfield. It's live music from a bygone era. The Reporter caught up with Gino and Ed during open mic night on Tuesday, which the duo was using as a brief prequel to their Friday night performance.

Gino Gulley, though only in his mid-20s, told The Reporter his influences are largely from performers like Johnny Cash and Elvis, which is the music he grew up listening to.

Ed Pithey has been playing saxophone almost since the day he could walk. Pithey is a former Marine Corps musician who met Gino early this year.

If you like your live music to have shades of soul and Americana, stop by Patsy's Pub Friday from 9 to 11 p.m. and be sure to wish Gino a late happy birthday, since his was

THE CALL

I sat on the couch with the phone on speaker phone and both my husband and I cried tears of joy. We were flooded with excitement, and, of course, worry because of the uncertainty. What if things fall through and the birth mother changes her mind? What will this do to my sister and brother-in-law? Can they handle more heartbreak? Please, God, if this is meant to be, let him be their child and we wrap our arms around him. Please don't break their hearts again.

I asked her if it was a boy or a girl. My sister said that all they knew was they had been matched and they were meeting the birth mom with the baby at the hospital the next morning.

I went to sleep that evening knowing that our worlds were about to change. The next morning, I woke up to another phone call from my sister saying that the little baby was a boy, and they were headed a couple of hours up north to meet him.

My sister and brother-in-law made their way to the hospital and found the room. They met the birth mother and her family and got to know each other. Meanwhile, back at home, the following days were spent in prayer and were riddled with anxiety. What if the birth mom meets them and decides to parent? As a mom, I cannot imagine the decision of placing your child for adoption and the emotional toll that would take on a family. As the hopeful soon-to-be aunt and sister, I just wanted her to sign the papers and know how much my family was going to love and cherish this baby.

My mom and I would proceed to text my sister on a loop, trying to find out what was going on a few hours north in a hospital, with a woman we have never met, who now held the hearts of my sister and brother-in-law in her hands.

Sunday turned into Monday and I'm at work trying to focus and not psychotically check my phone every two seconds to see if there was an update. My mom would ask me if I talked to my sister, and I'd do the same to her.

People my sister has never met were praying rosaries near and far, and pleading that God protect this child and their hearts.

Stay tuned for next time to see what happens.

Her album Embrace Me featured standards like "All of You" and "Nice Work if You Can Get It" earning praise from JazzTimes: "Natalie Cole. Norah Jones. A jazz vocalist, The New York Times hails Bennett's voice as a blend of Billie Holiday, Rickie Lee Jones, with a hint of Betty Boop. Growing up surrounded by music greats, including her father, Rosemary Clooney, Ella Fitzgerald, and Frank Sinatra, her musical journey began early. After completing her studies at Berklee College of Music, she shared the stage with her father at renowned venues worldwide, including Radio City Music Hall, the Hollywood Bowl, the Newport Jazz Festival, and London's Royal Albert Hall.

CCC Breakfast

It was an inspiring and unforgettable morning at our 16th annual Create, Connect, and Commit Fundraising Breakfast last month. The Janus choir kicked off the event with an amazing performance of the song, "Lean on Me" By Bill Withers, followed by a powerful video testimony from one of our participants.

For the first time ever, we welcomed "The Chalk Guy," Ben Glenn, to present a breathtaking live art performance created with – you guessed it – chalk! During his performance, Glenn also shared his personal journey with ADHD and how he has overcome his own obstacles. Each guest left with a deeper understanding of what it looks like to live with a disability, and exactly how Janus is passionately supporting people towards achieving their goals.

Coffee Bar

Thanks to a generous sponsorship by Indiana Members Credit Union, Janus is now able to offer a weekly coffee bar every Monday from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. This has quickly become everyone's favorite way to start the week. Coffee Bar is a great place to volunteer, serve coffee, and get to know our participants.

Kelsey gets her dream job

Kelsey has a bright and sunny personality. She loves her family and all things Disney.

Kelsey began looking for a job in the community in addition to her current jobs working twice a month at the Janus Capabilities Café in Noblesville, and at Janus Developmental Services twice a week. She was open to working anywhere, but expressed a desire to work someplace where she could put her excellent organizational skills to good use. She was very excited when she learned that a new Goodwill store was opening close to her home and couldn't wait to apply for a job. After she submitted her application, it wasn't long before she found out she was hired!

