The REPORTER
Westfield Mayor Scott Willis and the City Council honored David Fisher and his son, Felix, with the Lifesaving Citizen Award at Monday's council meeting.

The Fishers were honored for their courageous actions in rescuing a 19-year-old man and a dog who had fallen into icy waters on Dec. 14, 2024.

The rescue began when Felix heard a man yelling for help and alerted his father. The two rushed into action by pulling the man and the dog to safety with ropes. After the rescue, the Fishers took the man and the dog into their home to warm themselves and wait for first responders to arrive.

"I've always known that Westfield is filled with brave, kind-hearted people, but what David and Felix did is absolutely remarkable," Mayor Willis said. "Their courageous actions are the definition of what it looks like to care for your neighbor. We are proud to honor them with this well-deserved award."

Westfield Fire Chief Rob Gaylor added, "Stories like these don't always have a positive outcome. My department and I are extremely grateful to David and Felix for their quick-thinking and selfless actions that day."

CTA, BOI & FinCEN fears, oh my Starting Jan. 1, 2024, almost every business entity that was created through a state filing service in the United States was required to report the Beneficial Ownership Information (BOI) to the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Financial Crime Enforcement Network (FinCEN). Failure to file may result in up to two years in prison and a fine of $10,000. Exceptions are limited.

Beneficial owners include individuals who directly or indirectly exercise substantial control over the reporting company, or who owns or controls 25 percent or more of the company. Substantial control is broadly defined to include senior officers, those who have the ability to appoint or remove senior officers, or a majority of the board of directors, those who have substantial influence over important decisions, and those who have

Westfield Washington Schools announces leadership transition

Submitted by Westfield Washington Schools
After an extraordinary 44-year career in education, Dr. Paul Kaiser, Superintendent of Westfield Washington Schools (WWS), has announced his retirement, effective July 1, 2025.

Dr. Kaiser's tenure has been marked by his steadfast leadership, guiding the organization with a dedication to student success and an unwavering commitment to the Westfield community. He has served as Superintendent for the past four years, collaborating closely with the Board of School Trustees, dedicated educators, and staff to guide the district through a period of significant growth and achievement.

Reflecting on his time at WWS, Dr. Kaiser expressed deep gratitude:

"Westfield Washington Schools has been more than a workplace – it's been a family.

I've had the privilege of leading a district where students, staff, and the community come together to prioritize excellence. Our accomplishments will leave a lasting legacy for generations to come."

Dr. Kaiser plans to spend his retirement enjoying quality time with his three daughters and grandchildren, fishing, boating, wading in rivers for smallmouth bass, and embracing his passion for the outdoors.

The WWS Board of Trustees announced that Dr. John Atha, currently the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum, Instruction, and Learning, will step into the role of Superintendent following Dr. Kaiser's retirement. Dr. Atha brings over 30 years of educational leadership experience to his new position. During his tenure as Assistant Superintendent, he has championed academic excellence through initiatives

The winner was Bondry Consulting President Oscar Gutierrez, and he decided to use his winnings as an opportunity for young professionals to connect with local leaders. Last week, this idea came to fruition as a few young professionals got together for breakfast with Carmel Mayor Sue Finkam, Noblesville Mayor Chris Jensen, and Westfield Mayor Scott Willis. Sheriff joins forces with ICE

Hamilton County joins federal program to combat criminal illegal immigrants

By GREGG MONTGOMERY
WISH-TV | wistv.com

Hamilton County has joined a federal program that gives deputies the ability to identify and remove illegal immigrants who are criminals, the sheriff said Monday afternoon.

The federal Delegation of Immigration Authority Section 287(g) Immigration and Nationality Act of 1996 allowed U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement to delegate state and local law enforcement officers the authority to perform specific functions as immigration officers. Two versions of the Section 287(g) program exists, and it was not immediately known which version Hamilton County was joining. The sheriff says ICE will be training deputies to ID people posing threats to public safety and act swiftly to protect the community.

As of December, ICE reported Section 287(g) agreements for jail enforcement with 60 law enforcement agencies in 16 states, and for warrant service officers with 75 law enforcement agencies in 11 states. No Indiana agencies had Section 287(g) programs.

Sheriff Dennis Quakenbush issued a news release Monday afternoon about joining the federal program. The release said the Republican sheriff appointed Chief Deputy John Lowes to lead a new Immigration Commission as part of the "groundbreaking initiative."

The requirements for the report will be as follows:

1. The entity’s legal name and trade names including D/B/A’s;
2. The address of the business;
3. The jurisdiction in which it was formed or first registered; and
4. The business’ Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN).

Additionally, each beneficial owner within each company will need to provide in the report:

1. The beneficial owner’s legal name;
2. The beneficial owner’s date of birth;
3. The beneficial owner’s address; and
4. The beneficial owner’s identifying number – such as a driver’s license, passport, or other approved document – as well as an image of the document that the number is from.

All businesses that have been created or registered before Jan. 1, 2024, were supposed to have filed by Jan. 1, 2025. Companies created or registered after Dec. 31, 2023, must file within 30 calendar days of formation. Reports were accepted for filing beginning Jan. 1, 2024.

Additionally, any updates or changes within the company will require the company to file a report of changes within 30 days of the change occurring. If there are any inaccuracies within a filed report, a company will have 30 days to report such an inaccuracy. There are no safe harbor provisions for filing an incorrect report.

As you can imagine, this law has caused quite a stir among business owners, prompting several different lawsuits in various jurisdictions. The main issue is with the constitutionality of requiring that this information be reported to the federal government. Just prior to the deadline to report, a Federal Court in Texas issued a nationwide injunction “pausing” the requirement to report.

In recent weeks, we’ve seen a lot of activity surrounding this law and the reporting requirement, causing business owners who haven’t yet report some understandable concern. It’s been an on-again / off-again situation.

Most recently, one case made it all the way to the United States Supreme Court. On Jan. 23, 2025, the U.S. Supreme Court “unpaused” the reporting requirements in one of the cases. This would lead you to believe that the reporting requirements are in place again.

However, a visit to the FinCEN website reveals that there is another case in which a judge has issued a nationwide injunction (“pause”) against the reporting requirements. Because of that case, the website* advises:

On January 23, 2025, the Supreme Court granted the government’s motion to stay a nationwide injunction

Alert: Ongoing Litigation – Texas Top Cop Shop, Inc., et al. v. McHenry, et al., No. 4:24-cv-00478 (E.D. Tex.) & Voluntary Submissions [Updated January 24, 2025]

In light of a recent federal court order, reporting companies are not currently required to file beneficial ownership information with FinCEN and are not subject to liability if they fail to do so while the order remains in force. However, reporting companies may continue to voluntarily submit beneficial ownership information reports.

On January 23, 2025, the Supreme Court granted the government’s motion to stay a nationwide injunction issued by a federal judge in Texas (Texas Top Cop Shop, Inc. v. McHenry—formerly, Texas Top Cop Shop v. Garland). As a separate nationwide order issued by a different federal judge in Texas (Smith v. U.S. Department of the Treasury) still remains in place, reporting companies are not currently required to file beneficial ownership information with FinCEN despite the Supreme Court’s action in Texas Top Cop Shop. Reporting companies also are not subject to liability if they fail to file this information while the Smith order remains in force. However, reporting companies may continue to voluntarily submit beneficial ownership information reports.

To file or not to file, that is the question. With the alphabet soup of acronyms and on/off nature of this potential obligation, it’s definitely an unsettling time for business owners. One thing is clear: this is a difficult question with nationwide implications. It appears the Courts are interested in resolving the legal questions involved in this case for the benefit of all citizens, but the U.S. Supreme Court seems interested in having the lower courts finish the appeal before weighing in on all the legal issues involved.

Board President Mike Steele praised Dr. Atha’s vision and expertise:

“Dr. Atha is a strong leader who cares about education and helping students succeed. He is the perfect person to lead WWS into the future. He understands the curriculum and how to inspire, making him stand out as a leader who makes a difference.”

Dr. Atha shared his excitement for the future of WWS:

“I am honored to lead a district committed to preparing students to excel in the classroom and beyond. By prioritizing continuous improvement and innovation, we ensure WWS students are Life Ready. I look forward to supporting our talented educators, mentoring school leaders, and collaborating with the community to make this vision a reality.”

A long-standing member of the Westfield community, Dr. Atha and his wife, Mary, have six children and are deeply connected to the district’s success. His leadership philosophy reflects his commitment to collaboration, cultivating a welcoming educational environment for all students and staff, and ensuring that every student has access to opportunities to thrive.

As WWS embarks on this leadership transition, the district remains steadfast in its mission to deliver exceptional learning experiences and opportunities for all students.

The Board of Trustees extends its heartfelt appreciation to Dr. Kaiser for his exemplary leadership and congratulates Dr. Atha on his new role as Superintendent.

IMMIGRATION

Quakenbush said in a statement in the release, “Our top priority is the safety and security of Hamilton County. By joining the 287(g) program, we gain critical resources and authority to tackle the serious issue of criminal illegal aliens. With Chief Deputy Lowes’ proven leadership, this commission will operate with the utmost efficiency, integrity, and transparency.”