This was Kelsey's first time accepting a job in the community. Congratulations Kelsey!

Hamilton County Master Gardeners are back

They are hard at work even in the colder months to prepare seeds for planting. Then, participants learn how to water, weed, and tend to the garden as the seeds grow. Eventually,

But I can love you like nobody can, even better

A.R. Gurney is well-known for his plays The Dining Room, Love Letters, and The Dinner Party. His comedy Sylvia opened off-Broadway in 1995. The story of an unusual romantic triangle between a man, his wife, and their female dog, Sylvia, was immediately hailed as “a delightful fantasy,” and “delicious and dizzy.”

The Valley Theatre's inaugural production, directed by Larry Adams, certainly fetches that description.

When Greg brings Sylvia into the couple's empty-nested apartment, his wife Kate objects to the idea. The needy pet gains a rather strong hold on Greg's heart-strings, and he loses interest in his already troublesome job. As Sylvia challenges Kate for his affections, Kate worries about the changes in her husband and seeks an answer from friends and professionals.

Four friends, Mason and Andrea Odle, Amber Shatto, and JB Scoble, fill the roles of the play. Not surprisingly, the Odles are very comfortable as the couple. They easily play off each other and provide the comic conflict for the storyline. Mr. Odle is extremely expressive throughout. Ms. Odle finds the proper frustrations in Kate's problems.

Ms. Shatto is marvelously lively and cute as the title character. Her Sylvia is a playful, opinionated, lusty doggy. The fact that Sylvia can talk to Greg and Kate never seems odd – she just can, which is Gurney's genius at work.

JB Scoble nearly steals the show – okay, not nearly – most definitely steals it with his three stage personae. His guy in the park, Tom, is a New Yorker full of apt bookish advice for Greg's situation. His turn as Kate's high society friend Phyllis is riotously funny. And his genderless therapist Leslie is truly something you don't want to miss.

These players all work together to bring an at times hilarious, at times thoughtful, and at times touching and sweet story to life. Gurney's script is full of reflections on, in his words “the need to connect in an increasingly alien and impersonal world.” That idea is much accomplished here.

The show is not without need of some adjustment, in my humble opinion. It runs to nearly two and a half hours – with intermission. That is curable with a bit more attention by director

Adams to pace and tempo. There are many moments of languishing dialogue – full of long pauses where cues could be picked up more quickly. That one correction alone would make the action more realistic – though talking with a dog is hardly that, I know.

Bottom line: It is a lot of fun for me seeing four friends of mine putting on a show directed by another very good friend. Fun to laugh at their antics and fun to see the enjoyment they all get from doing community theatre together. Their hard work has paid off in this show as was shown by the well-earned standing ovation they received. Go see it!

Sylvia continues at The Cat in Carmel through April 21. Tickets can be purchased at this link.

State Rep. Garcia Wilburn requests summer study committee to explore remedies for insufficient sentencing of Officer Breann Leath's killer

The REPORTER

Earlier this month, Elliahs Dorsey was sentenced to time served for killing Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department Officer Breann Leath in April 2020.

In response, State Rep. Victoria Garcia Wilburn (D-Fishers), along with her colleague State Rep. Mitch Gore (D-Indianapolis), asked General Assembly leadership to assign the topic of increasing the crime of reckless homicide to a Level 3 felony to an interim study committee this year. Currently, reckless homicide is a Level 5 felony, carrying a sentence of one to six years. Level 3 felonies carry a sentencing range of three to 16 years in prison.

Garcia Wilburn issued the following statement on the request:

“As the wife of a former IMPD officer, I was troubled by this month's news that Officer Breann Leath's killer was sentenced to time served for killing her. This occurred because Elliahs Dorsey was charged with reckless homicide, a crime that carries a sentence of one to six years in prison in Indiana, and the judge ruled that his four years in jail was enough.