Lowes said in a statement in the release that the partnership with ICE will “address criminal activities linked to illegal immigration and foster a safer environment for Hamilton County residents.”

The sheriff’s release says the Immigration Commission will collaborate with federal agencies to ensure strict compliance with immigration laws; streamline processes for identifying and removing individuals involved in criminal activities; and engage with the community to build trust, understanding, and transparency around immigration enforcement efforts.

The American Immigration Council noted, in a report issued Jan. 20, that Section 287(g) programs across the nation have resulted in widespread racial profiling; led to immigration arrests of people with minor criminal histories; threatened community safety and hinder community policing; and increased law enforcement expenses for localities. The American Immigration Council report also says ICE has failed to provide sufficient training or supervision to local police agencies in Section 287(g) programs.

In Monday’s release from Hamilton County, Quakenbush wrote that the Section 287(g) program will respect diversity: “We celebrate diversity and the contributions of legal immigration, but we will not tolerate those who break the law and jeopardize the safety of our neighborhoods. This initiative reinforces our commitment to ensuring all residents – regardless of background – can live in a secure and thriving community.”

Police in some of Indiana’s major cities have voiced opposition to enforcing federal immigration laws since President Donald Trump took office Jan. 20. Trump has taken numerous steps regarding immigration during his first week in office.

Chief Chris Bailey of Indianapolis said Friday on social media, “Local law enforcement, including the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department (IMPD), does not have the authority to enforce federal immigration laws. IMPD has not been asked to take part in immigration sweeps, nor do we have any intention of doing so – that is not our role.”

Bailey also said officers don’t ask about a person’s immigration status during routine investigations as part of its goals to foster positive police-community partnerships and ensure the safety of people in Indianapolis.

Also on Friday, the leader of the Indianapolis Fraternal Order of Police, Rick Snyder, issued a similar statement: “Officers have strong concerns about illegal entry into our country especially as it relates to violent criminals, drugs and human trafficking that are ravaging our communities. However, enforcement of federal laws must be enforced by federal officers/agents and federal courts not local/state police and courts. As steps are taken by federal authorities, clear constitutional delineations must be maintained.”

Editor’s note: A bill is currently in the Indiana House that, if passed, would require that, “in the event that law enforcement officer arrests an individual for a felony or a misdemeanor and has probable cause to believe that the individual is not lawfully present in the United States, that the officer’s law enforcement agency shall notify the county sheriff of the probable cause during the individual’s intake process. Provides that a law enforcement officer shall arrest an individual in lieu of issuing a summons for a misdemeanor if the law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the individual is not lawfully present in the United States. Requires the county sheriff to notify the proper authority. Provides that a law enforcement agency, including a county sheriff, or a law enforcement officer or other employee of a law enforcement agency is immune from civil liability if there is reasonable belief that the notification requirements under this statute have been fulfilled.”

Phi Beta Psi of Sheridan looking forward to busy 2025

The Sheridan chapter of Phi Beta Psi, Theta Alpha Alpha, finished 2024 having assisted 17 local individuals who had been diagnosed with cancer. Our gift cards to those individuals can be used for fuel to and from appointments or treatments, medications, or food for them and their families to help ease some of their expenses.

Our annual holiday celebration of an Italian dinner, games, and gift exchange was enjoyed by 22 of our 30 members in December. It was a fun night of food and fellowship for all who were able to attend. We look forward to this gathering every year.

We are preparing for an already busy 2025 by hosting our annual Euchre Night at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 22 at The Studio on Main in Sheridan. The cost to play is $20. Bring one-dollar bills to pay the pig!

Phi Beta Psi's Community support is cancer research, Sheridan senior scholarships for students pursuing a career in medicine, and assisting community members facing cancer.

Use your common sense when taking health supplements

“Judgment would seem to be seated in that part where all the senses meet; and this is called common sense...”
— Leonardo Da Vinci, the Codex Windsor

I recall years ago (many!) when my grandmother in North Carolina would comment, “He/She does not have any common sense!” She could have been referring to a neighbor, an actor on television — even a relative! Most of us have our own understanding of “common sense” and truthfully there is no one definition as it can be subjective, although Merriam-Webster tells us that it is “sound and prudent judgment based on simple perception of the situation or facts.” Works for me!

Moving past Da Vinci and even Thomas Paine for the purpose of this column, let’s talk about common sense as it relates to the multi-billion supplement industry.

Like clockwork we are bombarded immediately after the holidays with ads for vitamins and weight-loss supplements. Astoundingly, Americans spend nearly $50 billion annually on supplements.¹ And, truly, why would we need vitamin supplements? A possible reason might be that we are not eating nutritionally as we know we need certain vitamins and minerals in order to be our healthy personal best. Particularly, after the holiday “goodies” consumption, our bodies crave good, nutritious food which will enable us to feel better, look better, and think better. Remember that your brain is also craving good nutrition!

There are some vitamins and nutrients that can be helpful, such as Vitamin D and fish oil, folic acid, and others. However, these should be considered after your annual wellness visit with your physician and any follow-up bloodwork. Some supplements can interfere with any medications you may be prescribed. Commercial, magazine articles, and coupons cannot analyze your personal nutritional needs. Full disclosure — I do take some nutritional supplements which work well for me and are reported to my physician on my annual visit.

Weight-loss supplements are a significant portion of that multi-billion supplement industry. Obviously, maintaining a healthy weight is quite important as it relates to diabetes, heart health and other factors. Before you spend significantly on these supplements, I challenge you to “get down to basics” and make sure your daily food intake is predominantly vegetables, complex carbohydrates, fruits, and clean protein. Adding additional activity along with a healthy eating plan will enable you to feel better, look better, and THRIVE in ’25!

Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police name State Rep. Garcia Wilburn as ‘Legislator of the Year’

The REPORTER

State Rep. Victoria Garcia Wilburn (D-Fishers) was honored as a Legislator of the Year by the Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) at its annual Mid-Winter Conference on Tuesday. The mission of the IACP is to promote professionalism, training and networking for the law enforcement executive and to enhance public awareness of law enforcement and public safety issues.

Garcia Wilburn released the following statement thanking the IACP for the honor:

“I’m so grateful to receive this recognition from the Indiana Association of Chiefs of Police for my work advocating for police chiefs and law enforcement at the Statehouse. I will always support law enforcement, and continuing to earn your trust is a priority for me. A question I always ask myself before writing legislation is ‘How does this impact law enforcement?’ The profession is always at the top of my mind.

“In fact, a priority for me this session is ensuring that the first responder mental health training passed in my 2023 legislation is funded into the future through House Bill 1092, which I’ve authored and am advocating for with my fellow lawmakers. It’s a privilege to advocate for my local police chiefs and their departments, as well as law enforcement statewide, at the Indiana House of Representatives.”

Noblesville asks Indiana Bond Bank for ‘HELP’ with first responder vehicles

The REPORTER

Indiana Treasurer Daniel Elliott announced Monday that the Indiana Bond Bank assisted the City of Noblesville with financing essential equipment through its Hoosier Equipment Lease Purchase (HELP) Program.

From Ford Police Interceptor SUVs to ambulances, the $5,027,743 purchase of essential equipment was made possible through this program.

“The HELP Program is super simple with just a one-page form, helping cities and towns score great rates with flexible terms,” Elliott said. “Without it, many places might not afford the gear they need to keep things running smoothly.”

The HELP program assists Indiana communities in obtaining essential equipment through a standardized and efficient lease-purchase process. It provides standard-term leases with flexible repayment options at competitive rates. By effectively securing competitive bids from various financial institutions statewide, the program ensures the lowest financing costs, thereby saving taxpayer money.

Since its inception, the HELP program has financed over $471 million in essential equipment for Indiana communities.

About the Indiana Bond Bank

The Indiana Bond Bank (IBB) was established as a self-supporting quasi-government entity by the Legislature in 1984. A seven-member board oversees the Bond Bank, with the Treasurer serving as the chair of the board, the Public Finance Director of the Indiana Finance Authority is statutorily appointed, with the remaining five members being appointed by the Governor. The Bond Bank assists local governments in the process of issuing debt and provides the following programs: the Advance Funding Program, Community Funding Resource Program, Hoosier Equipment Lease Purchase (HELP) Program, Fuel Budgeting Program, and Interim Loan Program.

Chatham Home relocating to Carmel

Submitted

After 13 years in downtown Indianapolis, Chatham Home, a beloved family-run home goods store, will soon move to Main Street in Carmel.

Since opening its doors in August 2011, the store has become a destination for those seeking unique, hard-to-find items at fair prices. With its new location, the business is paring down its larger furniture options and expanding its smaller offerings to include a curated selection of gifts and gift baskets, making it the go-to destination for every occasion.

“Indianapolis has been our home for more than a decade, and we’ve cherished the relationships we’ve built with our customers there,” Owner Faith Felder said.

Her daughter, Hope Harsin, COO, added, “This move to Carmel represents an exciting new chapter for our business. We look forward to bringing the same relaxed shopping experience and carefully chosen products that our customers love, along with a renewed focus on gifts.”

The new location is located on Main Street in the former Carmel Music Center.