“While I am disappointed in Judge Stoner's decision to not sentence Dorsey to the maximum allowable sentence, this case has prompted a big question for Rep. Gore, the Central Indiana law enforcement community and myself:

Garcia Wilburn

Why does reckless homicide, the killing of another human being, potentially carry a minimum sentence of one year? In the context of Indiana's criminal statute system, I believe that increasing reckless homicide to a Level 3 felony and thus a three-to-16-year sentence is fair and would make better amends for a homicide that is committed recklessly but committed nonetheless.

“I implore my fellow General Assembly lawmakers to join me in asking legislative leadership to add this issue to the summer study committee docket this interim. It's what Bre and other victims of reckless homicide deserve.”

Senator Todd Young & colleagues pass resolution establishing World Quantum Day

The REPORTER
Last night, the United States Senate unanimously passed a bipartisan resolution introduced by Senators Todd Young (R-Ind.), Maggie Hassan (D-N.H.), Marsha Blackburn (R-Tenn.), and Maria Cantwell (D-Wash.) to commemorate and support the goals of World Quantum Day, which is recognized annually on April 14.

The resolution highlights the importance of the quantum mechanics that are part of the technologies used in everyday life, such as semiconductors, GPS systems, and MRI imaging. The U.S. has been a pioneer in revolutionary quantum technologies and this resolution recognizes that legacy.

"Quantum science continues to create revolutionary technology and will help America secure our competitive advantage," Sen. Young said. "We must provide children and schools with the resource-as to introduce quantum concepts early and encourage participation in our growing STEM workforce. The World Quantum Day initiative is an important reminder of the progress already made in this technology field and the need to ensure our children have the skills they need to continue that progress in the future."

Centier Bank donates $65,000 to Indiana United Way Agencies

The REPORTER

Centier Bank recently presented a $65,000 gift to United Way of NWI, impacting nine United Way agencies across Indiana as part of its annual Workplace Campaign. The donated dollars are a sum gathered by associate contributions and a corporate gift and will impact approximately 600,000 individuals throughout the state, helping serve more than 100 local United Way programs.

For more than 50 years, Indiana United Way Agencies have been working to improve lives across the globe through health, education, and financial stability programs. For the past several years, Centier Bank has partnered with United Way chapters across the state, resulting in the advancement of initiatives designed to impact thousands of families and individuals in need.

The donation supports the United Way organizations in the 11 counties in which Centier serves, including Lake, Porter, LaPorte, St. Joseph, Elkhart, Marshall, Allen, Tippecanoe, Boone, Marion, and Hamilton counties.

Anthony Contrucci, President of First Bancshares, Inc., Centier Bank's parent company, said Centier associates express great enthusiasm given the opportunity to donate to the United Way and look forward to participating in the annual campaign each year, which is another way Centier Bank strives to enrich lives across the communities that the bank has the privilege to serve.

"Our passion for the United Way remains strong and I was excited to see that this year's campaign marks a significant milestone for us," Contrucci said. "What I am most proud of is that this campaign is truly led by our associates. It is their passion and generosity that inspires me! I am blessed to be able to work alongside these caring individuals, the Centier family. It has been fantastic to observe the increase in the associate's participation rate year after year, and remarkable that this year marks both our highest participation rate and largest dollar contribution in the history of our participation in this impactful campaign."

Adam O'Doherty, President and CEO of United Way of Northwest Indiana, said the United Way of NWI's Level Up initiative focuses on enhancing educational outcomes, financial stability, and literacy for community members, with over 300 participants and 143 recent graduates experiencing skill advancement and increased wages. Additionally, the program supports career development, job training, and budgeting skills, empowering individuals for economic independence and contributing to breaking the cycle of poverty in the NWI community.

The largest barriers to achieve, O'Doherty said, are breakthroughs in child-care, transportation, and healthcare needs.

"The donation that Centier has made will be instrumental in continuing funding these barriers," O'Doherty said. "Thank you, Centier Bank and all the employees who have contributed to United Way. The Centier family are truly champions of the communities they serve. With the dollars we received, we were able to not only grow our Level Up program, but we were also able to partner with many other agencies to make a direct impact in the communities we serve."

O'Doherty shared the current return on investment has already generated over $10 million back into the communities which equates to over a 300 percent return on investment.

"We could not have made this far without the help of each of the Centier associates who pitched in," he said.