The Grand Opening is yet to be determined since they plan to do a bit of renovating to the building. The new space will be warm and inviting to reflect the store’s charm and commitment to quality. Customers can expect an expanded inventory of home goods and décor alongside thoughtfully selected gifts, all tailored to meet the needs of local residents and visitors.

Customers are invited to follow the business on Facebook for updates on the old location moving sale, renovation progress, and grand opening details.

About Chatham Home

Chatham Home takes pride in being a small, family-owned business where every customer is treated like family. Westfield Democrats Club has impressive turnout for annual January meeting

Photos provided by Cary Fuller

Last week, over 50 people gathered to attend the Westfield Democrats Club’s annual January event. It was an impressive turnout for a non-election year, especially considering the bitterly cold weather. The theme this year was “Building Blue,” and the club was joined by outgoing Indiana Democratic Party Chair Mike Schmuhl. He spoke about what he believes needs to be done at both a federal and state level to move towards positive political change for all Hoosiers, encouraging attendees to get involved with their time, talent, and treasure. The Westfield Democrats Club hosts many events throughout the year to help build community and to support quality candidates and progressive legislation.

Indiana Senate resolves to put term limits on Congress

The REPORTER
On Monday, the Indiana Senate passed Senate Joint Resolution 21 (SJR 21), which notifies Congress that Indiana seeks to participate in an amendment convention for the sole purpose of proposing a congressional term limits amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The effort, led by State Sen. Andy Zay (R-Huntington) and spearheaded by the nonpartisan nonprofit U.S. Term Limits, passed 31 to 18. According to the latest RMG Research poll, 84 percent of likely Hoosier voters support term limits on Congress, including strong support among Republicans, Democrats, and Independents alike. U.S. Term Limits President Philip Blumel commended the Indiana state senators who voted “yea” on the resolution. “The people of Indiana are lucky to have public servants who see what is going on in D.C. and are willing to take action to fix it,” Blumel said. “They know that Congress won’t set term limits on itself. Therefore, it is the obligation of the states to do so.” Once SJR 21 passes the House, Indiana will join other states in the call to convene the states for the exclusive purpose of proposing term limits on the U.S. Congress. Once 34 state legislatures pass similar resolutions on the topic and approve the term limits amendment, it must be ratified by 38 states to become part of the U.S. Constitution. About U.S. Term Limits U.S. Term Limits is the largest nonpartisan, nonprofit organization advocating solely on term limits. The organization’s mission is to improve the quality of government with a citizen legislature that closely reflects its constituency and is responsive to the needs of the people it serves. USTL does not require a self-limit on individuals. USTL’s aim is to limit the terms of all members of Congress as an institution. Find out more at termlimits.org. U.S. Term Limits does not endorse candidates. Candidates who sign the pledge endorse term limits.

Governor Mike Braun directs numerous Indiana agencies to cooperate with federal government on illegal immigration control

Submitted by Office of the Governor Governor Mike Braun signed an executive order on Tuesday aimed at protecting the public from the potential threats posed by illegal immigrants in the state. The action also assists the Trump administration by offering full cooperation with the federal government. “Over the last four years, the increase in illegal aliens flooding our country has created a significant threat to public safety for Hoosiers and allowed bad actors to abuse American generosity, costing taxpayers at every level. That ends now,” Braun said. “Indiana will cooperate fully with the federal government, offering the assistance of the Indiana National Guard while strengthening our own efforts at home to keep illegal aliens with criminal histories out of our communities.” Gov. Braun said this executive order delivers on his promise to place public safety operations at the forefront of collaboration with the Trump administration to manage immigration in Indiana. The Indiana Department of Administration and all agencies exercising contracting authority shall require state vendors, prior to entering any contract with the state, to certify their use of E-Verify to ensure their workforce is lawfully permitted to work in the United States and the State of Indiana. Taxpayer money will not fund the contracts of illegal immigrants.

Indiana’s law enforcement agencies will report to the Indiana Intelligence Fusion Center credible evidence of illegal aliens with a prior criminal history and/or are suspected of committing a felony, suspected of engaging in terror or espionage, or who present a significant threat to national security or public safety. The Indiana National Guard will make available to the federal government the state resources of the Indiana National Guard and cooperate fully with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). A full list of executive orders signed by Gov. Braun can be found at in.gov/gov/newsroom/executive-orders.

Westfield to pursue Professional Sports Development Area near Grand Park

The REPORTER

The Westfield City Council heard an ordinance on Monday evening to pursue a Professional Sports Development Area (PSDA) in the Grand Park District.

This strategic initiative aligns with city officials' vision to create a dynamic district that supports professional and youth sports, hospitality, and community-driven projects while generating economic growth and enhancing the quality of life for residents.