August 10, 1936 – April 13, 2024

Margaret “Peggy” Mary (Orton) Ricker, 87, Noblesville, passed away peacefully at her home on April 13, 2024. She was born on August 10, 1936, in Waukesha, Wis., to the late Hugh T. and Anne Marie (Torer) Roberts. After graduation she worked as a reporter for the Monroe Evening Times in Monroe, Wis. She also worked as a nurse’s aide at the Monroe Clinic. Peggy met the first love of her life, James R. Orton, in April of 1956 and they were married six months later on October 14, 1956, in Brodhead, Wis. They were married for 36 years until the time of Jim’s death in March of 1993. Together they had four children, James Jr. (Sherry) of Hayward, Wis., Sandy (Dave) Simons of Hudson, Wis., Connie Orton of Indiana, and Scott (Shelly) Orton of Hayward. Peggy and Jim lived their first 13 years of marriage in Monroe, Wis. where Peggy was an Administrative Assistant for The Swiss Colony.

In 1969, they moved their family to Hayward, Wis. Peggy was an active member of the local Christian Women’s Club which eventually led to a 20-year speaking opportunity traveling throughout the Midwest. She was also an Executive Staff Member of Governor Tommy Thompson’s Northern Office. While in Hayward she loved to fish, hunt, golf and volunteer at Hayward Wesleyan Church and her community. A few years after Jim’s death, Peggy moved to Brooksville, Fla., and built a home in Wesleyan Village.

On March 28, 1998, she married the second love of her life, Reverend James J. Ricker. Peggy and Jim have spent the entirety of their retired years ministering and serving in the name of Christ on a local, national, and global level, including four extended African and South American mission trips. In 2020, Jim and Peggy left Florida and moved to Indiana to be closer to family. Peggy was known for her servant’s heart and hands, and was always more than willing to work hard, listen well and love and care for those around her. She loved the Lord with all her heart and wanted to share His love with her family, friends and strangers alike.

Peggy is survived by her husband, Jim Ricker, her four children, three stepdaughters, Becky (Pete) Pardue of Cape Coral, Fla., Jody (Rick) Herring of Noblesville, Ind., and Debbie Graham of Noblesville; a brother, Hugh (Beth) Roberts of Lakeland, Fla, 23 grandchildren, 51 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

TODAY’S BIBLE READING

JOSEPH’S BROTHERS GO TO EGYPT

On the third day, Joseph said to them, “Do this and you will live, for I fear God: If you are honest men, let one of your brothers stay here in prison, while the rest of you go and take grain back for your starving households. But you must bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words may be verified and that you may not die.” This they proceeded to do.

They said to one another, “Surely we are being punished because of our brother. We saw how distressed he was when he pleaded with us for his life, but we would not listen; that’s why this distress has come on us.”

Reuben replied, “Didn’t I tell you not to sin against the boy? But you wouldn’t listen! Now we must give an accounting for his blood.” They did not realize that Joseph could understand them, since he was using an interpreter.

For The Reporter

NOBLESVILLE — After a Saturday doubleheader sweep of Hoosier Crossroads Conference rival Fishers, the Millers got back to work Monday night against the Rossville Hornets.

Noblesville made their presence known quickly at Dunker Field with a three-run first inning and was able to hold off a late push in the top of the seventh from the Hornets to post a 6-3 victory.

Starting pitcher Quinton Black sent Rossville down in order in the top of the first.

Trevor Corbett led off with a walk and advanced on an error by Rossville pitcher Matthew Ford attempting to pick him off at first. Corbett wound up at third on the overthrow.

Aiden Reynolds drove in Corbett on a sacrifice fly to right for a quick 1-0 lead. Two batters later with two down, Nolan Decker drilled a single into center. Aiden Ramsey drove in Decker with a base hit down the left field line. After Ramsey stole second, McCoy Fulk drove him home for the 3-0 lead after one.

Black fanned another pair in the second for three in his two innings, also stranding both baserunners that got on with consecutive hits.

Sam Deno walked to start the home half of the second. Courtesy runner Blake Widget stole second and third and would be sent home on a Brady Bishop single to right center that make it 4-0.

Freshman Eli Hall came in to relieve Black in the third. Hall struck out four and scattered two hits over 3.1 innings.