A PSDA is a special district that allows local governments to capture new tax revenue – generated by sports facilities, hotels, and other commercial properties within the district – to fund infrastructure improvements and new sports facilities. This district enables communities to capture state income, sales, and specific local taxes, including income and innkeepers' taxes, from designated parcels within a one-mile radius of a new development that serves one or more professional sports teams.

"Westfield has long been a hub for professional sports, and this initiative positions us to strengthen our economic future and tourism potential," Mayor Scott Willis said. "The PSDA will enhance our status as a destination for world-class sports events and boost the local and state economy."

The decision to pursue a PSDA stems from the city's ongoing efforts to build upon the success of Grand Park, which has already become a premier location for sports and tourism in the country. Grand Park is home to the Indianapolis Colts training camp and the training facilities for both the Indy Eleven men's and women's soccer teams. Additionally, the city recently announced a new Grand Park District Master Plan, which includes the development of a new 10,000-seat stadium to anchor the district and bring the Indy Eleven women's soccer team to Westfield.

City officials says the PSDA is expected to generate $92 million in new tax revenue for both the city and the state over the next 32 years. Importantly, the PSDA will not divert existing tax revenue from other city or state resources; instead, it captures new tax revenue generated by the district's development. State officials has set a cap of $2 million per year for tax revenue captured by the local municipality, ensuring that the program remains sustainable and benefits both Westfield and Indiana.

This annual revenue will be reinvested into the district to fund additional sports infrastructure, hotels, restaurants, and commercial properties. This will create jobs, drive tourism, and attract new businesses, contributing to Westfield's long-term economic growth.

"We are building on our past successes to establish a vibrant sports district that will benefit our residents, attract tourism dollars, and strengthen the economy of both Westfield and Indiana," City Council President Patrick Tamm said. "The PSDA will be a key element in transforming this area into a thriving, dynamic district that draws professional teams, events, and visitors from around the world."

Mayor Willis added, "We are uniquely positioned to leverage our assets, including Grand Park, to create an ecosystem that supports professional sports, tourism, and economic development. With the PSDA, we are taking a forward-thinking approach to planning and development that will benefit not just Westfield but the entire region and the state of Indiana."

Obituary

Marilyn Thomas

February 21, 1923 – January 24, 2025

Marilyn Thomas, 101, Carmel, passed away on January 24, 2025, one month before her 102nd birthday. She was a beloved teacher, friend, mother, and grandmother who was born on February 21, 1923, in Whitcomb, Ind., daughter of Alpheus and Nora (Updike) Sampson.

Marilyn has become known in Carmel for her beautiful flowers which can be seen from the library. At one time Marilyn belonged to a seed exchange group that sent each other seeds all over the United States. Marilyn also helped start Citizens for Green Space, a group that promoted planting trees in Carmel, as well as started the Carmel Parks Department and planted flowers in the various parks. She taught elementary students the importance of trees, learning to grow and care for all types of plants.

Marilyn moved to Carmel in 1953. She designed and oversaw the building of her home in 1957 and '58. She dedicated her home to the glory of God and held a weekly Bible study until the pandemic. Groups such as Youth for Christ and Cru met in her home because of its close proximity to Carmel High School.

After the first junior high school was built, Marilyn formed the "Gray Ladies," a group of mothers who took special training from Red Cross to staff the nurse's office if the nurse who served three buildings was in another location.

As a founding member of the Carmel Clay education Foundation, Marilyn worked with that group for several years. She was also a founding member of the Carmel Clay Historical Society. She volunteered at Conner Prairie Settlement when the many craft programs were just beginning. Marilyn enjoyed learning the various pioneer crafts and demonstrating them to classes of children and various other groups. She was the leader of a 4-H Club called the Carmel Mainliners because most of the members lived close to Main Street.

Marilyn returned to college in 1969 and earned her bachelor's degree in education. She taught third grade at the new Mohawk Trails Elementary School, but as she was earning her master's degree, she moved to Carmel Elementary for the last 17 years of her teaching career. She would take her second-grade classes to her front yard for a science/nature lesson and ice cream bars! Marilyn worked on curriculum for a number of classes, but her favorites were the "outdoor environmental curriculum" and Indiana history curriculum. Various parts of these have been used by Carmel Clay Schools as well as schools all over Indiana for several years.

The joy and delight for Marilyn were her grandchildren as she would often take one of them on a short trip. She loved entertaining and playing games with her great-grandchildren. Her various dogs and cats were beloved family members, too.

Marilyn served as a picker to several antique shops by going to garage sales and estate sales for 25 years following her retirement. She was an avid reader, often reading six or seven books a week. She enjoyed playing games, especially Hand and Foot. She loved going to craft sales and creating all types of crafts. Her favorite crafts were rug hooking and basketmaking, but over her lifetime she did a great variety of crafts including spinning, weaving, and painting. Each week for several years, she hosted a group of ladies to work on crafts.

Marilyn was a charter member of Faith Missionary Church. She attended Carmel Friends Church for several years.

In addition to her parents, Marilyn was preceded in death by her brother, Gareth Ward Sampson.

Survivors include her daughter, SaraBeth (Sally) Rushmore and husband Charles of Carmel; son, David Thomas of Jeffersonville; grandchildren, Michael Rushmore and wife Julie, Timothy Rushmore, and Rebecca Rushmore and husband Jesse Patrick; great-grandchildren, Shelby Rushmore and Addison Rushmore; and great-great-grandchildren, Aubrey Fellick, Samantha Fellick, Cassidy Fellick, and Ezekiel Fellick.

Family and friends will gather at 10 a.m. Friday, February 7, 2025, at Faith Church, 9125 N. College Ave., Indianapolis, where the Funeral Service will begin at 11 a.m. Burial will take place in Union Chapel Cemetery.

In memory of Marilyn contributions may be given to Samaritan's Purse. Envelopes will be available at the service.

Bussell Family Funerals is privileged to assist the family in arrangements.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of Egypt, and go up to the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I will send an angel before you and drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. Go up to the land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not go with you, because you are a stiff-necked people and I might destroy you on the way."

When the people heard these distressing words, they began to mourn and no one put on any ornaments. For the Lord had said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go with you even for a moment, I might destroy you. Now take off your ornaments and I will decide what to do with you.'" So the Israelites stripped off their ornaments at Mount Horeb.

Beverly Joyce Smiley

February 1, 1936 – January 25, 2025

Beverly Joyce Smiley, 88, Fishers, passed away on Saturday, January 25, 2025, at Community Hospital North in Indianapolis. She was born on February 1, 1936, to Robert Carl and Eileen (Dodd) Wade in Indianapolis.

Joyce graduated from Indianapolis Washington High School. She was a devoted mother who worked multiple jobs to raise her two daughters. She took pride in her work as an office manager for Dr. Ralph Streeter, OB/GYN, for over 30 years. Joyce joined a monthly Bridge club with her seven good friends in the 1970s and was playing to the present day. She was an avid Indiana University Basketball and Bobby Knight fan and would ignore phone calls when a game was on TV. Joyce looked forward to a week on Dale Hollow reservoir fishing with her husband Enoch during many summers. She took great pride in the success of her daughters and grandchildren. Her Beef Stew and Chicken Noodle soup were the best gifts she could give. As a member of Geist Christian Church, Joyce loved her Bible study group. She enjoyed meeting and talking to everyone, including her neighbors in Whisper Knoll, the Kroger staff, her doctors and their staff, her church congregation, and sometimes total strangers. In recent years, Joyce was known for the bling in her wardrobe, her silver hair, and how she sparkled everywhere she went.

She is survived by her daughters, Carla (Kirk) Bidwell and Stacy (Vince) Salupo; grandchildren, Patrick Bidwell (Clarissa Johnson), Kelsey Bidwell, Nicholas (Ellyn) Salupo, and Andrew Salupo (Kaylin Worthington); and great-grandchildren, Lincoln and Salvatore.

In addition to her parents, Joyce was preceded in death by her husband, Enoch C Smiley, Jr.; brother, Robert W. Wade; and sister, Sharon Gail Wilson.

Visitation will be from 3 to 6:30 p.m. Thursday, January 30, 2025, immediately followed by a funeral service with Pastor Kyle Brown officiating. Visitation will be held at Randall & Roberts Fishers Mortuary, 12010 Allisonville Road, Fishers. A short graveside service and burial will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, January 31, 2025, at Oaklawn Memorial Gardens, 9700 Allisonville Road, Indianapolis.

Memorial contributions may be made to Geist Christian Church, 8550 Mud Creek Road, Indianapolis, IN 46256 (secure.myvanco.com/L-ZCWB/home).

Dennis Herschel Justice

February 12, 1946 – January 24, 2025

It is with heavy hearts and joyful memories that we announce the passing of Dennis Herschel Justice, 78, Anderson, who left us on Friday, January 24, 2025. Dennis was born in Noblesville on February 12, 1946, to the late Herschel and Ethel (Ridge) Justice.

Dennis lived a life full of passion, laughter, and love. He met his match in Jeanne (O'Connor) Justice, and on August 24, 1985, they tied the knot, embarking on 40 wonderful years of marriage together. Their shared journey was filled with love, humor, and countless memories.