The Hornets got their first run in the sixth. Ashton Abbott scored when Kolten Davis reached on an error by relief pitcher Josh Peek, cutting it to 4-1.

Noblesville got back the Rossville run by adding two more in the bottom of the sixth. Ramsey and Fulk hit back-to-back singles. With Fulk up, Ramsey stole second and wound up at third.

Fulk sent a hit to center, sending Ramsey home with ease. Pinch hitter Tanner Miller drove in the final run on a line drive just past Ford at the mound, plating Fulk for a 6-1 score.

Peek took off from where he left in the sixth, striking out the final two in the inning and started the seventh off whiffing the first two hitters. He then gave up two walks in a row, both scored on a double from Zac Wainscott for the final score of 6-3.

Quinton Black (1-1) earned the win on the mound for his first on the season. Both Eli Hall and Josh Peek struck out four.

Aiden Ramsey went 3-for-3 at the plate with two runs scored, three stolen bases and drove in a run. McCoy Fulk also had a great hitting night, driving in a pair on a 2-of-3 performance.

Indianapolis Colts, IHSAA extend partnership

The REPORTER

The Indiana High School Athletic Association (IHSAA) today announced a three-year presenting partnership renewal with the NFL’s Indianapolis Colts to continue in support of Indiana high school football.

This marks the 15th year of the agreement first struck in 2009 when the Colts organization began its support of the entire football state tournament, ensuring that the state championship games would continue to be played at Lucas Oil Stadium. At that time, the Colts became the first professional sports franchise in the country to partner with a high school association for this type of sponsorship.

“The IHSAA is so excited and grateful to continue this partnership with the Indianapolis Colts,” said IHSAA Commissioner Paul Neidig. “Without the Colts and their support, Indiana high school football wouldn’t be as spectacular as it is on Friday nights in the fall.”

“We love and appreciate the values, like preparation, discipline, teamwork and inclusion, that football teaches, so we are honored to support youth and high school football at every level in our state,” said Mike Prior, Colts Football Development Commissioner and former Colts great. “This partnership with the IHSAA continues our commitment to growing the game of football in Indiana and opening opportunities in the sport to all.”

The Colts and IHSAA also have partnered on other initiatives, most notably girls high school flag football. In 2023, the Colts started the Girls Flag Football Pilot League, fueled by Gatorade, with eight high school girls’ teams representing Indianapolis and South Bend. They also have hosted clinics, jamborees, and other events, with the long-term goal of developing girls flag football as a sanctioned varsity sport in Indiana. For more info, visit Colts.com/Flag.

Meet the Candidates

Dear Readers,

It's primary election season, and we have a fine selection of candidates for you to get to know.

In these pages you will read all about the candidates who have chosen to respond to The Hamilton County Reporter's request to share their information and help you make an informed decision at the polls on or before May 7.

Candidate information is presented as it was submitted.

The Reporter takes no responsibility for any typographical, grammatical or factual errors. These are the candidates speaking to you in their own words (or in the words of duly designated campaign staff). The only edits we have made have been to cut down those statements that were submitted over the 200-word limit we set to ensure everyone had equal space in our pages.

Candidates vying for the same office are grouped together in a shaded box.

Sincerely, The Hamilton County Reporter

COUNTY

Robert (Bob) Bragg

Republican for Hamilton County Treasurer

My objectives:

1. Maximize return on investments with minimal risk:

Hamilton County's rate of return was 3.95% in 2023 and 0.99% in 2022 compared to 5.30% and 1.48% for the State of Indiana's Investment fund (www.TrustIndiana.in.gov). Matching the state fund would have resulted in an additional $8.7 million in investment income over 2 years.

2. Adopt benchmarks to evaluate investment performance:

Currently, there is no stated benchmark for investment returns. I will adopt the US Treasury three-month Bill ETF (TBIL) and the "Trust Indiana" fund as our benchmarks to properly evaluate performance.

3. Increase transparency in investments:

Currently, there is no data on invested funds on the Treasurer's web page. I will post investment returns and investment composition every quarter.

4. Increase adoption rates for E-billing of property tax statements:

The Treasurer mailed 125,000 paper copies of property tax bills in 2023. E-billing has been available for 12 years but I do not believe it has been communicated effectively. I believe we can save over $50,000 a year by reducing paper statements.