Dennis worked at Industrial Dielectrics, retiring in 2010 after years of dedicated service in Data Processing. Beyond work, Dennis's true passion lies in his family, his community, and his hobbies. Dennis was a lifelong fan of classic cars and car shows, only to be matched by his love for Purdue sports and the Colts. He was known for his sense of humor, and many found themselves on the receiving end of a great story or two – often with a twist that only Dennis could provide.

Dennis was also a devoted coach, teaching and guiding young athletes in Little League. He grew up on a farm in Arcadia near Roberts Settlement, and that love of nature stuck with him throughout his life. Whether it was fishing, boating, or simply spending time with his family, he cherished those moments.

Dennis is survived by his beloved wife, Jeanne Justice of Anderson; his son, Nicholas (Christi) Justice of San Juan, Puerto Rico; his daughter, Abigail Justice of Indianapolis; his granddaughter, Madison Justice; and his nephew, Alan (Andi) Brown of Zionsville; brothers-in-law, Philip O'Connor, Kerry (Tina) O'Connor, Patrick (Joyce) O'Connor, and Daniel (Becky) O'Connor; and sisters-in-law, Laura (Dan) Pitcock, Harriett (Martin) Russel, Janice (Tony) Martin, and Karen (Andy) Brock.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Herschel and Ethel Justice; his sisters, Luella Hodges and Judy Justice; and many friends who will miss his warmth and wit.

Visitation will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday, January 30, 2025, at Hartley Funeral Home, 209 W. Jackson St., Cicero. A Funeral Mass will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, Jan. 31, 2025, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Cicero, with Father Sean Pogue officiating.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Disabled American Veterans Association and Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

For online condolences, please visit hartleyfuneralhomes.com.

Dennis lived life to the fullest and will be remembered fondly for his humor, love, and the lasting mark he left on all who knew him. He'll be deeply missed, but never forgotten.

Decatur Central gets the best of University

CARMEL – The University girls fell to Decatur Central 51-37 Tuesday at the U Center for the Trailblazers’ Senior Night game. The Class 4A Hawks gradually built a 19-11 half-time lead over 2A University. The ‘Blazers stayed in the game thanks to one of their seniors: Anyah Turley scored seven points in the first half. (University’s other senior, Taylor Seay, was injured and unable to play.) “We just looked like we were out of it a bit,” said ‘Blazers coach Lisa Pryor. “A little disjointed, which I’m not sure where that came from. It’s disappointing because we had a couple of good practices. We’ve also been off and haven’t played since the PAAC championship a week and a half ago, and I think that probably contributed.”

Decatur Central led 32-22 after three quarters, although the Trailblazers kept the Hawks’ lead in single digits for most of the period. Turley scored four points in the early stages of the third, with Culp making a 3-point-er late in the period.

Leah Norvell opened the fourth quarter by hitting a jumper, but Decatur Central answered with back-to-back layins. The Hawks kept their lead over 10 points from that point forward, but University didn’t go away: Norvell totaled seven points in the quarter and Sydney Culp hit two 3s.

“They bust their butts,” said Pryor. “They work, they do what we ask them to do. They have good attitudes for the most part. I can’t be mad at their effort, right? I’m not mad at them anyway. We have to learn how to handle certain situations a little bit better. It’s not even just adversity. We get a packed gym and then I think they got a little anxious.”

The Trailblazers had only six players available, but all six of them scored at least one point. Turley led the way with 11 points, while Sydney Culp and Norvell both scored eight points.

University is 8-11 and finishes the regular season Thursday at Speedway. That game starts at 6 p.m.

Greyhounds get tough, bounce back after first half to beat Cathedral

The REPORTER The Carmel girls toughed out a win at Cathedral on Tuesday, 42-39.

The Irish led 7-4 after the first quarter and 19-16 at halftime. Sydney Bonds and Mackenzie Woods each scored five points for the Greyhounds in the second period. Carmel then surged ahead in the third quarter for a 31-29 advantage, with Woods getting six points and Mallory Bourquein scoring five.

The fourth quarter was close, but the ‘Hounds edged out Cathedral 11-10 in that period to get the victory. Maddy Wallace drained two 3-pointers, then Bonds made two free throws with 4.5 seconds left to clinch the win.

All seven Carmel players that took to the floor scored at least one point. Woods finished with 13 points, followed by eight for Wallace and seven for Bonds.

The Greyhounds are 10-11 and finish the regular season Friday at Ben Davis.

Carmel's Sydney Bonds made two free throws with 4.5 seconds left to seal a 42-39 win for the Greyhounds Tuesday at Cathedral.