I am a lifelong investor and a fiscal conservative with over 30 years' service to Hamilton County. I am a 1989 graduate of Taylor University.

Connect with Bragg on Facebook.

Gary Duncan

Republican for County Surveyor

I look forward to being the next Hamilton County Surveyor. I have been a Professional Engineer since 1999, with a broad and diverse background that includes 10-years as a consulting engineer and project manager, 11-years as the Assistant City Engineer in the City of Carmel, and 9-years as the Staff Engineer in the Hamilton County Surveyor's Office.

I am 53-years old. I live in Carmel with my wife Rachel who is a graduate of Purdue University and a Professional Engineer. We have two sons. A graduate of Ball State and a sophomore at Purdue.

I hold a Bachelors of Science in Civil Engineering from Norwich University and a Master of Science in Civil Engineering from Purdue University.

I have extensive knowledge of urban drainage, agricultural drainage, public project development, budgeting, funding, design, construction, and project management which allows me to make cost effective decisions regarding drainage infrastructure.

While not an official position, I act as the Deputy Surveyor, which has allowed me to learn all aspects of the position, work with each member of the current staff, other elected officials, and department heads, and immediately assume the responsibilities of County Surveyor at the start of the next term.

Connect with Duncan on Facebook or by emailing duncanforsurveyor@gmail.com.

Brandon "Brad" Beaver

Republican for County Council At-Large

I have had the honor of serving on the county council for many years. The reason I should be re-elected is my track record. As one of seven members of the council, which is the finance body of county government. We have been rewarded with a AAA bond rating. The highest in the state, which keeps our borrowing cost low. WE have balanced budget, cash reserves, and have maintained a flat property rate for 10years, it even went down a few cents this year. We have well funded the sheriff and the jail, parks department and many hiway and bridge projects. I have been conservative with your tax dollars. Re-elect Brad Beaver to Hamilton County Council.

Sue Maki

Republican for County Council At-Large

Sue Maki is currently serving as Hamilton County Councilor At-Large where she holds the position of Vice President. Sue has been active in the Hamilton County civic community for many years. Steve Nation

Republican for County Council At-Large

Judge Steve Nation has dedicated his life to protecting and serving our community. In 1979, Steve became Prosecuting Attorney of Hamilton County and served four consecutive terms. In 1995, he became Hamilton County Judge and served four terms in office, and then retired in 2018. Steve's legacy and impact go far beyond the courtroom and extend far into the community.

Most notably, the conception of Hamilton County's Youth Assistance Programs started with Steve. Steve saw the common challenges that the community, schools, and families were having with youth. After several conversations within the community, it was clear that more needed to be done to help youth reach their highest potential. Westfield's Youth Assistance Program quickly began. Soon other school systems and local governments came together in Hamilton County to start their own programs. Today, Steve continues to support and work for families and children in Hamilton County.

Through Steve's leadership, he has been able to move programs forward that support mental health, child and victim abuse, and substance abuse. In his re-election bid, Steve is focused on public safety, mental health, collaboration, and completing the work that has been started.

Dr. Valerie McCray

Democrat for United States Senate

My name is Dr. Valerie McCray and I’m working hard to become your next U.S. Senator representing Indiana.

As a Psychologist, I’ve witnessed how U.S. policies profoundly affect the mental well-being of our people. I’ve worked directly with veterans struggling with PTSD, incarcerated individuals in desperate need of support and rehabilitation, and youth struggling to overcome the effects of violence. It’s clear that mental health must be a national priority and we cannot address our nation’s challenges one crisis at a time. That’s why I’m running for U.S. Senate.

Relentlessly, I will fight for beyond-subsistence wages, unions, healthcare for all, women’s rights to choose, equal rights for everyone, strengthening public education, and repealing Citizens United so people (not corporations) can be truly represented. In addition, I will champion student loan debt reduction, closing the wealth gap, and funding environmental restoration efforts.

I am both compassionate and fierce, and can relate to the struggles of working class Hoosiers. I will break barriers and build a brighter future for Indiana. Together, we can build a movement for change – one that prioritizes mental health and ensures every individual has access to resources needed and policies that help us thrive.
